AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for pilgrim feet,
Whose stern, impassioned stress,
A thoroughfare for freedom beat
Across the wilderness!
America! America!
God mend thine ev'ry flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law!

O beautiful for glorious tale
Of liberating strife,
When valiantly for man's avail,
Men lavished precious life!
America! America!
May God thy gold refine,
Till all success be nobleness,
And ev'ry gain divine!

O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

—Katherine Lee Bates.

THE GOVERNMENT TO BE

To the tune of "Austria.")

Thro' the clamor and the riot
That is heard from sea to sea,
I can feel the coming quiet
Of the government to be;
Vain the effort to dissemble
For the truth is clear to all,
And the old conditions tremble
Like a ruin doomed to fall.

Vain the veiling and disguising
Of the evils which exist,
For new systems are uprising
From the wreckage and the mist;
And the mills of God are slowly
Surely grinding out their grist,
While the laws of right and justice
Hold and evermore persist.

As the sun first tints the border
Of the darkness with his light,
So the faint far gleam of order
Gilds the chaos of the night;
And the dawn shall grow in splendor
To the fullness of the day
When the hands of greed surrender,
What from toil they tore away.

For the land to all was given—
It belongs to you and me;
'T is a law of earth and heaven
Broken now from sea to sea.
Let monopoly be driven
From the fortress of the free;
And let liberty bid welcome
To the government to be.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

HYMN OF THE TOILERS

O nation strong and great
For thine own honor's sake
Hear thou our call;
We are thy children, too,
From year to year we grew.
Silent and patient thro'
Darkness and toil.

Out from the depths of crime
We've tried in vain to climb
Where nothing led;
When life and justice asked
Still further down were cast,
E'en sobs were hushed at last
And hope seemed dead.

But now, O nation strong
To thee must truth belong,
Crown thou the right;
We are thy children still
Working with might and will
Ne'er resting till we fill
The world with light.

—Rose Alice Cleveland.
