Re-Elect Congressman Joe Moakley Committee,
P.O. Box 1073, Boston, MA 02205-1073

So, what's Congressman Joe Moakley done for you lately?

Kept guns away from criminals.

Joe Moakley used his clout as Chair of the Rules Committee to help make the Brady Bill law, requiring a five-day waiting period before purchase of a handgun.

Lowered your water and sewer bill.

Joe delivered another $250 million in federal funds for the Boston Harbor cleanup — for a total of over one-half billion dollars in federal relief for MWRA ratepayers.

Improved your schools.

Because he understands the importance of education to our state's economy, Joe's worked to expand Head Start for preschoolers, for more Pell Grants and college loans, for $12 billion in financial aid to public schools, and for the School-to-Work Act, creating business partnerships to help high school grads find good jobs.

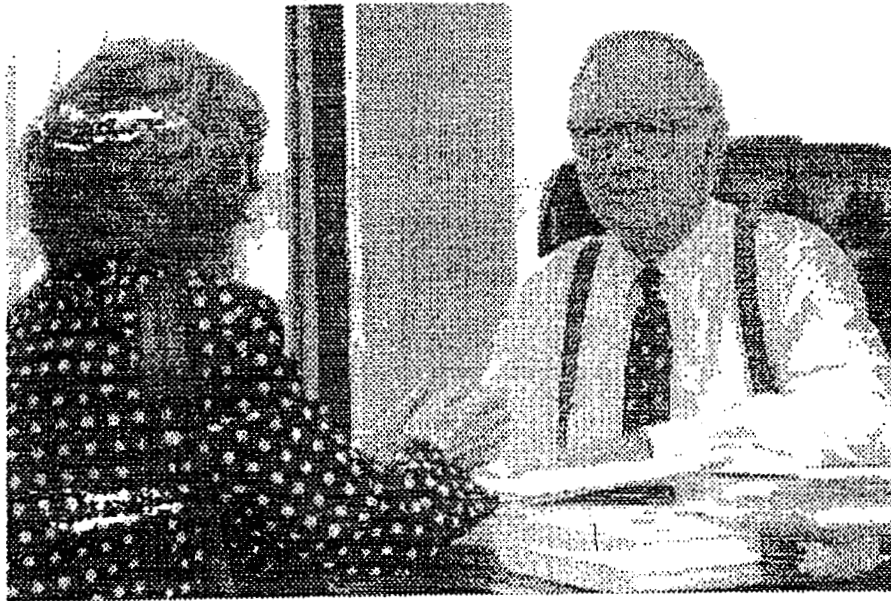

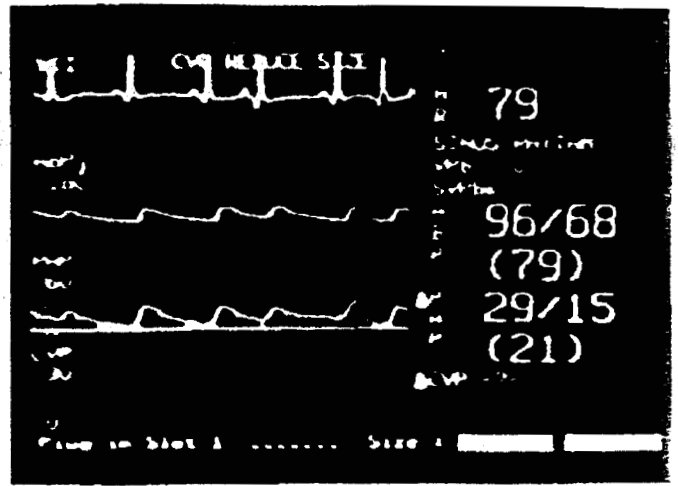

Created new jobs.

In Taunton, Joe helped GTE obtain a $4.3 billion Army communications contract, he's now helping the company move into non-defense, commercial projects to make more jobs. And he's created tens of thousands of construction-related jobs by securing billions of dollars for projects like the Central Artery and Third Harbor Tunnel, Harbor Cleanup, and new federal courthouse.

Brightened bio-tech's future.

To provide tomorrow's jobs, Joe's delivered millions to help our high-tech and bio-tech industries grow. He's secured millions more for bio-tech research at local universities, and he helped establish the Massachusetts Biotechnology Research Institute to train bio-tech workers.

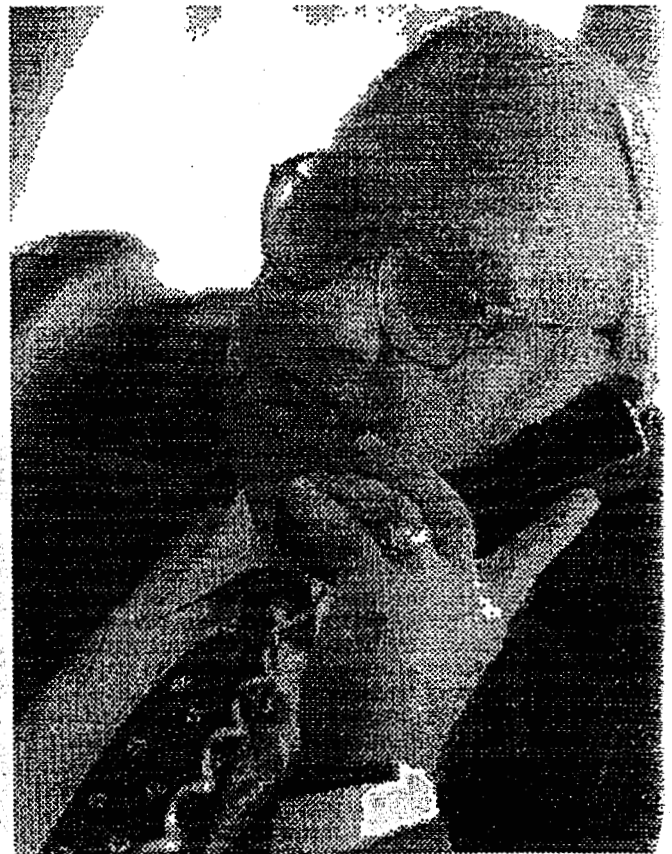

Stopped the sludge.

Joe Moakley kept his promise to keep MWRA sludge out of Walpole.

Stayed in touch.

Joe Moakley is responsive and accessible, regularly holds town meetings throughout his district, and holds regular office hours and meets with hundreds of individual constituents each year.

Joe Moakley's a fighter.

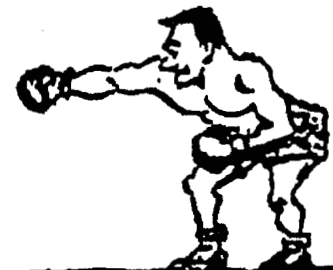

At age 15,
Joe Moakley
enlisted in the Navy and served in the Pacific during World War II.

After the war, this scrappy kid from South Boston worked so he could attend the University of Miami, where he fought on the boxing team.

Joe came back to Massachusetts, married his sweetheart Evelyn Duffy, and earned his law degree attending Suffolk University nights. At age 25 he was elected State Representative, and began a distinguished career in public service.

Today Joe's one of Congress's most powerful leaders. On Capitol Hill he's known respectfully as "Mr. Chairman", because he chairs the powerful Rules Committee through which all bills must pass.

LT. HEAVYWEIGHT BOXER
AT UNIV. OF MIAMI

But working people from South Boston to Brockton to Taunton and in all the towns in between know him simply as "Joe" — the one you call if your Social Security gets fouled up, or you need help with an S.B.A. Loan, or your town needs some federal assistance.

And while Joe Moakley's low key style makes him an unlikely hero for the voiceless people of El Salvador, it was his dogged investigation into the murders of six Jesuit priests that pushed all sides towards the peace tables, and to democratic elections in that troubled land.

And through it all, Joe hasn't changed much. He still lives in the same house he's lived in for 32 years. He drives a car that's over ~~ten~~ 15 years old. And he still believes that government exists to serve the people, and make life better.

And Joe Moakley is still a fighter.
