We're currently scheduled to begin taking statements from the U.S. military and State Department folks on the El Salvador letters rogatory on Monday, August 5, at 9:00 am in OIA's conference room. I expect to take statements from 3 DOD people on Monday, 2 DOD and one State person on Tuesday, and one DOD and one State person on Wednesday. The plan is to take the depositions one day, then have each witness attest to the accuracy of the transcript the following day before the duty magistrate. State and DOD is pushing to get through both the testimony and attestation of one witness (Col. Porter) on Monday so he can attend a wedding on Tuesday. No details yet on deposing the 9th witness, the CNN reporter in Atlanta; I would go after her after the others are done.
