

P. G.
Pro file WS
dra
1911
C. 1

William Smith College

Geneva, N. Y.

Pygmalion and Galatea

A Comedy in three acts by W. S. Gilbert

Presented in the William Smith Gymnasium

May 17 and 19, 1911

Under the direction of Professor John Muirhead

Synopsis

ACT I—Studio of Pygmalion, an Athenian Sculptor

ACT II—The same: Next morning

ACT III—The same: Afternoon

Cast of Characters:

In order of entrance

Mimos, Pygmalion's slave, . . . . .	Louise Perrine
Agesimos, Chrysos' slave, . . . . .	Teressa Stevens
Pygmalion, an Athenian sculptor . . . . .	Marie Sporer
Cynisca, Pygmalion's wife, . . . . .	Francis Turgeon
Myrine, Pygmalion's sister, . . . . .	Helen Addison
Leucippe, a soldier, . . . . .	Mary Lyon
Galatea, an animated statue, . . . . .	Emily Smith
Daphne, Chrysos' wife, . . . . .	Alida Randall
Chrysos, an art patron, . . . . .	Helen Hawthorn
Daphne's slave, . . . . .	Evangaline Keefe
The Statue, . . . . .	Daisy Weeks

Furniture loaned by Mr. J. E. Hale, and statuary by Miss Scott.