A Message from President Sargent

Congratulations and best wishes to the Class of 2005! You have labored diligently to reach this milestone in your educational journey, and every member of the Suffolk community is proud of your accomplishments. Now it is time to take the skills, wisdom and self-assurance you have attained here and set off on a new path. We are confident that you are ready to succeed as you choose careers or further your education, and we are honored to have served as your guides during your time at Suffolk University.

Commencement is a time of great energy, but as you focus on your next steps, I ask you to pause a moment and ponder the fine balance of family, community and work that makes for a well-rounded life. Many of you gave yourselves through SOULS and service learning programs while at Suffolk; you benefited from your families' support and encouragement; and you worked hard to grasp new concepts, write papers and prepare presentations. It is very exciting to throw yourself headlong into a new job or career, but don't forget that your families and friends also need your attention, as does society at large.

This is a time of upheaval in our nation and in the world. Please, let your voice be heard in these changing times. Hope for the future lies with the young, and we hope that your fresh ideas and idealism will help build bridges between individuals, social groups and nations.

As the University prepares to celebrate its Centennial in 2006, it is just as dynamic and exciting a place as it was during its early years. During your time here, the University has grown, both in numbers of students and program offerings. But Suffolk's best qualities will remain the same. We pride ourselves on offering small classes and personal attention from faculty. Each member of our community has the best interests of the students at heart, and our goal is to offer each individual a chance to succeed.

As a Suffolk University graduate, you become one of more than 37,000 active University alumni leaders in business, education, law, public service, the sciences and the arts. We will be watching proudly as you become the leaders of tomorrow, both professionally and in the community.

We hope that you also will stay connected to the Suffolk University family. Many of you already have come to know the alumni community through internships and mentoring arrangements. Now you have an opportunity to contribute to the education of future Suffolk students by helping to strengthen our university. We welcome your future involvement through contributions of time, talent, counsel, expertise and financial resources. You are now a part of our future, and we ask that you provide the continuing support that is essential to our mission of providing educational access and excellence to all.

Senior Breakfast

Commencement

Commencement

Commencement

To the class of 2005,

Over these past four years we have each made memories, forged friendships and gained knowledge that will last a lifetime. Many of these experiences started in the classroom and expanded to clubs, organizations, sports, internships and studies abroad. We've learned many valuable lessons that we will take with us as we travel down the road of life. The people we have met and the things we have experienced will shape our futures.

When you look through these pages you will be reminded of great friendships, mentors, educators and all of the amazing students who made up the class of 2005. You will remember life in the dorms, activities on the fourth floor, Walks through the Commons and endless traffic jams. All set against the backdrop of a vibrant city like no other.

Just as you as students have helped to shape Suffolk University, I know as Suffolk graduates you will help to shape your communities, this commonwealth and our country.

It has been a privilege to serve as a class officer for the past four years and your student body president this past year.

Thank you and Best of luck!

Rebecca Anne Harlow

President, Suffolk
University Student
Government
Association

Dear seniors,

I took the position of Senior Class President believing that my contributions could change all your lives at Suffolk. By mid year I realized that I had only met a quarter of you. Although my ambition had not floundered my realization of what I actually could do was coming into recognition. I shortly realized that although I did not know all of you we were somehow all connected. This university was our home for the past two, three, or four years. Some of us became involved and some of us went through the daily routine of going to classes and going home. We have memories of great nights with friends and we have memories of losing friends.

When asked to be the editor of the yearbook I excitedly accepted. The yearbook was just another avenue to meet all the seniors. The more I met the more proud I was to be the president of our class. My time here has only been memorable because of the people that I have met. It was those people who have shaped my memories of Suffolk. Even the people that I didn't meet one on one have had an effect. This university gives you a unique opportunity to take with you some of the best memories of your life. I want to thank all of you for giving me those lifelong memories. Little did I know that taking the position of senior class president would change my life here at Suffolk. I wish you luck in pursuing all your endeavors.

Proudly,
Jessica Pappas
Senior Class President

Student Life

Activities Fair

New and returning students looking for a great way to meet other students, have fun, and enhance their Suffolk University experience had to look no further than this year's Activities Fair. Cosponsored by the Office of Student Activities and Service Learning and Program Council, the Activities Fair showcased a large number of Suffolk's diverse array of nearly 75 student run clubs and campus organizations. By supporting The SOULS Community Service Center, Women's Programs, Commuter Programs and coordinating the efforts of student-run clubs and organizations, the Student Activities Office enriches the social and cultural life of the University, and helps prepare students for citizenship in a global community. Held on Tuesday, September 14th, the Activities Fair kicked off the fall semester recruitment for clubs/organizations and gave students a chance to highlight their groups and members.

Breast Cancer Walk

Faculty, staff and students walked to the front of the state house in support for the cure of breast cancer. Members of the Suffolk community gathered at the State House with President David J. Sargent and local politicians for this annual event.

Fall Fest 2004

Fall Fest is Suffolk's annual variety show and is presented each year as the official kick-off to Family Weekend. The theme for this year's show was "Celebrating 30 Years of Entertainment" in recognition of Fall Fest's 30th Anniversary. The show featured performances by current Suffolk students as well as some of alumni from past performances. In addition to the outstanding lineup of song and dance, we were able to pay a special tribute to Dr. Ilse Fang, who is credited with starting the very first Fall Fest performance in 1974.

Family Week End

*Tenth Annual Family Weekend:
Celebrate the Spirit of Suffolk*

Family Weekend is an opportunity for students' families to spend time with their students and explore campus and city life. It is a collaborative effort between various departments, student organizations and volunteers. In October 2004, over 150 families participated in the festivities and enjoyed spectacular events including, a Special Suffolk Night at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston Duck Tours, Taste of Boston, the 30th Annual Fall Fest, the Theater Department's show "The Suicide", Boston-Area Walking Tours with members of the History Society and History Department, as well as a Breakfast at the Residence Halls.

Nuestra Culura

Nuestra Culura is an event designed to celebrate the beautiful Hispanic culture. This year Suffolk University's Hispanic Association had traditional acts from Peru & El Salvador. In addition to these acts there was Divercity, a children based rock band, Suffolk University's Step team, and poems that were read by students and faculty. This year's event was attended by more than 150 faculty, staff and students.

African Diaspora

The 8th annual African Diaspora festival took place for the first time ever in the C. Walsh Theater. The evenings events featured African fashion, Cape Verdean dance, and the Floor Lords with special guest Akrobatik, Mr. Lif, and DJ fakes one.

Halloween Bash

Program Council threw their annual Halloween bash at the Matrix nightclub on Tremont Street in Boston. Students danced the night away in costumes from superman to Dorothy from the Wizard of Oz. Students were treated to a wonderful assortment of food, costumes, music and fun.

My Vote Counts

The class of 2005, in conjunction with SOULS, held a debate between the college republicans and the college democrats only weeks before the 2004 Presidential elections. The debate was designed to promote awareness regarding the importance of voting in the election. To help with the message, Representative Rush moderated the debate. The class of 2005 also handed out "My Vote Counts" bracelets to help with relaying the important message of voting.

Senior Sox Night

The Senior Class Council provided an exciting night at the Boston Beer Works where students of Suffolk University had their own private bar to watch the Red Sox win the World Series. Suffolk students shared in the Red Sox record breaking year as the team and students celebrate the teams first World Series in 86 years.

Casino Night

The Suffolk University Vietnamese Student Association brought Vegas to the fourth floor! Students had the opportunity to take their chances at Russian roulette, poker, and craps. Many knew when to hold them, others knew when to fold them. All proceeds were donated to help prevent human trafficking in Vietnam.

Leadership Retreat

The Student Government Association held their annual leadership retreat in October. Numerous student organizations spent the weekend with SGA, faculty and staff advisors. The retreat was designed to help organizations work together at a camp learning about leadership and teamwork.

AAA Karaoke

The Asian American Association sponsored an evening of singing and fun for students and faculty. Guest judges graded each act on a ten-point scale, much like the popular TV show American Idol. The evening saw singers of all styles, which kept the crowd wanting more!

Sex Rules

Maria Falzone, an alumnus of Suffolk University and an accomplished comedian, used her sense of humor to enlighten students on the methods of safer sex. Falzone's act, entitled, "Sex Rules!" has toured many local and national colleges, generally during Freshman Orientation.

Holiday Ball

Program Council's annual winter ball was nothing short of the "Evening of Elegance" it promised to be. Nearly two hundred students dressed in their best to enjoy a night of fine dining and great music at the Hyatt Regency Boston hotel. Good times were had and exciting memories were made as students danced the night away.

Glimpse of Asia

The glimpse of Asia, sponsored by the Asian American Association, showcased the beautiful Asian culture. It displayed different traditional Asian clothing and food.

CSN Fashion Show

Caribbean Student Network put on their annual fashion show in the C. Walsh Theater this past spring. It displayed a great variety of traditional Caribbean clothing as well as modern day clothing. It was a well attended event with lots of music and fun.

Soul Food Luncheon

Soul Food Luncheon- Black Student Union provided a taste of soul food for Suffolk University students. The soul food luncheon allows students to experience soul food and mingle with other students.

VSA Fashion Show

The Vietnamese Student Association displayed their traditional dance and clothing at this years VSA Fashion show. Over 200 students attended and saw the many different cultural dances and fashions.

Improv Festival

Seriously Bent Suffolk's improv troupe drew great laughs as they performed in their annual "Eat my Improv" festival. This year they hosted numerous troupes including the improv troupe from Boston University.

Thanksgiving

International Tea

Unity Week Luncheon

Unity Week

Unity Week is Suffolk's annual celebration of diversity and community. It is a collaborative effort by students, faculty, and administrators and has traditionally consisted of entertainment, speakers, dialogues, open classes, food, and music. These events not only recognize the diversity represented within the University, but affirms the value and vitality that this pluralism brings to the individual and collective experience here at Suffolk.

Alternative Spring Break

Service Day

S.O.U.L.S. 8th Annual Service Day took place on April 8th. Approximately 70 volunteers who participated in community service at 9 locations such as the Franklin Park Zoo, SMILE Preschool and the Esplanade Association. We also had a group on campus doing service for On The Rise, a women's shelter. Everyone who participated in this year's Service Day enjoyed their experience and Suffolk will continue to volunteer in the future.

Temple Street Fair

Temple Street Fair, sponsored by program council, is an annual event to take place in the fall and in the spring. Serving hamburgers and hotdogs along with listening to Suffolk Free Radio, students were able to participate in games along with many craft making events.

Advisor Reception

Students welcomed the opportunity to say thank you to their faculty and/or program advisor during this luncheon. Student Groups took the time to write kind words to their advisors and present them with a "tanks" bowl full of thanks. Dean Stoll and several student groups took the time to recognize the advisors publicly.

Ramification CD Cutting

The Ramifications Accapella group had a unique opportunity as they began working on laying down cuts for a Compact Disk. Members of the group took time to work on several songs for the anticipated CD due out next year.

Leadership Awards

The Student Government Association holds the leadership banquet every spring. The awards ceremony is an opportunity for students, faculty, and staff to acknowledge the people who work hard towards the success of the university.

Leadership Awards

Temple Street Fair

Once again PC made the good stuff happen with a fun filled Temple Street Fair. Temple Street was closed down to automobiles and tables were set up for clubs to showcase their talents. Suffolk Free Radio provided the music while students enjoyed food, novelties and games.

Recognition Day

Every year the university recognizes students who accomplish high scholastic and leadership achievement. Awards are given in both the College of Arts and Sciences as well as the Sawyer School of Management.

Recognition Day

Spring Ball

Every spring program council puts on a spectacular event at one of Boston's premier hotels. This year's spring ball was held at the World Trade Center, allowing for an outstanding view of Boston Harbor and the City of Boston. The night was full of fun, food, and dancing.
