

SUFFOLK
UNIVERSITY

“Jobs for Veterans” Campaign Advertisement (MS100/09.01#16)

Moakley Archive and Institute

www.suffolk.edu/archive

archives@suffolk.edu

Program Title: “Jobs for Veterans” public service announcement

Program Participant: Congressman John Joseph Moakley

Date of Recording: n.d. Length of Recording: 00:00:29

Item Number: Moakley Papers, MS100/09.01#16

Citation Number: Moakley, John Joseph, public service announcement. Moakley Papers, MS100/09.01#16. n.d. Transcript and audio recording available, John Joseph Moakley Archive and Institute, Suffolk University, Boston, MA.

Recording Overview: A public service message delivered by U.S. Representative John Joseph about opportunities available via the Massachusetts State Employment Service and the G.I. Bill for unemployed Vietnam veterans.

Transcript Begins

JOE MOAKLEY: Hello. I’m Congressman Joe Moakley. If you are an unemployed Vietnam Veteran, make certain you are registered with the state employment service. Jobs are available but you have to be registered. For information on educational and training benefits you are entitled to under the GI bill, please contact my office. I want to help you. Thank you.

END OF STATEMENT