WHAT IS THE FORD HALL FORUM?

The FORD HALL FORUM is the oldest continuously operated public lecture series in the United States. But it is more than just a platform which brings together speakers and audiences. For 65 years, the FORUM has been as new as tomorrow. It has been the catalyst of social and political thought. It has brought the thinkers, the movers, the newsmakers of all points of view to the platform, and has given the audience an opportunity for free and open give and take of significant ideas and opinions. The audience doesn't always agree with the speaker; but it listens, it questions, and it has the opportunity to bring the issues out into the open. Today, in addition to its meeting hall in Boston, the FORUM is brought into 80 cities on educational radio stations, extending its influence from coast-to-coast. The FORUM has been called the "Safety Valve of Democracy." Proudly, it is just that.
