United States Department of State
Washington, D.C. 20520-6263

Dear Bernie:

As we discussed earlier today, I would appreciate your assurances on the following matters.

1. Your personal assurance that the judge in El Salvador has been informed of the U.S. Major's "additional" testimony, which we discussed on the phone.
2. Your assurance that the U.S. Government has offered to make the U.S. Major available to the judge for further questioning, no holds barred.
3. Your assurance that Members of the Speaker's Task Force will be allowed to review the transcripts of all the U.S. Major's interviews and lie detector tests taken in the United States.
4. The names, positions and phone numbers of every official of the State Department, Defense Department, the Embassy and FBI who participated in, or who were fully briefed on, the U.S. Major's statements.

Thank you for your cooperation. I would appreciate hearing from you by noon on Friday, October 12.

Sincerely,

John Joseph Moakley
