

More Than 100 Called From Studies To Serve Nation in Armed Forces

Lists Will Be Augmented* By Draftees, Reservists, Called Into Service

Today there are approximately 110 men of the classes of '43, '44, '45, and '46 serving in the armed forces of the United States. All of these men would be at Hobart now, weren't it for the war.

They are just the vanguard of these classes; they will be augmented by many more who will leave in the near future either through the draft, or through the calling of the Regular Reserve groups.

Their names will swell the list of their following classmates:
