President's Message to the Class of 2000

David J. Sargent

Congratulations to the Class of 2000! You are embarking on a new stage of your journey through life, blessed with the gift of learning. We at Suffolk University are proud of your accomplishments and honored to have played the role of educational guides. Now we encourage you to enjoy the fruits of your education - interesting and rewarding careers, a positive role in society and the love of life that comes when learning never stops.

As you graduate, you join more than 37,000 active Suffolk University alumni who are distinguishing themselves in business, education, law, public service, the sciences and the arts. It is with utmost confidence in your abilities that we send you forth to meet the tremendous challenges and opportunities that await you in these professional areas.

While it is natural to focus heavily on your career as you graduate, it is also important to find a balance in life. I exhort you to be full participants in the families you are part of and those you will form, in the communities where you live and work and in the global society. This coming century will bring monumental changes, as did the century in which you were born. It is up to you to make sure these changes strengthen the social fabric of our world. Every generation finds hope in its young people, and we send you forth with the confidence that you will seek ways to work together and will refuse to bear witness to the sort of bitter conflict that can pit individuals, social groups or nations against one another.

Over the years Suffolk University has asked much of you. We've asked you to stretch your minds as you read thousands of pages of text, worked on scores of papers and class projects, and found the courage to speak out in class discussions. Each and every one of you has given so much, yet I am going to ask for one thing more.

Let your commencement be a true beginning, not only of a new path in life, but also of a new relationship with the Suffolk University community. Perhaps you will offer an internship or serve as a mentor to the Suffolk University student of tomorrow, repeating a pattern that helped you settle on a career track. There are many ways to remain part of this partnership of people who care about students and their success. You can help to strengthen your University through gifts of time, talent, counsel, expertise and financial resources so that we may continue to provide access and excellence in education. You have been an outstanding group of students and we hope you will play a role in the future of this great institution.

Message from the Editors Angie Reiner & Carolyn Saunders

Putting the Beacon Yearbook 2000 together required creativity, patience, a lot of energy and hard work to get everything done in time. Especially in the short period of time we had to get the yearbook accomplished.

From the beginning we knew we wanted to create a yearbook that represented Suffolk University's spirit and diversity. A yearbook that would be cherished by the graduating class for many years.

Although we often were at the brink of calling it quits, one of the best things we did was sticking it out. We had a responsibility to the University, ourselves, and most importantly, to the graduating class of 2000. And, nothing is more rewarding than seeing the results after putting in months of hard labor.

Throughout the months it took us to create the Beacon Yearbook 2000, we received help from many people, whom we would like to thank. All of this help was greatly appreciated.

First of all, we would like to thank the Media/Yearbook Selection Committee for giving us the opportunity to create a yearbook of which we can all be proud.

We would also like to thank our advisors, Lydia Sadusingh and Karen Ardizzone, who were there for us whenever we needed them. They assisted us by giving helpful advice when we got stuck in the process of creating this year's yearbook.

Also, big thanks to Steve Forslund of FinePoint Photographics, whose pictures tell the stories of your senior year at Suffolk. With his magic touch and fun personality, he made all of us smile into the camera and most importantly, he made all of us look great!

Last, but not least, thank you to John Carrier, Suffolk's representative from the yearbook company, who provided us with the necessary expertise, advice and materials to bring our ideas to life.

We hope you will all enjoy the Beacon Yearbook 2000 and that we have represented Suffolk University's spirit and diversity. We hope this yearbook will remind you of your senior year at Suffolk, and will give you many smiles and fond memories in the years to come.

Congratulations to the Class of 2000!

The World in your Hand

Graduating from college is a very exciting but sometimes confusing time in your life. "The World in your Hands" represents what so many have, and will accomplish while here at Suffolk University.

The hand represents you, willing to take on the challenge - to accept the good and reach for the better. It represents you, and what you will achieve in the future.

The globe represents the diverse backgrounds of those who have traveled abroad to make their dreams a reality.

It also represents your future - a world that is wide open to you, with many challenges and possibilities.

Suffolk University and its great location are known for many things. One major attribute of Suffolk is its diverse student body and the richness of the cultures represented.

We believe that Suffolk University prepares you, the senior, to take on the challenge of not only changing the world, but making it a better one in which to succeed.

Luckily, Suffolk University offers a wide range of different activities and clubs that kept you in sync with the world around you so that you didn't feel left out.

The diverse atmosphere of Suffolk allowed you to see the world through the eyes of new friends along with being able to visit these places if you chose to study abroad. ## Last Will & Testament

I, N'Deye Salimata Fall, would like to give a very special thanks to my mom and my uncle N'Doko who have supported me every step of the way. I would not have made it without them.

I, Marcia Cedano, send a special thanks to my daughter Tiara, family, friends, professors, and Dean Zegenu for all your help and support.

I, Anta Sane, would like to thank my wonderful parents who sent me to the U.S. to get a good education. Thank you also to Professor Bellinger, the best professor and mentor I ever had.

I, Robyn Breslin, would like to thank Grammy, Frank, Brenda, Jimmy, Mom, and Sean. I wouldn't have made it so far without you all behind me. To Bobby, Mirna, Jay, Denise and Alexis: Thank you for being such wonderful friends. Tuesday Nights!

I, Fridelande Lerick, want to give the utmost thanks to God for sustaining and keeping me sane through my college years. I also want to acknowledge the special people that have made a difference in my life: my loving and beautiful mother, Augusta; my stepfather, Lazare; my sister Fritonn; my brother, Fridnel; special friends Kelly Innocent, Sandra Pyran; Manny Daphnis, Ginette Sainpreuil, Marie Danielle Bellaton, Pharah Marcellus, Daphne and James Diejuste. I owe a lot to these individuals especially my mother who has been a strong rock in my life. From the bottom of my heart, thank you. God bless each and every one of you. I love you all.

Hold On To The Moment

*Single file and yet Together.
We have shared our greatest days.
And we carry common memories
In different ways.*

*Though we don't know where we're going.
We will cherish where we've been.
I want to cry.
I want to shout...
Want to let this feeling out.*

*Hold on to the moment.
Let the feelings show.
Hold on to the moment.
Never let it go.*

*I can picture us together
With my arms around my friends.
Just let me hold on to this moment.
Before it ends.
There was laughter.
There were tears.
Through the many golden years.*

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Fall Activities Fair

Throughout the year, many different events take place that give Suffolk University's students, faculty and staff the opportunity to participate in them. So let's sit back and review this year's activities.

Of course, it all began with the Fall Activities Fair, which is one of Suffolk's traditions that takes place in the beginning of the academic year. The fair gave new and returning students the occasion to look into the many clubs and organizations, as well as check out what they have to offer.

FALL FEST

This annual variety show was, as always, sponsored by the College of Arts & Sciences. The Fall Fest featured a variety of entertainment, which gave Suffolk students a chance to express their talents. The most talented members of the Suffolk community stunned us with their performances by singing, dancing and acting. This event was fun for everyone - performers and audience alike.

Holiday Tree Lighting

This 19th annual holiday celebration took place December 2, and included the annual lighting of Suffolk's own holiday tree. Presentations about Kwanzaa, Hanukkah, and Christmas were shared among the Suffolk community at the Alumni Park.

Holiday Ball

On December 3, the Tremont House welcomed Suffolk students for the annual formal dinner-dance, sponsored by Program Council. The dance floor was crowded all night and everyone had a great time. The Holiday Ball was a great opportunity for Suffolk students to come together before winter break.

Alternative Spring Break

This year 18 members of the Suffolk community, led by Sophomore Matt Selines, traveled to the New Road Community in Exmore, Virginia for the third Alternative Spring Break. Over the week the ASB participants demolished an entire house, saving its owners $5,500; beautified the community; built crosswalks for irrigation ditches in the streets; built crosswalks for irrigation ditches in the streets; constructed stairs and ramps, allowing easy access to community offices; slept on a cold floor only inches apart; entertained and taught community children and ate great southern cooking. The bond built between Suffolk and the New Road Community will continue this summer, as a group of students will return to Exmore for a summer camp.

S.O.U.L.S.

Service Day

On April 7, ninety-seven Suffolk students, faculty and staff participated in the S.O.U.L.S. Third Annual Service Day. Volunteers donated their time and energy to nine different agencies including Little Brothers, Friends of the Elderly, the Paulist Center, the New England Aquarium, Castle Square Childcare, Courtyard Nursing Care Center, Church of St. Johns, AIDS Action Committee, Community Servings and the Greater Boston Food Bank. Service projects ranged from sorting food, cleaning kitchens, talking with the elderly, painting, helping build exhibits and stuffing envelopes for a mailing. Service Day volunteers and community partners came together at the end of the day for a celebration dinner to recognize the efforts of all those involved with community service at Suffolk throughout the year. Alternative Spring Break participants, S.O.U.L.S. Steering Committee members, ReadBoston tutors, soup kitchen volunteers, Jumpstart members, New England Aquarium volunteers and "Good Person of Suffolk" award nominees were all recognized as were Service Day sites and the ongoing community partnerships with Jumpstart, the New England Aquarium, the Paulist Center, the Church of St. John and ReadBoston.

Unity Week

This annual spring event brings together all areas of the Suffolk University community to understand and celebrate the rich diversity among us. The week long event included open lectures in classes, speakers, a variety show, dance lessons, and an international luncheon.

Leadership Banquet

On April 10 the Leadership Banquet took place in the Donahue cafeteria. This event is aimed towards recognizing those students, organizations, faculty, and advisors, whose hard work and dedication contributed to the success of Suffolk's activities program throughout the year. During the banquet, an outstanding student from the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes was recognized. Awards were also given to the outstanding male and female athletes, faculty, staff members, and club of the year.

Temple Street Fair

The annual Temple Street Fair is a sidewalk fair held up and down Temple Street. It is Suffolk's tradition to celebrate the upcoming spring season. The main events of the Temple Street Fair 2000 were the Psychic Fair, spin art, food, drinks, t-Shirts, as well as games.

Recognition Day

On April 25, members of the Suffolk community gathered in the C. Walsh Theatre to recognize the academic and co-curricular achievements of the university's full-time undergraduate students. During the ceremony, students received awards and scholarships for their remarkable contributions in the classroom, athletics, as well as in a variety of clubs and community service organizations.

Spring Ball

The Spring Ball 2000 was held on April 27 at The Harborside Hyatt Hotel. The hotel's charming setting on Boston's harbor with its view of downtown Boston favored the romantic, comfortable and fun atmosphere that characterized the ball. Dancing started even before dinner was served and lasted throughout the night. The Spring Ball gave everybody a chance to relax after a tough semester, as well as to relieve built-up tension for the finals that took place the week after. Seniors celebrated the completion of their undergraduate studies, while the other students rejoiced in the passage of another academic year. The ball will be remembered by everyone, thanks to the memento glasses provided by Program Council, who sponsored the event.
