Dear Congressman Moakley:

In the name of the desperate people of El Salvador who are in this country, I thank you. I am a senior citizen who has lived through wars, four of them we've been involved in. I have travelled on every continent and seen the oppression of the poor and I am ashamed at the callousness of our government in supporting oppressive regimes, especially now in Central America.

I don't remember if you are a young congressman - if you are, I want to encourage you not to become part of the cynicism that can wound the heart which exists in D.C. We, the people, are seeking to find some hope in the attitudes in Washington. You are one of those signs of hope.

If you will send me the official number of the legislation you are proposing I will see to it that it is distributed among people I know here and other parts of the country so we can seek support with you.

I cannot understand why we brush aside the history of our own Revolution when we look at the people of Central America who seek the same freedom we have - that to determine their own destiny to live like human beings, children of the one God.

In Peace -

Rose Lucey
