Memories are like reflections.

they are but a reminder of reality.

To life . . .
and it's eternal pursuit

God created man . . .

and placed him
in a world of

incredible beauty

. . . a world
in which man could live in concert with nature

. . . a world safe
for all forms of life

a place where birth and death
would seem most natural

Yet even in the midst of such great beauty . . .

Man has made his presence known

So now we have a
dirty and ugly world

Into such a world
we each are born . . .

to follow life
and wonder . . .

Why?

And now we are at Suffolk . . .
each one seeking his own answers
to his important questions

To the Class of 1973:

The Class of 1973 has been fortunate to have received its higher education during one of the most important and historically interesting periods in the American academy. From the tumult of the fall of 1969 to the relative quiet of the spring of 1973, you have been participants and observers in your own development and that of your contemporaries at an unprecedented pace.

It is my sincere wish that this unique experience, combined with the formal lessons learned, will be the foundation for outstanding individual success.

Sincerely,

ulations!

The Staff of the Beacon has this year decided for the first time to award a distinguished female member of the faculty here at Suffolk the honor of Woman of the Year. This move is partially in response to the growing movement for Women's Liberation, but mainly it is due to the personality of the various faculty members.

After careful consideration, the Staff of the Beacon has decided to present what we hope is only the first in a series of awards to the outstanding faculty at Suffolk. This year's award is presented to Professor Judith R. Dushku for her interest and concern with the students at Suffolk, not only in the classroom but all over the campus. In the past years, she has served as a class advisor, as well as being an advisor to individual students and a variety of clubs and organizations. She has served with a sincerity and feeling which have won her the admiration of both students and faculty. Because of this, the Staff of the Beacon proudly select her as the First Annual Woman of the Year. And it is a choice well made.

This year's edition of the Beacon is, in many respects, a departure from the traditional structure of Suffolk's yearbooks. Some familiar sections have been omitted while new sections have been added. All of this has been done in an effort to make this book a more personal remembrance of our years at Suffolk. It is my sincere hope that both these changes and the Beacon itself will be to your liking.

This book could not have been produced without the help of many dedicated individuals whom I would like to thank. First, Jim Peterson the director of Student Activities and his secretary, Raye King for all their help. Also, I must thank my photographers Fred Nazzaro, Fred Chase, Dan Fitzgerald and Guy Parrota. Professor Robert Jennings also made several photograpic contributions to the color section.

Finally, I would like to express thanks to Lou Connelly from Public Relations, Joe Donovan from Keller Publishing Co. and the staff at Jordan Marsh Studios. Without the assistance of all these people the 1973 Beacon would not have been possible.

TO LOSE IN OLD

The moments of a stoneless year
Without the haze of sunless cheer
And the road that I am on leads to no where comes from none.

By the time that I am old
I'll have stories to be told
I'll know lives that went unlived
I'll know souls that went unfed.
People meeting people, on sides of thick walls
People speaking out, in dark soundless halls
Lives of gray where rain drops fall
Lives of joy where dreams are tall.
But time goes on, and dreams grow small
And people fly and birds do fall
But I will see the rising sun
And I will know that I am one.

SUFFOLK
UNIVERSITY

A black and white photograph of a brick building. The words "SUFFOLK UNIVERSITY" are written in white, capital letters on the brick wall. The building is viewed from a low angle, looking up. To the right, another building with windows is partially visible. The sky is a uniform light color.

SUFFOLK
UNIVERSITY

The new facility on Mount Vernon Street was both a symbol of this growth and a result of it. But there were other signs of growth. There were more speakers and exhibits than ever.

There had been a cry: "Suffolk needs a Student Union Now". A muffled cry was finally heard, and so the student body was given a room on Ridgeway Lane. For now, it would have to do.

CO-ED
SOFTBALL

There would be other signs of this quiet growth. First, there was a Flag Football League, then Co-Ed Softball. All of these were symbolic of a new spirit at Suffolk.

Suffolk University's Childrens Theatre Presents Itchy

Skitchy

This performance of Itchy Skitchy, an original children's play written, directed and performed by members of the Suffolk student body for the pleasure of brothers and sisters, sons and daughters, nieces and nephews of Suffolk students as well as all the kids in the Beacon Hill area, was a great credit to the entire university. No one made a profit, no one received headlines for their work—but a great many young children had an afternoon to remember. This is the kind of Spirit that seems to be taking over at Suffolk. And thank God it is.

THE GOLD KEY SOCIETY

The Gold Key Society is comprised of Suffolk undergraduate students who have been elected to receive the highest recognition for service to student activities and the University at large. These honored students are formally initiated into this organization in June. They are selected by the active Gold Key Society, and new members receive an appropriate award.

SIGMA ZETA HONORARY SCIENCE SOCIETY

Alpha Lambda is the Suffolk University Chapter of Sigma Zeta, a national honorary science society. The Society's aims are to give recognition to students of superior scholarship in the natural sciences and mathematics, to encourage the attainment of a broader knowledge of and to promote interest in these fields, and to stimulate interest in scientific investigation. Active membership is extended to faculty members in the natural sciences and mathematics and to sophomores, juniors and seniors majoring one of these fields who meet the grade-point ratio qualifications (i.e. 3.00 in science and mathematics and 2.75 overall).

PHI ALPHA THETA HONOR FRATERNITY

Phi Alpha Theta, a member of the American Association of College Honor Societies and the recognized honor group in the field of history, maintains its Theta Lambda Chapter at Suffolk University. Composed of both faculty and student members, the Theta-Lambda Chapter is a flourishing group with an outstanding record. Student membership is based on (1) the completion of at least twelve semester hours of history course work with an average of 3.3 before the senior year and 3.2 in the senior year, PLUS (2) an average of 3.0 or better in at least two-third of all other course work at Suffolk University. Transferred credits cannot be counted in the requirements. Invitations to membership are extended, generally, during the junior and senior years. All inducted members remain permanently on the roster of Theta-Lambda Chapter.

PI GAMMA MU HONOR SOCIETY

Massachusetts Gamma Chapter is the Suffolk University Chapter of the National Social Science Honor Society Pi Gamma Mu. To qualify for membership, students must have completed 24 semester hours of Social Science courses with a minimum average of "B". The maximum number of students who may be admitted in any year is 10% of the upperclassmen (Juniors and Seniors). Members are elected for life.

ACTIVITIES

1973 saw a Freshman Orientation period which did much to help those confused masses of Freshmen who enter Suffolk's main door and stand with books in hand, wondering what the hell is going on.

Thinking back, it was only four short years ago that we each entered that same door for the first time.

Registration, as usual, was a regular barrel of laughs. But that's the way it has to be I guess.

But soon all the red tape would end and we would settle down to studies and other serious activities like S.G.A. Elections.

COMMUNICATIONS WEEK

Presented by

Journalism Society

Chartered in 1971, the Society offers all undergraduates an opportunity to work together to better understand and appreciate the principles and practices of journalism. The organization sponsors activities throughout the year, including lectures, films, and writing workshops with professional journalists. Unique features include a Society placement service, lifetime membership, and honorary permanent membership for alumni.

The Political Science Club

One of the many informal discussions with state and local politicians, sponsored by the Political Science Club.

The Political Science Club has been organized for the purpose of promoting a more active and inquiring attitude toward political affairs. Club programs include guest speakers, group discussions, debates, and special field trips. Membership is open to all students and is especially recommended for those having a Government major or minor.

The club sponsors the Young Democrats and Young Republicans organizations. It also sends delegates to the National Model United Nations convention in New York City; admission to the delegation, which represents a member nation, is competitive.

“The Problem”

performed by

The Suffolk University Theatre

The Suffolk University Theatre offers a varied program from childrens theatre to experimental productions and an active technical, directing, and acting workshop, organized in collaboration with Emerson College. By encouraging student creativity and hard work of high quality, the S.U. Theatre offers a rare opportunity to learn by doing.

Alpha Phi Omega Annual Blood Drive

Alpha Phi Omega is a unique campus-centered National Service Fraternity for college and university men. It was founded in 1925 at Lafayette College, Easton, Pennsylvania. More than 400 active chapters, including Omicron Eta of Suffolk University, are now in operation. Alpha Phi Omega is the largest fraternity in the United States and is represented by other chapters throughout the world. Alpha Phi Omega men engage in four fields of service: service to the student body and faculty; service to youth and community; service to members of the fraternity; and service to the nation as participating citizens. The men of Alpha Phi Omega recognize their responsibility to their fellows and always endeavor to remember that they "don't live in a world all their own."

The Marketing Association (AMA)

The Marketing Association is affiliated as a Collegiate Chapter of the American Marketing Association. Its objective is to supplement academic preparation for careers through exposure to, and assistance from, practitioners of the discipline associated with the professional society of Marketing.

Activities of the Association customarily include: lectures by prominent personalities on contemporary topics; field trips to business establishments; one or two annual banquets featuring a prominent speaker; participation in an annual Regional Student Marketing Conference sponsored by AMA student chapters in New England universities; and making appropriate awards to deserving students.

SOCIETY FOR ADVANCEMENT OF MANAGEMENT

Students of economics and business administration and others with a sincere interest in the art and science of management may apply for membership in the S.U. Chapter of S.A.M. The Society for Advancement of Management is the recognized national professional organization of management in industry, commerce, government, and education, and is the pioneer in management policy.

Through chapters in leading colleges, the University Division endeavors to strengthen management education and further the growth of all students. The basic objectives of the University program are to bring together executives in business and students preparing for business, and to provide students with the opportunity to participate in the functions and activities of management. The objectives are accomplished through meetings, conferences, new bulletins, magazines, seminars, round tables, and plant visits.

DELTA SIGMA PI

Organized to promote a closer affiliation between the business world and students of commerce, Delta Sigma Pi is an international fraternity composed of business and economics students. Founded in 1907, this organization now has over 170 chapters throughout the U.S., and thus is the largest organization of its type in the world. Delta Sigma Pi is the only fraternity whose purpose is to create a well rounded business-oriented individual by means of various business and social events. At Suffolk numerous members of the business faculty are brothers of Delta Sigma Pi.

National Model United Nations

Suffolk University once again sent a delegation to the National Model United Nations held at the Statler Hilton Hotel in New York City during April 24 thru 29. Suffolk University represented Zambia and placed ninth out of one hundred and nine schools which participated from across the nation.

Modern Language Club

The Modern Language Club seeks to provide opportunity for a widening of intercultural understanding, and a deepening of those cultural areas that are common to peoples of different languages. Activities of the club include guest speakers, films with critiques, cooperative projects with language clubs of other institutions, field trips to nearby community points of linguistic and cultural interest, and diverse language activities.
