Beau Geste — — Percival C. Wren

This is a story of the thrilling adventures, hardships, sorrows and joys of three young brothers who are left as orphans to the care of a kind, loving aunt and her tyrannical husband. The uncle was usually away on long trips of adventure but when at home was strict and exacting with his wife and his tenants. He would not repair his property but expected to collect the rent just the same even though his renters starved. Lady Brandon was very kind and did all she could to make amends for her husband's neglect. One night when the three brothers are gathered in Lady Brandon's drawing room looking at a very valuable jewel the wonder gem disappears. Everyone present is questioned but each one denies being the guilty party. Within the next few days all three brothers spelling and third in reading. She will represent the eighth grade in spelling at the contest at PotEAU. Kathleen is our Matron's daughter and Mary our Superintendent's daughter and we are very proud of them and glad to know that E. O. S. S. is to be so well represented at the County Meet.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Logan were in Booneville March 31. While there Mr. Logan received his initiation to the Masonic Lodge.

Miss Martha Baker visited friends in Booneville March 31.

Dr. and Mrs. John Stewart and daughter, Margaret, were E. O. S. S. visitors recently. Sunday morning Dr. Stewart sang at the First Methodist Church of Talihina and Sunday leave and each one leaves a note saying that he took the jewel. The brothers join the French Foreign Legion and meet many hardships. Even though they've been used to luxury they quickly adjust themselves to their new surroundings and make model soldiers.

The book is well written and is very interesting. Each of the boys is so loyal it is difficult to tell which one is the greatest hero.

During the month we received several good books from the Tulsa County Public Health Association, Tulsa, and from patients, which we appreciate very much. At present our library is very limited and we welcome any donations. If any readers of this column have any books they think would be suitable for our library we would be very glad to receive them.

afternoon favored the patients at the san with a solo at Church Services held by Rev. Whitworth. Dr. Stewart also made a very interesting talk in the dining room to the patients.

Dr. F. P. Baker, Superintendent and Miss Mary Vann Harris, Field Nurse of E. O. S. S. assisted by Mrs. Davis, County Nurse of Muskogee County and Mrs. White and Mrs. Cornelius of Muskogee held a three-day clinic at Muskogee March 21-22-23 in connection with Dr. Jordan of the Muskogee County Health Unit. Many ex-patients and others were examined. Many new cases of tuberculosis were found and it is to be regretted that there is no room in the sanatorium at present for them.
