

Seniors—Your Yearbook Money Is Due

SUFFOLK JOURNAL

VOL. II NO. 7

BOSTON, MASS.

MARCH 10, 1954

Gift Wrapped, Too

Present Dr. Hannay 'Bones Of Tom Paine'

A Suffolk University literary coterie transformed into a "web of ghosts," recently, because of devotion to Dr. Nelson C. Hannay, S.U.'s illustrious English professor.

The S.U. "Wits" combined the "annual" annual, and the unprecedented, in presenting Dr. Hannay the "Bones of Thomas Paine"—gift wrapped, too!

After much groaning, grunting and chucking, and noticeable a little glassy-eyed, Dr. Hannay said:

"Oh, this is just too, too much!" William Speck, L.A. '55, is believed to have done a little more "digging" in the hellish affair than the others in the group.

It all began in an American Literature class when Dr. Hannay, "S.U.'s Venerable Bebe," lectured on the remarkable personage of Thomas Paine.

Everything about Paine, the 18th century prose writer and "soldier of the world," fascinated the students.

"Common Sense"
"On New Year's Day, 1776, Paine published his 47 page pamphlet, Common Sense, arguing immediate independence.

"This work voiced the cause of the American colonists to the world," said Dr. Hannay.

Later, he told his students, Paine joined the Continental army as a sort of itinerant writer.

At the time when General Washington's troops needed a morale shot in the arm, most, Paine wrote, "The Crisis" which Washington said was "greater than the force of cannons."

"Paine's service to America, his adopted land, was immeasurable," Dr. Hannay continued.

Because of his "Rights of Man," which urged the English to overthrow their monarchy, Paine was tried and convicted of treason.

"But," read Dr. Hannay, "most of what Paine advocated was idealistic."

"The favored universal education; abolition of poverty; re-

3 S. U. Students In Phi Beta Chi

Three Suffolk University students recently joined Phi Beta Chi, the national Science fraternity.

They are: John Morely, Edward Roach, and Paul Taylor. Requirements to be completed before students are eligible for Phi Beta Chi are:

1—Science major.
2—Second half junior, or have contributed outstanding work in the Science department.

3—Honor student.
Students who have these requirements and wish to apply for membership are requested to contact Dr. Friedman, Dr. Anderson, or Mr. West.

Continued on Page Two

PAT BROWN WINS $50.00 FOR TOM PAINE ESSAY

Pat Brown, popular Junior and one of Dr. Hannay's students who "opposed" Tom Paine, didn't stop there. She went out and entered the Tom Paine Foundation's essay contest and won a $50 War Bond for her essay: "The Significance of Thomas Paine's Pamphlet 'Common Sense' on America's Fight for Independence."

Stairs of Suffolk

It pained this poem a year ago but alas, alack it's still my woe.

*O' Stairs of Suffolk, flights and flights
Tis only you who seem me sore,
My early morning zest you take
With each step I dread to make,
Thirty-two and forty-four
Good Gosh and o'er a hundred more.*

*I'll turn my thoughts to brighter spots,
Not to let you get me down,
When I know only you
Have made my back so round,
You stop me cold and with no end
These years will surely see me fade!*

*O' Stairs of Suffolk, flights and flights
Dawns, day-out, I mark your face,
Tis to the top now I go,
And momentary victory o'er my foe.*

*Happy I am now with my relief
Descend! I must — back to time
Close of classes comes past in time
One more day before another tedious climb.*

*Study, study now — and then to sleep yet what still makes me want to weep?
Sud a lad am I at all
O' wicked stairs upon you'll call!*

Jack Barsoum, '55

CLUB INFO REQUESTED

The Yearbook committee has requested that all clubs and teams contribute a short essay type report on their activities and history. This is in keeping with the theme of the yearbook.

Continued on Page Five

'Miss Suffolk' Finalists Chosen

ATTENTION!
Seniors are required to make payment on the 1954 yearbook at the earliest time. Day students should contact Jack Klayman any time during the day.
Night students are requested to see Dave Cavicchio at the switchboard, main office, between the hours of 5-9 p.m.

Each Class Represented; Finals March Twenty-second

The five "Miss Suffolk" finalists were chosen Friday, in a poll conducted by the Student Council. Tom Stecia, President of the Council, said: "The poll worked out nicely; there was a good turnout, and I'm happy about a member of each class being selected."

Two freshmen, one sophomore, one junior and one senior round out the five. They are: Annie Young, Joan Miskiewicz, Lorraine Foley, Anne Salley and Jeanette Ahlow.

"Miss Suffolk" will be selected from these five, at a special class meeting on March 22nd. The four remaining girls will be the Queen of Suffolk's royal court.

The crowning of "Miss Suffolk" will take place at the Sophomore Spring Dance, which will be held at the Hotel Shelton on April 10.

Voting
Voting for the five finalists was based on (1) Personality, (2) Extracurricular and (3) Beauty.

Annie Young and Joan Miskiewicz are the two freshmen selections. They have shown an interest in school activities, and although they have been here at S.U. only a short time, they are very popular.

Lorraine Foley is a sophomore and has been active in the Debating and Dramatic clubs.

Anne Salley was among the five finalists last year; her reelection shows she has lost none of her charm. Anne was a member of the Ramettes, the girls' basketball team, last year, and was praised for dramatic club performances.

Jeanette Ahlow has always been an asset to S.U. She has been in Varsity Shows, and most recently was named to "Who's Who" in American Colleges and Universities.

FIVE CO-EDS who topped most votes to win "Miss Suffolk" Five Finalists poll are: top, Joan Miskiewicz, Anne Young, Anne Salley. Bottom: Jeanette Ahlow, Lorraine Foley.

S. U. Groups Join Museum Of Science

Suffolk chapter of Phi Beta Chi and S.U.'s Science club have combined in an effort to encourage the Cardinal Newman club of Suffolk University, the newest and probably the most active organization here at school.

"Gov. Christian A. Herter will be asked to speak at one of our March functions," announced Joe Letoury, editor of the Newman club's "Eye Opener."

Newly elected officers are: Paul Lillians, president; Marie Whalen, vice-president; Marie Letoury, corresponding secretary; Joseph Letoury, treasurer; Joan Miskiewicz, recording secretary; and Theresa Grynewicz, associate secretary.

Reduced rates for courses are also available.

These officers got the club off to a promising start with a film showing, coffee hours, and a successful Communion breakfast.

A spaghetti special, film, panel discussions, and an annual Communion breakfast are planned for the second semester.

Hynes Member Newman Club

Major John H. Hynes recently became an honorary member of the Cardinal Newman club of Suffolk University, the newest and probably the most active organization here at school.

"Gov. Christian A. Herter will be asked to speak at one of our March functions," announced Joe Letoury, editor of the Newman club's "Eye Opener."

Newly elected officers are: Paul Lillians, president; Marie Whalen, vice-president; Marie Letoury, corresponding secretary; Joseph Letoury, treasurer; Joan Miskiewicz, recording secretary; and Theresa Grynewicz, associate secretary.

Reduced rates for courses are also available.

These officers got the club off to a promising start with a film showing, coffee hours, and a successful Communion breakfast.

A spaghetti special, film, panel discussions, and an annual Communion breakfast are planned for the second semester.

JUBA WINS CHEMISTRY AWARD

Steve Juba, popular Sophomore from Lawrence, recently won the Achievement Award for outstanding work in the field of Chemistry.

"The Chemical Rubber Company sponsors the award, which recognizes top Science students in 800 college and universities throughout the country."

Dr. Nelson Anderson, head of the Chemistry department, presented Juba the award, an engraved handbook of Physics and Chemistry.

Juba is a student any school would be proud of. He is a Bio-Chem major and vice-president of the Scarborough class. He also is vice-president of the German club.

He works as a counterman in a restaurant on weekends, and plays the sax at his church every Sunday.

Juba plans to teach high school Biology and Chemistry.

LET'S ALL
GO TO THE
Sophomore Class
SPRING DANCE!

Bones

Continued from Page One
form of prisons and criminal law; old age pensions; reduction of armaments; and universal peace."

Later, the peoples of France, Britain, and America scorned Paine when his "Age of Reason" was published.

In this piece he expressed his deistic views, which were unjustly interpreted.

As a result, he died in poverty and disgrace; no church would give him final rites, and he was buried on his farm in New Rochelle, N. Y.

Years later a wealthy Englishman, William Carhill, who is remembered for his "Cribb's Rural Hides," set out to move Paine's body to England, where he planned to erect a monument in memory of the radical.

Dr. Hannay reached the climax.

The Mystery

"Unfortunately, Cobbit died and the whereabouts of Paine's body has always been a mystery."

The class thought "This end for the man who has been called the epitome of a world in revolution 'It just won't be!'"

Immediately, things began to "uncover." Then came the moment of the presentation - unforgettable to all parties concerned.

So, "No more bones about Thomas Paine!"

Alumni News

Mayor William Donovan of Somerville has appointed John S. Ryan, L27, as City Solicitor for the city of Somerville.

Francis E. White, L28, has been appointed sales manager of chain store and sales operations of the J. W. Landsberger & Co.

Charles S. Holcom, L17, has been appointed Trust Officer of the Hartford National Bank & Trust Co.

Suffolk alumni were saddened on learning of the death of Charles E. Harrington, L20, who for the past 19 years was clerk of the Bristol County Superior Court. He also served as clerk for the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court in Bristol County. Mr. Harrington was first elected clerk of the Superior Court in Bristol County in 1934 and continued to win reelection in 1940, 1946 and 1952.

He was such a well-liked public official that in the elections of 1940 and 1946 no one in either political party sought to oppose him.

Telephone Hancock 6-3236-3237

CLARK-FRANKLIN PRESS
PRINTING - ADVERTISING

15 HATHAWAY ST. (at South Station)
Boston 10, Mass.

Graduates Top Men In All Fields

Graduates of Suffolk Law School who are prominent in the judicial field in New England include:

Frank J. Donahue, L21, Associate Justice of Superior Court of Massachusetts.

David C. Nagle, L26, Associate Justice of Superior Court of Massachusetts.

Eugene A. Hudson, L23, Associate Justice of Superior Court of Massachusetts.

John E. Penon, L24, Judge of Massachusetts Land Court.

John V. Mahoney, L22, Judge of Probate Court, Suffolk County.

Leonard F. Williams, L31, Associate Justice of Superior Court of Maine.

Harry Kilus, L25, Justice Second District Court of Plymouth District.

John W. MacLeod, L24, Justice District Court of Chelsea.

A Vincent Kolcher, L38, Justice District Court of Newburyport.

C. Edward Rowe, L36, Justice District Court of Eastern Franklin County, Ohio.

Harry Kilus, L25, Justice Second District Court of Plymouth.

Thomas J. O'Malley, L22, Justice District Court of Springfield.

Frankland W. L. Miles, L23, Justice Roxbury District Court.

William H. Henchey, L23, Justice Fourth District Court of Eastern Middlesex, Woburn.

George E. Dewey, L33, Justice District Court of Middlesex, Norfolk County, Walpole.

Herbert D. Robinson, L27, Justice District Court of Western Norfolk County, Walpole.

John B. Farbach, L38, Justice Pittsfield, Mass. Municipal Court.

Daniel J. Gillen, L23, Associate Justice Municipal Court, City of Boston.

Vincent Motola, L23, Associate Justice Boston Municipal Court.

Richard D. Comerford, L31, Judge Lunenburg District Court, Rutland County.

Richard D. Hall, L39, Special Justice Second District Court of Essex County.

Edward J. T. Simons, L18, Special Justice District Court of Middlesex.

James A. Mitchell, L24, Special Justice District Court of Eastern Norfolk.

Frederville H. Dwyer, L25, Special Justice District Court of Dallas County.

Abraham W. Perkins, L26, Special Justice First District Court Northern Worcester, Athol.

Samuel Eisenstadt, L27, Special Justice Municipal Court, Roxbury District.

Edgar A. Gallacher, L36, Special Justice Danversville Municipal Court.

Anthony A. Contravasio, L29, Special Justice, East Boston District Court.

Howard S. Shoberg, L39, Judge Municipal Court of Winthrop, Maine.

Wesley C. Archer, L30, Judge Municipal Court Brewer, Maine.

Suffolk graduates practicing law have received great help from the following fellow alumni:

Roger A. Stinchfield, L30, U. S. Court of Appeals First Circuit.

Leo A. Reed, L24, Clerk, Equity Session, Mass. Superior Court.

Crales T. Hughes, L20, Clerk, Middlesex County Superior Court.

John F. Aspell, L30, Clerk, Roxbury District Court.

William C. Maier, L31, Clerk of the Mass. House of Representatives.

Louis R. McNally, L17, Asst. Counsel of the Mass. House of Representatives.

Richard Nolan, L35, Deputy Commissioner of Taxation.

Francis X. Lang, L30, Director, Bureau of Accounts.

Anthony A. Banagan, L24, Deputy of Motor Vehicles, Commonwealth of Mass.

Garrett H. Byrne, L24, District Attorney, Suffolk County.

John F. McAuliffe, L24, Assistant District Attorney, Suffolk County.

Robert J. Cotter, L41, Assistant District Attorney of Plymouth County.

M. Edward Viola, L23, Member of Governor's Council.

Attorney General's Office:
George F. Pigott, L31, Attorney General of the Commonwealth.

Milton I. Ahelson, L33, Assistant Attorney General.

Vincent J. Cylla, L30, Assistant Attorney General.

Floyd H. Gilbert, L49, Assistant Attorney General.

William J. Robinson, L38, Assistant Attorney General.

Stephen F. LoPiano, L43, Assistant Attorney General.

Max Rosenblatt, L27, Assistant Attorney General.

Reeder H. Montgomery, L50, Legal Assistant to Attorney General.

The value of a legal education to equip men for responsible positions in banking, industry, and other fields is well demonstrated by the following graduates:

Timothy Joseph Donovan, L30, Bank Commissioner, Commonwealth of Mass.

John H. Eaton, L24, Vice President, Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Company, Boston.

Ray W. Lawson, L27, Vice President, Rockland Atlas National Bank, Boston.

Francis J. Cronin, L32, Vice President, Middlesex County National Bank, Everett.

Rupert C. Thompson, Jr., L31, Executive Vice President and Director and Trustee of Providence National Bank.

Dwight H. Colburn, L32, President, Station Cooperative Bank.

William J. Tiber, L32, Treasurer, Colman Square Merchants Trust, Mer. First National Bank, Colman Square, and Director of the Governor's Board of Education.

Philip C. Koelle, L39, Director of Granite State Bldg. & Loan Assn.

John Joseph Walsh, L32, Assistant Vice President, Granite Trust Co., Hingham.

Arnold J. Bowker, L28, Loan Officer, National Steamship Bank.

Frank S. Dewey, L39, Loan Officer, First National Bank, Boston.

Richard L. Casey, L25, Assistant Secretary, State Street Trust.

Wallace H. Pearson, C29, Manager, Accounting Department, Granite Trust Co., Quincy.

Richard W. Poirer, C29, Bank Supervisor, First National Bank, Boston.

Business:
Edward J. Saunders, L39, Vice President, National Assn. of Real Estate Board.

Arthur M. McCarthy, L35, Asst. Vice President, American Mutual Liability Ins. Co., Hingham.

Benjamin F. Romero, L49, Sales, Promotion Manager, New England Color Co.

Francis E. Groszick, L36, Credit Manager and Supervisor, General Tire Co., Boston.

John J. Roper, L44, President, Asbestos Contractors New England Assn.

Frank Foster D. Glasco, L24, Head Claims Agent, New York, New Haven & New Hartford R.R., Boston.

Wilfred J. Dwyer, L30, Personnel Director, Boston Woven Hose Co., Cambridge.

John C. Burns, L39, Manager Civil Dept., Maryland Casualty Co., Worcester.

John James Kennedy, L29, Vice President, R. S. Hoffman & Co., Boston.

Alexander G. Hardy, L41, Exec. Asst., National Airlines, Washington.

Joseph P. Cullinane, C50, Publicity Director for Radio & Television.

Education:
Raymond A. FitzGerald, L25, National Bank, Cambridge, Deputy Commissioner, Dept. of Education, Cambridge Station Cooperative Bank.

Paul Wallace Knight, L38, Business Agent of Mass. Dept. of Education, Boston.

William L. Roche, C50, Principal of the Governor's Board of School Promotion.

Don H. Olin, C29, Head of Science Dept., Burr & Burton Seminary, Manchester, Vermont.

Fredrick H. Walker, Jr., C51, Asst. Principal, New England Institute, Boston.

Joseph H. Strain, L43, Asst. Prof., Suffolk University.

John P. Keane, L47, Instructor, Suffolk University.

Laurence V. Hand, C48, Instructor, Suffolk University.

Continued on Page Four

FOR THAT IN-BETWEEN SNACK OR MEAL - IT'S THE
WHITE ROSE COFFEE SHOP
161 CAMBRIDGE STREET
Just around the corner of Temple St.
"THE BEST COFFEE IN TOWN"

TEMPLE DRUG COMPANY
GAS AND ELECTRIC LIGHT
BILLS PAID HERE
COR. TEMPLE & CAMBRIDGE STREETS

CONDA'S RESTAURANT
30 DERNE ST. BOSTON
FIRST CLASS FOOD SELF-SERVICE RESTAURANT
SODA FOUNTAIN SERVICE
SANDWICHES HOT DISHES

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"Sometimes I think we shouldn't have required courses."

THE SUFFOLK JOURNAL

Faculty Advisor: John V. Colburn
 Editor-in-Chief: Jack Barsoun
 Associate Editors: Ray Murphy, Phyllis Klein, Tom Moevia
 Business Manager: Les Sheehan
 Sports Editor: Ken Sherman
 Assistant: Jim Phelan
 Photographer: Fred Kaplan
 Reporting Staff: Paul Jones, Shirley Hunkins, Peter Beatrice

Official Monthly publication published by and for the students of Suffolk University. Editorial and Advertising office in the Suffolk University Building, 20 Derris Street, Boston, Massachusetts.
 SUBSCRIPTION PRICE: $1.00 PER YEAR. SINGLE COPY: $10.
 Advertising rates on request.
 Member of National Advertising Service
 420 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y.

EDITORIALS

Letters To Editor

The JOURNAL agrees with the old adage that "editorial and readers' opinion columns are the lifeblood of a newspaper." The voice of the foundation of a democracy—the free press—must never be muffled, nor should the readers be denied the right to openly express their opinions. But, when readers misuse this right, they harm their own cause.

When the "Letters to Editor" column becomes the official unloading place where persons can fire verbal barrages that are based on absolute prejudice and even hatred, the newspaper cannot continue such practices.

To protect itself and the administration, the JOURNAL requests students to show good faith by signing letters to the editor.

JACK RESNICK

If a poll were conducted to determine what athlete has contributed most to advance the name of Suffolk University, JACK RESNICK would be that athlete.

SU team supporters have long known of Resnick's hoop talents. But last year, when the little Beacon Hill student scored 75 points against Burdett College at the West End House, Boston newspapers told all New England about him.

They called him, "Suffolk University's 'Ho Francis'" and rightly so!

Once again the JOURNAL has the pleasant task of showering praise on Mr. Resnick.

For the second consecutive year, Jack has hovered near the top of N. E.'s leading basketball scorers.

He has an average of 25.8 points per game. Tremendous? Well, that's Jack Resnick.

THSA AND THAT

A little sunshine isn't enough to make New Englanders put away their snow chains and red helmets so soon?

One thing for sure, Marilyn Monroe definitely was victorious in Korea . . .

Keen Competition Makes Big Boston Headlines

Metropolitan newspapers in the East and Mid-West have lit the in common.

This is the opinion of Wayne Hanley, of the "Boston Herald" and formerly of the "Kansas City Star."

Mr. Hanley compared Eastern and Mid-Western newspapers recently in a lecture before journalism students at Suffolk University.

"The Mid-Western metropolitan newspapers are exactly that newspapers. They have room for news, little for headlines," Hanley said.

Blazing Headlines
 "Why if a reader in Missouri picked up his paper and peeped his eye balls at blazing headlines and big pictures, he probably wouldn't get through the day."

"But under the same circumstances," Hanley continued, "a Boston reader would just about start a 'rebellion'."

The difference is keen competition, as a result, Eastern big city dailies must resort to eye appeal.

Usually in a big Mid-Western city one paper has a greater circulation than all the others.

Subway Readers
 "There practically no newsstand sale; the paper is delivered to your door step," he said.

Hanley revealed that newspaper pay scales are lower in the land of produce.

"The average reader here," Boston scans the paper while riding the subway to work."

"Therefore the news content presented must be conspicuous and at the same time fully informative."

Eastern and Mid-Western papers are alike in one respect at least, said Hanley.

"The glamour stereotype of newspaper work is an absolute fantasy."

S. U. Juniors In Ho Water
 Suffolk University's Junior class was castigated for what one class officer called its "unbelievable stupidity" as two efforts to raise funds succeeded only in deepening the class debt. As a result of the Junior's two unproductive efforts, it now finds itself owing more than $600 according to its treasurer, Phyllis Klein.

With this in mind the class is asking a one-dollar contribution from each member.

The class officials feel that if everyone of the 88 members contributes one dollar the class will be able to pull themselves out of their financial hole. Reports from reliable sources in the Junior Class indicate that the class does not plan any functions in the near future.

"Making a mistake isn't bad, it only hurts when you make the same mistake twice."

It takes fewer muscles to smile than to frown. You had more people don't know it.

Biggest question nowadays is "Will children's first love be space men, or tough hunkies from the 'hoodlums'?"

About the only thing wrong with class attendance being optional is that the professors would get tired of talking to themselves.

SHOWN AT CROWNING OF King and Queen of the S.U. Winter Festival are, l. to r. Mr. Arthur West of the Biology department, the King and Queen, Tom Moevia and Marie Peatrice, and President of the Festival sponsoring Southmore Class, Peter Beatrice.

Letters To Editor

Free Periods Attacked

Free periods for extra-curricular activities have long been a bone of contention with this particular student. It seems every time we there are more of my opinion) turn around, some school politician with an inflated idea of his own importance, is calling a meeting to raise funds for a hay ride or festival, or founding a home for destitute Moravian nobility. Now we have nothing against fund raising per se, but we do feel that there is a time and place for it. We have always had the suspicion that hay rides were somewhat immoral anyway.

Along with the general uselessness of the meetings, and the degradation of having some "Messiah" leading the student sheep through whatever hoop he chooses, is the second contention, the anti-free period cases. We are after all, in school to gain an education. The free periods are cutting into time that might be better devoted to diligent study. The opposition is typical of a post-graduate position is typical of a post-graduate position.

There are a few students in this school that would want anyone to feel uncomfortable and not to feel right at home. So we say to all the students who use the floor, "Get right at home!"

Disseminate your refuse on the floor, spit, sweat or do anything that you would do in the presence of your mother, father, teachers, sisters or guests. By your actions you are judged. By your actions your parents are judged. These remarks do not apply to everyone, but to those animals that have been transplanted from the farm yard and pig pen to the floor Hall and have not gotten accustomed to the change.

JOHN T. DOLAN
 CLASS OF '57

Drama Club Picks 'Jan. 16'
 The S.U. Dramatic club under the direction of Ben Ross, a grad student, will present "The Night of January 15," a comedy by Ayn Rand, author of the "Fountainhead."

Invited in the cast are Dave Cavetto, Lorraine Foley, Bob Goodwin, Theresa Gryzlewicz.

Continued on Page Seven

GRADS

Continued from Page Two
Concetta E. Procopio, U-45, L. I. brarian, Social Law Library, Boston.

Arthur W. Hanson, L-27, Vice President, Suffolk University.
Thomas L. Marston, C-54, Vice President and Treasurer, Bentley
School of Accounting and Finance.

Suffolk graduates have been in the past and still are very prominent in the Massachusetts General
Court:

John Joseph Beades, L-48, 15th
Suffolk District, Dorchester.
Philip Aloysius Chapman,
L-30, 12th Suffolk District, Dorchester.

Henry M. Duggan, L-25, 1st
Essex District, Newburyport.

Philip J. Durkin, L-30, 10th Essex
District (Salem).

Anthony J. Farin, L-45, 10th
Suffolk District, Dorchester.

Joseph Patrick Graham, L-35,
21st Suffolk District.

Henry E. Keenan, L-31, Arlington,
28th Middlesex District.

William F. Keenan, L-22, 16th
Suffolk District, Dorchester.

William Walter Kirlin, L-28,
Belmont, 25th Middlesex District.

John E. Murphy, L-26, Peabody,
10th Essex District.

Thomas M. Newth, L-36,
Swampscott, 14th Essex District.

Roger A. Saha, L-22, North
Adams, 1st Berkshire District.

H. Edward Snow, L-36, Natick,
6th Middlesex District.

William X. Wall, L-41, Lawrence,
7th Essex District.

Stanislaus G. Wondolowski,
L-47, Worcester, 19th Worcester
District.

At the present time graduates of Suffolk Law School who are new members of the senate are as follows:

Paul R. Achin, L-47, Lowell,
1st Middlesex District.

John Frederick Collins, L-41,
Roxbury, 5th Suffolk District.

Edmund Onda, L-50, New Bedford,
3rd Bristol District.

George J. Evans, L-39, 7th
Middlesex District, Wakefield.

INSIDE S. U.

By PHYLLIS KLEIN

Open Letter To The Junior Class

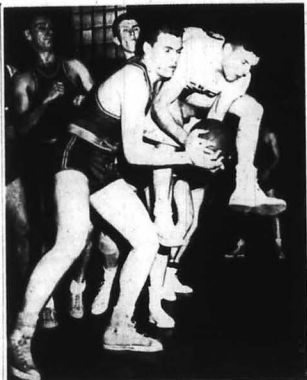

What is the matter with the Junior Class? It is the largest and most unco-operative in the school. The class is up over its ears in debt. Do you know why? Last October the class sponsored a Halloween Dance at the Hotel Beaconfield; only ten percent of the class showed up. Last week the class showed up for the use of the ballroom. It seems amazing, but it is true that out of a class of 150 only ten made the effort to support a class function.

In order to clear up this debt and put a little money in the barren treasury, it was suggested at an open class meeting that a raffle be held. The vote was a large majority in favor of holding a raffle and everyone present was enthusiastic about supporting it. The enthusiasm died very quickly. Why? The class didn't break even on the raffle. It could have shown a profit if every member of the class had bought or sold at least one raffle book.

This period of stagnation must pass quickly. The status quo is unacceptable. The burden has fallen on the same few who have been held, and feel responsible for the apathy of the rest of their class. I refer of course to the officers. It is fair to make three or four people liable for that impulsive, indifferent, unfeeling stupidity of the entire class.

Phyllis Klein, Treasurer, Class of '55

Charles V. Hogan, L-21, Lynn, 1st Essex District

FRESHMAN GEORGE DOUCETTE fights for ball in Merrimack game. Other Suffolk player is Ed Berham.

The reddest face in the school ought to belong to Jim Sutton who made a tremendously dramatic entrance into the English Negrel course, two weeks and ten nights ago late. Tell me Jimmy, just what do you have in that overly large paper bag?

The Bohemian element was present at the Mother Daughter Tea in the President's office Thursday, 18 February. The three girls from the Murphy's class in Contemporary Drama were not aware that it was mandatory to be present at the tea. Red knee socks were conspicuous among the nylon satins, velvets.

To quote from our favorite diet: "animosity appears to be running rife" among the officers of the Student Council. Will anybody, please, give me a prize for this year's yearbook? Nobody seems to know just exactly how much it will cost.

To the members of the Junior class, if your name appears on the list that will be posted on the bulletin boards, please get in touch with one of the class officers.

Memo to the Dramatic Club: The officers planned the greatest role in the fourth floor lounge. For her acting at the most recent WASP speaking she is hereby awarded a shov of salami.

The Greek Basketball team is expecting to schedule a game in the near future with Boston Teachers. Speaking of the girls team, it seems that the Lambs were separated from the sheep after a practice session by the management of a grill which shall be nameless. Who was given the Bermuda shorts?

We understand that Shirley Hunkins is playing the lead in the Revue. The opinion of Affairs of State.

Petl Transon, who graduated in January, has belatedly joined the suitcases, otherwise known as the Unity Alliance. She was piped aboard by Commodore Perry Sarah Bernhardt and an unidentified Pogo fan in red knee socks.

Donald Transon: "I think he's related through his mother's marriage is taking a course brazenly entitled, Mammalian Anatomy with special reference to Cats, Dad's nice."

Philosophy seminars are being held in Catby's. The Dramatic Club is rehearsing THE NIGHT OF JANUARY in under the direction of Ben Ross. A tentative date has been set as the last week in March (see story). Ernie Boudreau starts eating lunch before I've had breakfast. I guess he's just a growing boy.

The congestion in the Psych office must be due to a sudden interest in having Valerie Dunn analyze the masculine ego. Why does Bill Sypek have to argue? Can't you just accept details in a literary work? A vote of gratitude from the Senior Class should be forthcoming for Dave Cavetto whose work has gotten many night students interested in the class projects.

Expect Better Hoop Squads In Future

SU's basketball team is expected to equal and possibly better this season's record, next season, as senior Art Geller will be the only player not returning.

This leaves a promising squad of star Jack Rosnick and eight freshmen holdovers.

This year the fans are a fast-breaking, high scoring squad, with a 102 record and a game average of 87.8.

"I'm very pleased with the progress and enthusiasm the boys have shown," said Coach Law.

Geller, always aggressive, is playing his usual hunting best. Jack Rosnick, leading SU scorer, has been one of the leading joint getters in Mass for the past two years. He presently owns a 25.8 average.

Freshmen Stars: Ed Berham, freshman from Dorchester is hitting consistent for a 18.4 average.

George Doucette from Milford High, a second semester freshman, has scored 98 points in four games.

Tom Hutton, a hunky six footer, is a terrific hard man.

Furber, Central Catholic star, Freddie Halloran is aggy and shows defensive ability.

Coach Law attributes the squad's success to "The dogged determination, fine team spirit of not just the starting five, but every member of the team."

Pick King and Queen At Winter Festival

Tom Moevia and Marie Beaumont were crowned King and Queen of the 1951 Winter Festival, called by many "the greatest outdoor social event ever at Suffolk University."

Pete Beatrice, president of the Sophomore class, who sponsored the Festival, announced the selection.

Two hundred students and friends braved hail, wind, snow and sleet to attend the affair, held at Mt. Hood, Melrose and enlivened the wintry air with fun and frolic.

Shy people like Marie Whalen and Irene O'Leary gathered around the fireplace to warm up and exchange tales, while out in the freezing snow, the more energetic like Marie Franks and Joan Kraus went in for a little tobogganing.

The evening was well spent in dancing to the music of Chaz Sinatra and a wonderful buffet feast provided by Chef Tony.

Entertainment was the greatest, with Ernie Boudreau making up with some wonderful impersonations and giving with the most original material ever heard in these parts.

Sandy Nelson, Billy Moran's cousin, who can give with smooth ballad and is a living doll to boot, sang sweetly.

Finally, "spary" but happy, all piled back into the bus for the return trip and held their cars while Tom McCauley and Norm King entertained with their rendition of "Show me the way to go home."

BOSTON DAYLIGHT ALLEYS
8 ALLEYS OPERATED
BY AUTOMATIC PIN SETS
STREAMLINE CONSTRUCTED
107 CAMBRIDGE ST. BOSTON MASS.
(Over The Shawmut Bank)

STOP!-Our Food is Best
LOOK!- It's Great Value
LISTEN!- Everyone Says
THE SUFFOLK CANTEEN Is BEST For
OUR SUBMARINE SANDWICHES - 35c
SANDWICHES, PASTRY MILK COFFEE

EARLE HOTEL COFFEE SHOP
Serving at Reasonable Prices
Open Daily from 7 A.M. to 8 P.M.
MEALS - SANDWICHES - SODAS
86 BOWDOIN STREET

S. U. FIVE WIN 10; DROP ONLY 2

by REN SHERMAN
Sports Editor

'Small Hockey League' Planned; Suffolk To Play H. C., West Point

SPORTS ACCREDITATION continues to highlight conversation down at the Ram Cove, with optimism running high. S.U. is really growing on the collegiate sports scene and now is at long last achieving some well deserved recognition.

The door is wide open for participation in the various Intercollegiate Athletic League. Athletic Director, Charlie Law, is constantly receiving requests for games with colleges all over New England, and is certain that next year will bring better schedules.

One of those letters came from Bill Turner, hockey coach at A.I.C. in Springfield, who is currently in the process of forming a new hockey league which would include sixteen teams.

Coach Turner believes that the so called "whittens" of college hockey should dispense with their informal schedules and enter into proper "Small College League." This league would be made up of small colleges with limited budgets. The competition would be even, Turner says, and a feeling of accomplishment would result in being named "Small College Hockey League" champion.

Fan interest would be high in a league like this, while the participation could build better hockey squads without being exposed to big powerhouses.

Suffolk dropped hockey from the list of varsity sports this year; this hurt student morale. But now the opportunity to bring hockey back is here with the "Small College League."

The Fighting Ram society can now again play host to colleges it has played informally in the past.

The sixteen members of the proposed league are:

WEST POINT, HOLY CROSS, A.I.C., WILLIAMS, NORWICH, U. OF MASS., SPRINGFIELD, AMHERST, TUFTS, HAMILTON, COLBY, SUFFOLK, BOWDOIN, R. I. STATE AND PROVIDENCE.

Hockey is fast becoming the king of winter sports and with the construction of new artificial rinks at Worcester, Harvard and Dartmouth, fans disgusted with the basketball situation might be attracted.

Although S.U. officially dropped hockey this season, four students who were members of the Ram society are still packing. They can be seen limping about these hallowed halls displaying a wide variety of bumps and bruises acquired while playing with the Roundtable Town Team. Every Wednesday, this quiet chase the elusive rubber disk through a mass of whirling humanity and flashing blades... Jimmy Freeley, Dick Bean, Tom Oliveria, and this scribe are the four hockey lovers who never say die!

1954 S.U. Co-Ed

Ed Crossen, Varsity club president, announces that on Thursday, Feb. 25th, the club will hold another of its popular smokers—open to members, prospective members, and their friends.

Ed's wife, Jean, recently gave birth to a bouncing baby girl—she's Leslie Ann Crossen.

... Official mascot of all Suffolk University teams is the RAM. It represents the spirit of meeting an opponent head on and then driving him into the ground. (Webster's Dictionary).

The S.U. hoopsters, keeping in the spirit of the Ram, have met and rammed 10 of 12 opponents to the ground. The backbone of the squad is Jack Resnick and Art Geller, who have played basketball together since they were youngsters under the watchful eye of Eddie Greenberg, at the West End House. At English High both were on the City Championship team of 1950. They still are a deadly combination—Resnick hitting consistently from inside, and Geller mastering the backboards. Jack and Art spend eight hours a week working with the youngsters at the West End House, where they are idolized by the future Couzys and Mikans.

Fred Matea and Romie Guidice both of whom started on last year's ice and diamond teams, were eagerly relating the details of their recent camping trip in the state of New Jersey. It seems they have a mutual uncle who runs a camp up there which is highly organized—uniforms are supplied, even fires and targets! Anyone interested?

The bookstore just received a shipment of Suffolk University pennants which are now on sale. See you in this corner next issue.

LAW PLANS FOR '54 BASEBALL

Charlie Law announces that Suffolk University will be represented on the diamond this year. He is currently drawing up a schedule and scouting for a practice field.

Games already arranged are with M. I. T., Brandeis, Lowell Tech and Stonehill, with some other local titts in the tentative stage.

Suffolk teams in the past have been above average. Two Ram star pitchers recent by signed with professional clubs: Harvey Cohen with a Cardinal farm team in North Carolina, and Don Shea with Montreal in the International League.

Returns

This season, a promising one, is in step with the new athletic program here at S.U.

Returning players include hard hitting captain of last year's nine, Ed Crossen, who wound up with a sensational 54th mark.

Don Calese will again hurt. Pete Bartrone has been trimming his Winter gained weight. Colorful Billy Waxman will be out to retain his 1st base position.

Jack "Yogi" McDermett, one of the big guns both on offense and defense last year, will handle the fingers.

INDIVIDUAL SCORING STATISTICS

	G	PG	F	TP	AVE
Resnick	12	108	92	308	25.8
Benham	10	72	40	145	18.4
Doucet	4	31	6	68	17.0
Geller	12	55	19	129	10.9
Halloran	10	42	23	107	10.7
Ruffin	5	17	13	47	9.2
Shapiro	7	23	9	55	7.6
Barry	5	11	8	30	6.0
Spood	12	25	12	62	5.2
Kavanaugh	8	13	6	32	4.0
Conolly	10	15	3	23	2.3
Calese	5	1	2	4

Ridin' High

MEMBERS OF S.U.'s hoop squad are, first row, Coach Charlie Law, Fred Halloran, Jack Resnick, Art Geller, Ed Benham. Second row, Harry Spood, George Doucet, Jack Barry, Tom Ruffin, Lou Conolly, and Roland Lawrence.

College Boxing Set For April 6

The second annual Inter-Collegiate Boxing Tournament promoted by Stonehill College will be presented April 6, (at 8 p.m.) in the Stonehill gym.

Last year, Nick Lambrose spelled Suffolk University in the

Net 100 Three Times; Average 87.8

Any way you look at it, Suffolk University's 1953-54 basketball season is one of the greatest in some time.

The Blue and Gold sport a very respectable 10 and 2 record, and have hit the hoops for a 113 game total of 1022 points—an average of 87.8 per 100, which isn't hay in anyone's language!

That's not all of the 10 victories, Charlie Law's boys broke the three figure mark three times.

Jack Resnick's consistently classy performances are partly answerable to S.U.'s smooth sailing.

But even Suffolk's Bob Cousy must share the glory with others. Namely, first year man Ed

Benham, Reliable Art Geller, and Freddie Halloran.

Benham, a tall boy with a good eye, has shown he can play college ball.

Art Geller, a first stringer for four years, adds just the brilliant floor leadership that is needed.

Halloran has played in 10 games and contributed his share point-wise each time.

The two slabs who topped Suffolk are Stonehill College, 88-70, and Merrimack College, 74-60.

Remaining games are with Boston University Junior College, Merrimack.

Resnick is really serious about the Merrimack game.

"They only beat us by five points the first time; we'll be up for this one and I think we will take them."

(Ed. Note: The squad completed the season by whipping B.U. Junior College 86-62, and Jack Resnick's prediction proved to be a gross underestimation, as S.U. avenged an earlier setback by swamping Merrimack 82-61.)

SUFFOLK'S RECORD TO DATE:

S.U.	OPPONENT
76	Gordon, 67
83	Emerson, 73
70	Stonehill, 88
89	Lowell, Peabody, 81
101	Newton Jr. College, 87
69	Merrimack, 74
100	Mass. Optometry, 38
81	B.U. Jr. College, 73
124	Camb. AF Base, 53
87	Boston Institute, 69
84	Camb. AF Base, 59
88	Emerson, 53

Glass Gym Open Soon

The largest gym in New England will be completed in June when Northeastern University opens its new athletic center. The Huntington Ave. structure will consist of an administration building, a Harvardlike cage, and the gymnasium proper.

The building makes extensive use of glass throughout and the entire outside is protected by ordinary window glass.

It has a seating capacity of 1800 and its indoor cage can be used for track as well as basketball and football practice.

CLUB INFO REQUESTED

Continued From Page One

with the established practice of several years.

Reports turned in should contain the nature and purpose of the organization along with a short history. The officers should be listed, including faculty advisor, and results and hopes for the future.

The club information is an important part of the Yearbook. All contributions should be submitted with the least possible delay to a member of the Yearbook committee.

tournament, and won the New England Inter-Collegiate Middleweight crown.

Rules for this year's bouts are the use of 14 ounce gloves and three, two minute rounds.

The tournament is open to all undergraduates on an individual rather than team basis.

Trophies will be awarded to the winners of each class.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibler

Little Known Facts'

Stone Stirs Crowd In Lincoln Talk

Sen. Edward C. Stone, of Barnstable, paid tribute to Abraham Lincoln on the 121st anniversary of his birth, in a stirring talk before the faculty and students of Suffolk University, in the school auditorium.

"Little known facts about Lincoln's Gettysburg Address," was Sen. Stone's topic.

"There is disagreement on just about everything concerning the Address," said the noted Lincolnian scholar.

"I think the President read his Address to the people, because he spoke only when he had something to say, and didn't want to make a mistake in his presentation."

After his speech, the great Emancipator told a close friend: "It's a failure and the people are disappointed," revealed Sen. Stone.

Silly
The Gettysburg Address, subject of editorials in newspapers throughout the country, was received with partiality.

A Harrisburg, Pa., newspaper wrote: "The speech was filled with silly remarks, and in one way the people will benefit — they will not be repeated."

In England, where the South was favored in the War between the States, the "London Times" commented: "Nothing more dull could be produced."

Lincoln's great phrase, "government of the people, by the people, for the people," describes our government today, Sen. Stone explained.

"The four freedoms that we speak of," he stated, "can be achieved by what the self-made Lincoln referred to as 'freedom of opportunity.'"

Offensive Voice
Lincoln always put himself on the level of his listeners, because of this, people overlooked his high-pitched, offensive voice.

Clarity, directness and simplicity of expression were characteristics of Lincoln's speeches. The strong influence of the Bible taught Lincoln these qualities.

From The Fourth Estate

by TOM MUCCIA

For the past few weeks "Quiet Please" signs have been hanging throughout the school. No P.A. system sounds of static filled notes, just plain, old-fashioned silence. Studying time was at a high pitch, but now only the smiles and disappointments remain. Hope you all fared well.

Confucius once said, "One picture is worth a thousand words," but this writer is lost for superlatives to comment on the Sophomore Winter Festival at Mt. Hood in Medford last month. He not even attempt a hundred words and say that it was one of the greatest times ever enjoyed by this senior after almost four years within these walls.

Passing Reviews: On two different Suffolk spirit permeates and in formal sessions last semester. Harries all who come in contact with it.

Tommy's Courtney for his work at the Sophomore Class Record Hop and other class functions, but men don't let this happen again. What prior classmate.

Al Kamerer's and Tom DeSovere's plight in the athletic, an extra course approved.

Does Lorraine Foley have a pitch activities to the evening monopoly on library speakers?

Paul Moriarty leaving school a great and returning to the Art Department. Tom Black's attendance at Psychology classes. Marie Beatrice still retaining superiority as the queen of the silent yet active corps. Betty DeSovere's Army husband.

Orchid Department: To Mr. Scobie, a student in the evening division for responding to a plea for phonograph records for the P.A. system. Another display of Suffolk spirit.

Mr. Saul Hurwitz, the owner of the Rec Hall juke box, for granting the sophomore class full use of his machine gratis. Seems that the Queries: A question to lawyers. When someone takes a baby kangaroo from its mother's pouch is the crime kidnapping or pick pocketing?

Easy-stripping: at Conda's and around school. But Pat Brown passed the French reading exam.

Joe Martello, the genial host of Club Bookstore, in jacking a course in higher Mathematics with Professor Eustace.

Professor Keane is seriously considering flunking two-thirds of students in an effort to help the enrollment situation. Jack Klyman, the mopey-minded musician, after a recent talent contest, had won a week's engagement at the Pump Room of the Canalogue Water Department. Quiet, please, unmoved Norman King is actually a snice, sophisticated man about town. A friend of the more classy Chelmsford might spots with glamorous parents.

Dick Outlaw has a rhythm and blues juke-jockey box every evening over radio station, W.V.M. 10 to 10:30 pm.

Memorize: When the Dolphins Club put on a production. The Junior class ran a successful fund function and didn't use a red ink.

Mr. Carson's classes in Business Law submits not participating on stairways.

Mr. Edelman and the break even night jazz concerts. Variety shows. Let's get on the stick and bring about a banner successful second semester.

Problems: Democrats will retain control of Congress and Massachusetts, but not by election, but for the Republicans will spend the next two years on vacations, spending the money they amassed with their false economy moves.

Senior class from to be the biggest splash since Florence Chadwick dived into the channel. Eddie Crosson passed Squid. And while on the pronunciation kick, predict I will no longer be around after June 28, see you with these marshall bars of life in a four-cornered building.

Drama Club

Continued From Page Three
Frank Himmer, Beverly Johnson, Phyllis Klein, Joan Mikolowicz, Phil Phillips, Arnold Isaacson, Lew Shukan, and Henry Germain.

Two minor male parts are still open.
Norman Bligh and Pete Beatrice are in charge of the stage crew.

The Editor Reviews

LIBERTARIAN
Today, one Vladimir Valentini Liberace undapately stands spotlighted as the biggest piano personality in America.

Liberace, whose name in all circumstances should be pronounced "Lee-rah-ay," has captured one and all on TV, records, and at his stunning, roomy solo concerts.

Darling Dimples
Other than his 19 dips, the 33 year old Milwaukeean earmarks easy 2 dancing slippers, long-long wavy wavy, black hair, an incredible man sized smile, a "Tweed" by voice, and possibly his ears.

Liberace makes puppets of the 88 on his Baldwin. I don't deny this.

He masterfully interprets the most complex melodies to songs of the "Dear Harold Polka" variety, while all of us audibly grooves.

Shouldn't Sing
At this point, however, I stop pinning criticism on Mr. L's chest for much to my dismay, the Polish Italian proceeds in dampening some preter suggesting his tunes by expressing his vocal chords.

Only one thing can possibly be said about Liberace's singing — he shouldn't!

Ever smiling, he does his attempt to make his half hour TV show a "Family Hour."

"I'd like very much for you to meet my mother." This is my mother, he says, as so suttly.

"If I may, I'd like to play 'Aha dahn dahn' for my mother, George, you know George, my brother." George will you accompany me with the tambourine?" Thank you! All this disturbs me deeply.

Smother: Liberace's characterate which I find repally intolerable, is much to be detestful.

Humility
No one finds fault with an entertainer's "Thank you's" or bows, or does both. But piano-chumping Liberace breaks all records in the "humility" department.

On this score I feel there are certain pitfalls, which must be recognized.

More Plunking
A thank you is standard. But when this is repeated to the Liby's face, it becomes irritating.

Who else do thank us, for applauding. His "Thanks" for our "Thanks" shouldn't be more "Thanks" but more plunking! Liberace is a genius perfectionist, he should seek nothing more.

S. U. Joins Eastern Conference: To Play B.U., M.I.T.

The door to the Eastern Collegiate Basketball Conference was recently opened to Suffolk University. Athletic Director Charles Law recently told the JOURNAL.

The next step is joining the N.A.A.U.C.

Coach Law has already scheduled games for next year with Mt. Anderson's, Stonehill, M.I.T. and Boston University.

S.U. would like to play other big name N. E. colleges, but he said:

"Some schools line up games from one or more years ahead of time, and therefore have few or no open dates."

SEN. WALTER M. BURSE chats with Sen. Edward C. Stone, before his "Little Known Facts" talk.

'Stranger in Paradise' Tops '54 Record Poll

"Stranger in Paradise," made a hit overnight by the Four Aces was chosen No. 1 of the top ten tunes in the annual Record Poll, conducted at Suffolk University.

Marie Beatrice, Shirley Hunkins, Tom Muccia and Marie Whalen aired Suffolk students' favorites over W.L.D.H., on Bob Clayton's show.

- TEN TOP TUNES
1-Stranger in Paradise
2-On Mein Papa
3-Bimbo
4-I Love Paris
5-Everybody Loves Saturday Night
6-Changing Partners
7-I Should Have Told You Long Ago
8-Robe of Calvary
9-Secret Love
10-Down By The Riverside
- FEATURE HIT
A Baby Cried
- FAVORITE JAZZ SONG
1-Peanut Vendor
2-Love For Sale
- FAV. FEMALE VOCALISTS
1-Sarah Vaughn
2-Patti Page
3-Joni James
- FAVORITE MALE VOCALISTS
1-Perry Como
2-Eddie Fisher
3-Julius LaRosa
- FAVORITE BANDS
1-Stan Kenton
2-Guy Lombardo
3-Ray Anthony

'Journal' Interviews Senator Lerche On Suffolk Future

Suffolk University will probably be torn down in the next three years to make way for the proposed new State Office building. This was the opinion of Senator Ralph Lerche, Republican of Springfield, who heads the State Office Building Planning Committee. Lerche's committee feels the area bounded by Cambridge St., Temple St., Bowdoin St., and Joy St., is the most logical spot in the area for the building.

The proposed building, though considered for years, has never gone beyond the planning stage. The sentiment now, however, is considered favorable for the erection of the long needed new building.

In 1939 the proposal, using the same land, got as far as being bipartisan - but had to be dropped because of the war. Since then, several committees have considered the matter, but Lerche's committee is given the greatest chance of carrying it through.

"The state requires 600,000 square feet of land for the new building," said Lerche. "The most logical location is the proposed one and the need for this new building is most pressing. The State is paying $800,000 a year in rentals to private owners for offices. A new building would save this drain on the budget and enable the building to pay for itself in a short time."

The main attraction of the building will be the consolidation of the now widely scattered State offices. The State has of fices scattered throughout Boston and it has long been a contention of planners that the work of the government could be conducted with greater efficiency and speed if the time wasted in travel from one bureau to another was eliminated.

Little Value
"The area's buildings in the aggregate are not too valuable," stated the veteran legislator, "and the State would certainly reward the owners adequately if I am personally against using 'eminent domain' and feel the system used in the arterial highway should be employed. This would give each property owner a fair appraisal of his land and with a commensurate price paid. Many of the property owners will realize more than they would in a private sale."

Reports current having the new building anywhere but behind the State House are unfounded. Locating the building in the proposed Back Bay Civic Center, a private development, as was rumored, would defeat the purpose of the consolidation. "The only place for the building is where we have proposed, and I would never approve any other location," commented the senator.

The Save Beacon Hill Committee has provided the main opposition to the new plan. A meeting at the First Methodist Church recently tried to stir up opposition against the plan. Several businessmen spoke, protesting the destruction of historical buildings and the Beacon Hill tradition.

Senator Lerche claimed that the committee was sensitive to the Beacon Hill tradition and had no intention of destroying local culture. "Speaking for myself," he went on, "I prize this area as much as if I lived here. We looked into this particular site and determined that there were a minimum of historical buildings."

"The property, on a square foot basis of evaluation, is the least valuable of any comparable location in the area. The arterial highway certainly inconvenienced more firms than the new building would. It is outside forces having ulterior motives that are raising objections to the proposed site," claimed the Senator.

Real Estate Men

The senator further revealed that he did not believe that more than 5% of the homeowners in the district are disturbed. The main opposition to the building is a group of real-estate men who have interests in other sites, already disappointed. "One of the principal speakers at the mass meeting recently was a representative of real estate interests who are concerned with getting the site for themselves," asserted Lerche.

The new building plan has had, as yet, no money appropriated for it. Before it becomes an legislative act will be required to get funds and in secure action. If plans of the committee are realized the building will be done in red brick Colonial keeping with the built-in architecture of the State House front.

Other members of the committee include Sen. William Keenan of Boston, Reps. Edward Lane of Brighton, Chas. Hoff of Montague and Michael J. McCarthy of E. Bridgewater.

Mail your dues to:
Suffolk Alumni Association
29 Derris Street
Boston, Massachusetts

A Message To Alumni

This is the first in a long series of Suffolk Journals to be mailed out to the Alumni. At this time, I wish to thank the staff of the Suffolk Journal, the Administration, and all of my fine staff of able workers for making this possible.

We have many reasons for mailing our communications this way, but one of the most important is to inform you of the activities being held at school, and perhaps get you to attend some of their functions.

In the past year, we have shown some progress despite the fact that less than one percent (1%) of our group has been willing to pay the dues of $3.00 the first year. During this same time only the same active group was willing to pay to come to a teach party that all were invited to. One must realize that each time we mail to the entire group, it cost us twenty five dollars and next year it will cost us thirty dollars. This does not include the time given us by active members. Last summer it cost us, from our own pockets, $500.00 to organize this teach party that couldn't be held because of lack of response of our two mailings.

So I emphasize again, Pay Your Dues.

This is the class of '39-'41th year out. Let's back up their reaction, by paying your dues.

In conclusion, I ask every one of you to help. We need in Boston, in every city and town alumni representatives; we need influence in school committees, etc. to talk to high school seniors, we need speakers that are willing to do this work and we need press agents with influence in newspapers. We can use help. Just tell me what you can do. Before you offer your services, Pay Your Dues.

Years in Fraternity,
Michael Linquata, '50
Pres. of Gen. Alumni Assoc.
24 Beacon Street
Glooucester, Massachusetts

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

It takes three years of steady work to earn a Ph.D. It only takes one pack to know that L.S./M.F.T.
Warren Perry
Northwestern University

In college crowds you'll always see those packs of red and white. It's Lucky Strike they choose to buy. Their flavor tastes just right!
John D. Neuberger
Princeton University

We're rooting for our favorite team. Our arguments are loud. But smoother-tasting Lucky Strike wins cheers from all the crowd.
Alice G. Ogden
Santa Barbara College

LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTES
L.S./M.F.T.

© 1958, THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER CLEANER, FRESHER, SMOOTHER!