

PAVILION NEWS

NORTHWEST PORCH

Motto: "Chase Like Helen B. Happy."

Reporter: Theo Hickman.

The changes on our porch during the past month consist of only three. Mrs. Jacobs was transferred to the hospital and we learn that she is doing nicely. Miss Eva Wood returned to her home in Calvin where she will continue chasing and Mrs. L. T. Porta also decided to keep sanatorium regulations at her home in Oklahoma City. We miss them very much.

Visitors to our porch during the past month were Mrs. Alice Beaty, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Crews, Viola Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Garret and family of Poteau visiting Miss Faye Beaty; Chester McNutt of Tulsa visiting Mrs. McNutt; Mr. Joe Bill Self and Mr. Jake Covey of Atoka visiting Mrs. Self; Mr. Boyd Kernek, Miss Estara Haynes, Miss Gladys Hune, Mr and Mrs. Owen Bates and Ward Mills of Holdenville, visiting Miss Ellen Haynes; Mr. C. W. Cansdelle and Mr. Sank Jacobs of Chelsea visiting Miss Maynard.

Co-Medical Column

Q. Why is it that a person possessing tuberculosis cannot run?

A. He can run but he should not let anyone catch him.

Q. Why is it necessary that we must always wear our bathrobes?

A. It isn't always necessary but be sure you have it within reach when Mrs. Kernell is on duty.

Q. Will you give me a remedy for leaping dandruff?

A. Make a small net of mosquito bar and seine for them.

Q. My nose is always watering. My father tells me he had the same difficulty, tell me is it hereditary?

A. Yes it may run in the family.

Q. Is good chasing essential in obtaining a cure?

A. Yes if it is the type of chasing I think you have reference to.

PAVILION NEWS

SOUTHWEST PORCH

Motto: "Chase Bugs With A Smile."

Reporters: Bernice Sullivan and Lucille Thompson.

We miss Miss Maxine Kramer who was transferred to the hospital but hope she can be with us again soon. We also miss Mrs. Lyman who has gone home to chase. We welcome Mrs. Effie Crites from Ponca City.

We all agree our porch should be perfect if it wasn't for: Maude raving about her temp; Mrs. Ricketts talking in her sleep; Martha being so awfully restless; Bernice talking about her home and Roy, and Mrs. Crites quarreling because the bell rings before she gets through reading.

Mrs. Ricketts arm began itching one night so she said "Girls what must I do?" Maude said, "Wait until morning and get an order from Dr. Head and then scratch."

One of Bernice's friends wrote and asked her what kind of bathtubs they had in the pavillion and her reply was that she didn't know as she had been here only little over a month.

Miss Kernell: "What made you forget to take your medicine?"

Mrs. Crites: "Well, since I greased my hair everything slips my mind."

HURRAH FOR THE BIG SALE

A table for sale by Maude with four white legs.

Nice pillow for sale by Mrs. Ricketts stuffed with duck feathers.

Dress for sale by Martha in two pieces.

Bathrobe for sale by Lucille without any color.

Pair of hose for sale by Bernice without any feet.

Old shoes for sale by Mrs. Crites without any sole.