remaining in this city for sev-

SPECIAL MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1928.

I wish to express to each of you the sincere gratitude that I feel to the students and especially to your class for the beautiful flowers and the cheering messages that came to my sick room from you. I had a very close call. You boys can never know how much your expressions of loyalty and sympathy assisted me in critical hours.

My health is now excellent. I am looking forward to another busy year and am especially pleased at the outlook for the Class of 1928. You have certainly vindicated my faith in you by finishing the Junior year with 221 men free from conditions and 124 others entitled to try Senior work this year. Making due allowance for mid-year men your class should graduate from 275 to 300 men next June.

The splendid work of the Class of 1928 should be crowned with a new high record in the Bar Examinations. The Senior year will naturally be a strenuous one because a thorough review of Freshman and Sophomore subjects is now a regular feature of the Senior year. The wise student will begin now to review his Freshman and Sophomore subjects in order to lighten his burdens and ensure a more thorough understanding of the whole field of the law. No hasty and superficial bar review can possibly accomplish what our general review with monthly tests is accomplishing. Every Senior must really study the Freshman and Sophomore subjects in order to pass the tests.

A special progress chart will be posted on the Bulletin Board in order that the Seniors may know exactly what the Freshman and Sophomores are covering from week to week. But we also give the Seniors faculty coaching prior to each test. During the week preceding the Freshman or Sophomore tests, three quarter hour reviews for Seniors will be held at 11:30 A.M., 7:30 P.M., and also at 9:05 P.M., on each school day. Seniors will pass from their regular hall into a review hall there to be met by the professor who has just taken the Freshman or Sophomores, as the case may be, over the review of the subject in hand for an intensive review of the field to be covered in the test.

A regular bar review of Junior subjects will be given during May and June. The cost of the Senior review will be $10 a semester, payable within one month of opening day of the semester.

THE CLASS OF TWENTY-EIGHT

Air: "There's a Long, Long Trail."

By David A. Keohan, 1928

Suffolk's praises we sing proudly—
Unto her motto we're true,
In the shadow of the State House,
'Neath its golden hue.
To our future Alma Mater
And to the dear Old Bay State
We pledge the loyal affections
Of the Class of Twenty-eight.

The Class of Twenty-eight

BY DAVID A. KEOHAN, '28

(Air: There's a Long, Long Trail)

Hear our chorus swelling boldly,
Voices clear and strong,
Sons, arrayed in legion, nobly Raise that echoed song.
Fears allayed and hopes aglowing,
Suffolk's name we hail,
While the strain, in splendor growing,
Rings majestic on the gale.

Chorus:

Suffolk's praises we sing proudly,
Unto her motto we're true,
In the shadow of the State House—
'Neath its golden hue.
To our cherished Alma Mater
And to the dear Old Bay State,
We pledge the loyal affections
Of the Class of Twenty-eight

Ever loyal and true-hearted,
Firm and trusty friends,
For the days that we are parted
Our meeting makes amends.
While life's stormy sea we're sailing,
We'll be ever true.
Sons of Suffolk, never failing,
Our allegiance we renew.

Pledge to the Flag

I pledge allegiance to my flag and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

NEGRO NATIONAL ANTHEM "Lift Every Voice"

J. ROSAMOND JOHNSON

Lift every voice and sing,
Til earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise,
High as the list'ning skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith
That the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope
That the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun
Let us march on 'till victory is won.

God of our weary years,
God of our silent tears,
Thou who hast brought us thus far on our way,
Thou who hast by Thy might,
Led us into the Light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray;
Lest our feet stray from the places,
Our God, where we met Thee,
Lest, our hearts drunk with the wine
Of the world, we forget Thee,
Shadowed beneath Thy hand,
May we forever stand,
True to our God, true to our native land.

Much improvement in city of Easttown
 One-way traffic - 1938 - No beggars as in W. I. - Country needs railway for its development - People are taxed unmercifully - Bicycles $2.00 and you cannot tow another person. You are prosecuted - ~~The~~ magistrate declared in open court it was immoral and im-decent for a male to tow a female.
 (What stupidity) Seems as though the intent is to tax you out of business - Motor buses $400 ^{or} because they run in competition with the Railway not controlled - Worst roads anywhere in the world are found on the Coral-stone Coast in the Co. of Belbice - The new Gov. remarked it was only the mercy of God that he returned safely to the town of Nya. I am sure he is going to do something about this condition - The Com. of the Coast is an hour ~~away~~ Rate of speed 35 miles

but he makes too - Prevented by Cows - Orders in pounding - A regular scheme to make the poor poorer + the rich richer - Suggested by Com. that land owned by persons of a certain lot be given to a rich landowner adjoining because the people, the real owners of the land on which they are paying taxes, are not ready to develop it. No doubt a "cut" is instigated from this deal - If an individual makes a cocount and finds he has more than is required for his own use, he can not sell the balance unless he has a license - Terrible oppression! The people considering a movement to ask for a return to representative Gov. - Greatest hindrance to progress in the Colony comes from men in high office, whether white or black, East In. or Chinese. They would not act on behalf of the people for fear of not being recommended in the remote future for a title of some sort -

If the beginnings of the life and head lines are joined it is proof of some fear. Long fingered people are thoughtful. Short fingered are to be tray quickness and strong intuitive sense. Long fingers should think optimistically - Those with joined head and life lines cannot afford to be afraid. The very worst thing to fear is yourself and your lack of courage.

ARMSTRONG MANUAL TRAINING SCHOOL

Report of Kendall, George C

for School Year, 191 6 191 7

NOTES

1. An advisory mark of Poor implies deficiency at end of semester unless improvement occurs.
2. A check (✓) indicates that the subject is pursued, but that no grade is given.
3. Pupils who do not pursue the prescribed work of the school, or who are marked deficient, cannot be graduated until the prescribed work is satisfactorily made up.
4. Pupils taking a full course should spend not less than two or three hours each day in home study. Parents are requested to see not only that the necessary amount of time is devoted to preparation of lessons, but that study hours are systematically arranged, and that the attention given to work is unbroken, as lack of success in studies is due generally to distracting surroundings and poor methods of study.
5. Oppressive home study is frequently a result of faulty methods of preparation; whatever the cause, such case should be reported, in person, or by letter, to the principal.

Marking grades are Excellent (E), Good (G), Fair (F), Poor (P), and Deficient (D). Poor is advisory only.

BARRISTER ETC.

195 CHARLOTTE ST. SYDNEY, N.S.

June 27th, 1928.

George Kendall, Esq.,
3 Dilworth Street,
Boston, Mass.

Dear George:

Your letter of June 20th., last was a pleasant surprise. I had been wondering what became of you and could form no ~~theory~~ theory.

I am glad to learn that you did not spend the seven years in "Riotous (righteous) living". Last year I motored to New York to see my sister. When passing through Boston I thought of you and wondered if by some good fortune I might see you on the street, but I was disappointed.

I notice in your letter that you have a few steps to go. What are they? How many years did your course take, and what would you have to do to be admitted to the Bar of Massachusetts? I understand that the prospects there are very good. A Magistrate from Sydney was down there last year on a visit. He spoke very highly of a colored chap who was practicing in Everett. I hope that you will have further success in your course and be soon a member of the profession.

The first thought that occurred to me when I received the letter was the fact that we had both decided to study together and my desire to enter the profession received a good stimulus from you. I am reminded of a few lines of an old school song,

"Tho in the Distant Future our paths may parted lie,
Fond memories we will cherish of happy days gone by".

I hope you will see your way clear to write me often that the chain of friendship may remain intact.

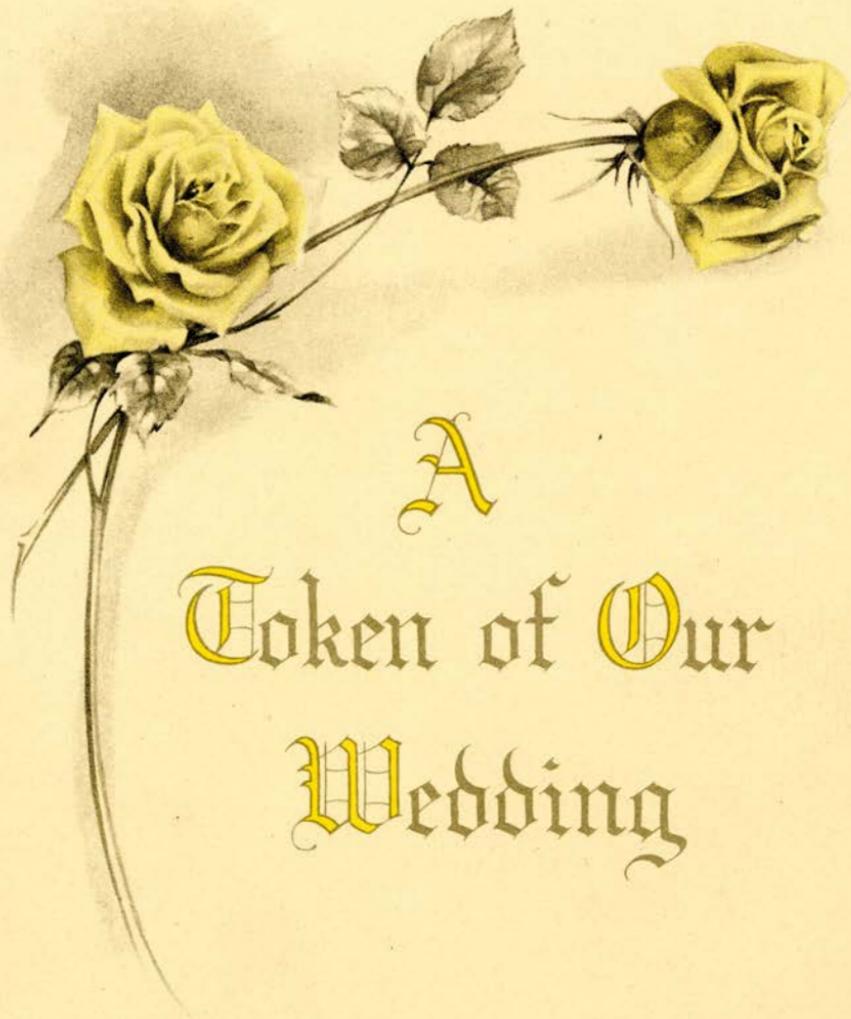

I can never get any word of Donald tho I have written him more than once. Godding wrote me once from New York but did not give his address. From his letter I gathered that he was still persuing his studies. But he was non-comittal.

Accept my heartiest congratulatory on your success.
Mrs. H. was very pleased to learn and joins with me in extending congratulations and fondest wishes for continued success.

Yours ever,

~~Elizabeth Hamilton~~

What to do if Bonds are Lost, Stolen, Mutilated, or Destroyed:

Give prompt notice to the Division of Loans and Currency (at the address below), stating the serial numbers (with prefix and suffix letters), the issue dates (month and year), the denominations (maturity values), and name and address of owner.

Prompt notice will help protect your rights.

Substitute Bonds bearing same date of issue as the originals will be issued, without charge, upon proper notice and completion of a special form that will be supplied by the Division of Loans and Currency.

If Bonds reported lost or stolen should be recovered, notify that Division at once.

WHEN YOU INVEST IN "E" BONDS REGULARLY HERE'S HOW YOUR SAVINGS BUILD UP

Your War Bonds Are Safer To Hold
Than Cash and Grow in Value

There is no security available to investors, large or small, that is as safe as a United States Bond. These Bonds are actually safer than cash. Your dollars can be lost or stolen; but if United States Bonds, with your name on them, are lost or stolen, nobody else can cash them, and by following the instructions herein you can replace the Bonds. Moreover, unlike cash, your War Bonds, while you hold them, continuously grow in value to maturity (see back cover). This Personal Record of Ownership is very valuable to keep, because it will make much easier the replacement of any War Bond you may lose.

KEEP THIS IN A SAFE PLACE, BUT NOT WITH THE BONDS THEMSELVES
