Lawns and gardens about town are looking fine.

Charles Noyes is having his house on Grove street painted.

Mrs. W. I. Nutter has been in Boston this week purchasing the furnishings for the parlor of the Cyprian Sisters' quarters in the new K. of P. block.

C. Walter Whitehouse will fill the vacancy as engineer at the J. F. Cloutman factory during the absence of A. J. McGibbon.

E. B. Hayes has announced his intention of opening a law office in the new K. of P. block as soon as the apartments are completed.

The fine residence of Mrs. Hosea Lary on Charles street has been greatly improved by a new coat of paint. Repairs have also been made on the interior of the house.

Brigadier General Dana F. Fellows of the New Hampshire U. S. K. K. P., left Saturday for Terre Haute, Ind., to attend the annual encampment of the Uniformed Rank of Knights of Pythias.

At a joint meeting of the supervisory school districts of Wolfboro, Alton and Farmington held at Alton last Friday Superintendent F. U. Landman was unanimously elected for the ensuing year at a salary of $2,200.

Representatives from a Berwick, Me., firm have been in town recently installing septic sewer tanks. One has been put in at the School street school building and others at the homes of R. P. Gibbs and E. B. Hayes.

As a result of an action taken by the board of trade at its recent meeting, a splendid band concert was given on the square last Saturday evening. Fine music was in order from eight until ten o'clock and the large crowd was exceedingly appreciative. A bandstand has been erected on the corner of Main and Central streets and concerts will be held there every Saturday evening during the summer.

L. S. Butler, agent at the local B. & M. station, has been transferred to Old Orchard, Me., the change to take effect as soon as Mr. Butler's successor is appointed. Mr. Butler has been in charge of the B. & M. interests here since early spring, coming at the time of former Agent Reed's promotion. He has made many friends by his conscientious business conduct and personal geniality and his leaving is much regretted.

At the adjourned meeting of the Farmington High School Alumni association held last Friday evening the committee on permanent organization was heard and the dues which at first were decided to be one dollar a year for each member were changed to fifty cents. A code of by-laws were accepted and Mrs. Cora Flanders having resigned as vice president, President Mrs. A. E. Carter appointed Mrs. Ida Horne to the vacant seat.

The newly elected officers of Woodbine Lodge, I. O. O. F., were duly installed at the last regular meeting last Thursday evening by D. D. G. M. Earle J. Priestly and suite of Rochester. FRIDAY JULY 17, 1914.

Local.

The month of roses.

Itaining again this Thursday.

Dog days are due this Saturday.

There was a new moon Tuesday.

That was a fine shower, and much needed, on Tuesday.

Freemont Wallace recently made a large shipment of fancy broilers to the Boston market.

The floors in the high school building have recently been taken up preparatory to laying new.

Philemon Stevens recently harvested over two tons of fine quality hay from three-fourths of an acre of ground.

The old bandstand which has stood at the juncture of Central and Spring streets for many years has been torn down.

Allie Lougee suffered the loss of the first finger on his left hand while at work on a machine at the J. F. Cloutman factory Tuesday.

The public library will close on Saturday evening, August 1st, for two weeks, as the librarian, Miss Goodwin, will take her annual vacation at that time. All books out should be returned before, or on, that date.

The morning services at the Baptist church next Sunday will conclude the worship at that house, while the pastor takes his annual vacation. Mr. Clow and family leave Mouday for their summer home, "Kenjockey", at Madison.

The local baseball squad will cross bat with the Amesbury A. C. delegation on the home grounds Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock sharp. Hardy, the famous ex-Harvard pitcher, will do the serving for Farmington. A hot contest is expected.

The elm beetle has made its appearance in town and the invasion has already placed the mark of devastation on the stately elms which have long been the pride of our village. The best means of a timely rescue should be put in practice at once.

Charles Harmon, who recently resigned as machinist at the J. F. Cloutman factory, was given an agreeable surprise last Friday night after he returned home from his duties as forerunner of the Thayer-Osborne stitching room. On going to his stable he was greeted by a delegation of ladies from the Cloutman stitching room and was presented with a handsome leather traveling bag, for which he gratefully responded.

The regular meeting of Henry Wilson Grange was held last Monday evening with a good attendance and the usual order of business. The first degree was conferred on two candidates, after which the following program was given: Piano solo, Mrs. Edna Hanson; discussion, "Considered: The advisability of holding Grange meetings through the summer," members; piano duet, Mrs. Hanson, Miss Giles; singing, Grange choir; closing, "America." Interesting remarks were heard from F. R. Marston and Mr. Knowles, the latter of Freedom.

The committee on the Old Home week program met at the selectmen's room Tuesday evening, and while the date of the principal celebration was not definitely determined, an outline of the program for the day was planned. There will be a parade in the morning, followed by sports and a basket picnic and appropriate exercises in Fernald grove at noon. A ball game will take place in the afternoon but as yet the evening program has not been decided upon.

Many tons of hay were wet in this locality by the sudden and violent shower of Tuesday.

Welfare Work.

"Have you any part of an automobile that you don't want?"

"I might give you an old tire. What's the idea?"

"You know how our grandmothers used to make crazy quilts for the needy?"

"Yes."

"On the same principle I am trying to assemble an automobile for a poor woman who has none."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Albert's Aptness.

Mrs. Huffe (a popular and prosperous paper)—Now, Albert, what'll yet say when I take yer into the kind lady's dreddy room? Albert (a proficient pupil)—Oh, all right, I know. Put on a beautiful first look and say: "Oh, murrver! Is this 'em'ven'?"—Exchange.

How They Were Seated.

"I suppose you sat at the captain's table?"

"The captain sat at our table," responded Mrs. Nurtich, with dignity.—Louisville Courier-Journal.
