What is it to be a
companion of Jesus today?
It is to engage,
under the standard
of the Cross,
in the crucial struggle
of our times:
the struggle for faith
and that struggle for justice which it includes.

Eight Martyrs of El Salvador: These six Jesuit priests, their cook and her daughter were murdered by members of the U.S.-trained Atlacatl Brigade of the Salvadoran armed forces in the middle of the night, November 16, 1989. They join more than 75,000 other Salvadorans who have been victims of war and/or violent military repression in that land since 1979. No one has been prosecuted for these murders.
