The Farmington News

FRIDAY DDC, 20, 1907.

EDWIN H. THOMAS. We wish it understood that for printing a card of thanks we charge 50 cents, and five cents line for list of flowers and for resolutions.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

good faith.
Advertising rates reasonable and furnished on A ddress all orders and communications to FARMINGTON NEWS, Farmington, N. H

Bon voyage: The fleet. 🐃

A Merry Christmas to all our friends. Red men had the town Wednesday

Now Heaven forbid a green Christmas in the snow lines.

Ensom salts seem to be coming up, in the scientific world.

Two members of the cabinet, Secre-

Are your stockings good and ready all through the house," etc. etc. etc. All the newspapers declare Thomas exterminated. The address of Ex-Governor Black of New York and New Hampshire, at the meeting of the state bar association in replete with wise and serious sugges-

Judge David Cross of Manchester, the oldest practising lawyer in the United States, with a son who is both poet, and the old home of Whittier on occasion of the observance of the poet's centennial, zat Amesbury, Mass.

We agree with the Laconia Democrat in this word as to a recent notable address by Governor Floyd: "We reckon Hampshire and her institutions."

set forth from Hampton Roads for the the firm will supply every need. spectacle. Freviewed by so picturesque home to find advantages equal to those dren. So fond was she, so kindly and claimed as tribute from the trees for Weekly has given interesting statistics gone. relative to the island possessions of the United States. . In 1836 the natives num. 20,000. This decrease in population is due to some extent to lack of habitual with supper right there. sanitation, and to delicacy of constitution natural to certain races in mildweather lands. In 1848, a great many Hawaiians died of measles and many others have died of small-pox Kind and gentle, yet improvident and less ready to work than to enjoy idle pleasure. So with "Aloha" on his lips, and the smile of content "the Hawaiian is passing away, and the land of his fathers is being peopled with men and women from across the sea."

Logical Supposition. Little Lloyd - Papa, was George Washington married to England? Papa Of course not, my son. Why do you ask such a silly question? Little the mayor and city council, as the Lloyd-This book says England is our mother country, and as George Washington was the father of his country I supposed they were married.—Chicago

 He Was Incorrigible. Underdone-My husband is complain ing again of your cooking, Mary. Mary (reassuringly)-Oh, mum, I don't take any notice of him, for 'tis the nature of him to find fault. Ain't he forever complainin' of you, mum?-Illustrated

Good Nature. Good nature is worth more than knowledge, more than money, more than honor, to the persons who possess it, and certainly to everybody who dwells with them, in so far as mere happiness is concerned.-H. W. Beecher.

Alone? Aunt-And have you been all that long way alone? Niece-Yes, auntie. Aunt-Then how is it you went out with an umbrella and came back with facts and figures.—Bloomington (Ill.) a walking stick?—London Punch.

Among the Merchants.

Farmington merchants are exceedingly busy these days in their efforts to make the best possible display of holi-PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING day goods and so far they have succeeded. The show windows never presented ed. The show windows never presented stocked and the merchants are ready to their holiday selection. Many report town Monday and reported that he reand that business was better in Farmington than any place he knew of. It lot in the Farmington cemetery. was one of the bright places on the map. We call the attention of the public to the merchants' ads in the NEWS; this week's paper contains some very attractive announcements. J. P. Bennett, a dealer in men's furnishings during a long residence in Chelsea, until the marriage of her father Farmington, will fit one out with every- to the widow of Dr. Tuttle (Abbie Worsthing he may need in his wardrobe or ter) of Somersworth. She then returntaries Cortelyou and Metcalf, are ill in his traveling trunks. Just now his windows show a dazzling array of neckties, and a lady in search of a tie for a gift will be certain to find there just the for that " night before Christmas, when sort that will please all concerned. In fact, ladies often get neckwear from the men's clothier, for their own use, and there are other goods in "the Bennett H. Dearborn to be a hustler, and that store, which women are in the way of it is up to pests to disappear or to be

Buv Soon.

"The name of Feineman has been a the governor made out a pretty strong household word in this vicinity for gendefence for the Granite state, and at any erations, and all descendants of "Fred" rate it is a pleasant relief from the con- and of "Henry," as the grandfathers tinual knocking, fault-finding and slurs used to call those diligent and thrifty and sister, and she was ever a true which most of our prominent men seem brothers, will find friends among our friend, while her fine qualities won to to delight in when they speak of New people, whether in one line of trade, or another, and whatever the name over the door in Rochester.

when last Monday the sailing signal by names and are connected with the in the society of her loving and beloved melting in the mouth too rapidly for President Rooseveit, from the Mayflower records of this community in more than children, over whom she exercised a sawas followed by "up anchor" from every one instance. Certainly the firm of gacious and helpful influence. It seems was followed by "up anchor" from every one instance: Certainly the firm of gacious and helpful influence. It seems to the woodlands of the Pennytile disvessel of the great fleet of Rear Admiral Lothrop and Farnham will not be for particularly distressing that, however trict of Kentucky, and they reach per-Evans and his captains, and the column gotten by Farmington, and the number she will be missed in the circle of her fection about the time the perfumed of six miles in length, close formation, of lines among the immense stock of near friends, and in her home, she has other side of the world. It is probably And having enjoyed a tour around the ded to the happiness, if also to the all of its golden beauty in the orange the only time when so magnificent a streets of this city or that, we come cares, of the parents and the elder chil- tinted leaves that the earth has first and remarkable a figure as Theodore in any place else, if not superior to the so wise in her love, in her family her enrichment. - Louisville Courier Roosevelt as President of this extra- conditions outside of old Farmington, relations, her death is indeed an ordinary nation. will have gained a "Not a store in the state, that outdoes irreparable bereavement, which has been place in the history of the United the W. W. Roberts corner place, in holi-States, May every ship and every good day beauty," said a person recently in sympathy is felt by every one on this man on board come safely home in due town. And this is but one instance of occasion. the Farmington habit.

. We can shout up our mercantile man-A. recent local, entertainment by agers, in high C, every time. Hasten to Hawaiians reminds us that Leslie's buy, lest the articles you want may be

And please do not forget that the ladies' sale will be going on at the brick bered 108,000. There now are hardly church parlors, when you read these lines this afternoon and evening,

> Our store will be closed all day Christmas, Wednesday, Dec. 25. Salinger Brothers, Lock Box 89, Rochester, N. H.

- Gaiena Well Out of It., The electric light plant of Galena, Ill., was installed in 1898 at a cost of $18,000. It was sold the other day for $13,000, but this price included a twenty-five year light, power and traction franchise. Under the new contract the city will get practically twice the amount of street lighting that was furnished by the municipal plant at only 10 per cent greater cost. The sale met with the unanimous approval of plant had not been a success. One account of it says:

"Its management was changed as often as new political cliques gained Farmington pensioners. power, and at times there was no street illumination at all. The commercial Joy officiating, with B. F. Perkins in service was inferior."

No Exposures For Him, "Now, here," said the enthusiastic real estate agent to the prominent politician, "is one of the most desirable houses in the capital. It has exposures all around"-

"Good heavens," cried the prominent politician, with a start of dismay, "that's just what I'm trying to get Away from!"-Baltimore American. Sentiment Not Enough. The mere sentiment for ownership is not enough. It must be accompanied by the cold figures to demonstrate its practicability under a strictly business test. Unfortunately the sentimentality of the case is too often indulged first and to the exclusion of the necessary

Is your baby thin, weak, fretful?

$

Make him a Scott's Emulsion baby.

Scott's Emulsion is Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites prepared so that it is easily digested by little folks.

. Consequently the baby that is fed on Scott's Emulsion is a sturdy, rosycheeked little fellow full of health and vigor.

ALL DRUGGISTS; 50c. AND $1.00.

$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$$

IN MEMORIAM. A great many friends, including those in Farmington, have been saddened by the decease of Miss. Jennie E. Niles on last Thursday at the private hospital of Dr. Emerson, in Buston, whither she a more attractive appearance than at had been taken as a last resort, with a the present time. The stores are well faint hope of prolonging her life. Everything possible for her comfort was give the trading public of Farmington done by devoted relatives, both at home and violnity a large and most attractive and in Boston, and her passing away is stock of goods from which to make deeply mourned. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at the School street that trade is already starting well and M. E. church in Berwick. Members of that a great many goods are being put the Sullivan high school class of 1883, of aside for later delivery. The business which the deceased was a graduate, atoutlook in Farmington is particularly tended in a body, and a large company also to our younger friends, in merited good, nearly everyone being busy which of friends gave token in their presence assures the merchants of an excellent and by the many beautiful flowers, of a lesson for the future. In the period holiday trade. A traveling man who has their esteem and sympathy. Among visited Farmington for 25 years, was in family connections at the solemn service was Mrs S. H. Waldron of Farmington. ceived an order at every place he called The casket was placed in the receiving tomb to await interment in the family

Miss Niles, born in Boston, Oct. 26, 1864, was the daughter of Harris W, and Mrs. Lovey (Libbey) Niles, the latter dying when little Jennie was but a few vears old. The child then made her home with her aunt, Mrs. Ferrell, in ed to his care and to that of the mother between whom and herself there always existed an affectionate and enjoyable companionship.

MRS CHARLES COOK.

It is with deep sorrow that the de cease of Mrs. Charles Cook of Gardiner Me., has been learned by the people of her native town, having taken place Dec. 15, from typhoid feyer. Mrs. Cook was formerly Miss Abbie Burnham, It is so natural to have the "giving daughter of R. T. and the late Mrs. Nanimpulse," when thinking of friends, that cy (Pearl) Burnham of this village, Concord last Thursday, was one to be of course Farmington always gives home where she was born in 1865. She leaves read with profound consideration. It is people a good holiday trade, be the her husband and five children, three thus generously for the continuance of purse full or lean. Still circumstances sons and two daughters, the youngest, a a part in the progress of the church and occasionally lead one to look at goods boy being in his third year. - She is surin neighboring cities. The Safford vived also by the father, two brothers whose memory is thus perpetuated. mark, for instance, familiar to Farming- and two sisters, one of the latter having ton folk since 1867, never could be been the daughter of Mrs. Burnnam by preacher, gave an address Tuesday at passed by, and Mr. Percival H. Safford an earlier marriage, to the late Stephen will give an excellent bargain at his Horné, a brother of Jacob Horne of Rochester store, in all sorts of fine North Main street. The funeral was ware, in gold, silver and jewels rare held this Thursday afternoon at the and in clocks of every shape, in cut home of one of the brothers, G. H. glass, gun-metal, and in trinkets, with Burnham of Central street, and interment is to be made in family grounds in for the coming feast. With the pos-Pine Grove cemetery, where a young sum and taters there should be served daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cook was either the ordinary Kentucky, corn buried a number of years ago. Mrs. Cook was an excellent wife and mother her, wherever she was, a warm and enduring respect and good will. She was necessary, but it serves well not only preominently maternal in the best sense to mop up the gravy, but also to pre-It could but be a scene of splendor Lothrop and Farnham are old county of the word, and was especially happy been taken from the little ones who ad

ME THOMAS RUSSELL.

Friends in this vicinity will have sad interest in the decease of Mr. Russell on Dec. 7 in San Jose, Calif., where for a long time he had made his home with his younger daughter, Emma, and her husband, C. H. Perkins. He was born June 3, 1812, and was consequently well advanced in his ninety-sixth year, when weakness incident to old age caused his peaceful falling asleep. Mr. Russell was Farmington before his removal to California. He is survived by the daughte: named and by his granddaughter, Miss Ethel R. Farnham.

MRS. KENNISON. Last Friday, Dec. 13, Mrs. Martha Kennison, widow of J. E. Kennison, passed away at the age of 74 years at coughs and colds, throat and lung troubher home on Spring street. She was the les, by W W Roberts, druggist. 50c and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wal. $1,00. Trial bottle free. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wallingford who came to Farmington half a century ago to make their home. By her decease, following closely upon that of Mrs. Small, a second pension has ceased in the present month, as a part of the amount that has been received by

The funeral took place Monday, Elder

CARD OF THANKS.

We take this means of making a slight but sincere expression of the gratitude which we ever shall feel to our friends, who comforted and assisted us by word, thought and deed on occasion of the sudden decease of our parent, brother and friend.

· Miss Iva B. Whitehouse Mrs. Berry Mrs. Dawkins.

One dollar will buy a dollar and a half vorthat our great mark-down sale. Salinger Brothers, Rochester, N II. Lock Box 39,

The Restless Piper. A Wall street financier was talking about music. "I like all music," he said, "except such native and special sorts as the tomtom, the bagpipes or the Indian, hufaa give off. Did you ever notice how a piper prances up and down as he pipes? He never sits. he never stands still, but up and down. round and round, to and fro, he struts continually. A little boy, listening to the weird skirl of the bagpipes of a street performer, once said to his father, 'Father, why does the piper keep on the move all the time he plays?' 'I can't say, my boy,' the father answered, 'unless it is to prevent anyone getting the range with a cobble-

Respectfully Submitted. Recommended to the public utilities

First.-Immediate suppression of the surreptitious subway smoker. Second. - Municipal ownership of apartment house janitors. Third.-Make it unconstitutional to play "Arawanna" or "Poor John" between the hours of 12 m. and 12 p. m., inclusive, and vice versa. Fourth.—Provide subway guards and trolley car conductors with safety Fifth.-Free and unlimited coinage of lemonade.—New York Mail and ExThe First Church and Parish PERSONAL.

Probably two good men who have charge of the regular collections at the Charles Whitehouse of Middleton was Congregational church never were more pleasingly astonished in the course of in town this week. their Sunday duties than were they on December 15 when they found in the morning offering a cheque for five hundred dollars, this amount to be known as the Lucy Dodge Memorial Fund, the income to be used in the support of 'the church and its customary exercises The name given recalls to the elder people of the community the story of a tain Enoch Dodge who was killed in the war) brought a homeless little black girl to her own home in South Berwick, Me., and the child was known as Lucy Dodge. She was taught everything practicable in the well appointed house hold, and at both common and Sunday schools, and became a faithful and competent housekeeper. She was nearly as much at home in Farmington as at South Berwick, attending her mistress in visits to her brothers, and to her sister who was the first wife of James B. Edgerly, and upon the marriage of Mrs. Dodge to the latter, several years after the sister's decease, Lucy became permanently resident in town and was ever a devout attendant upon exercises of the church, taking honest pleasure in contributing to its support and good works. In failing health, after the decease of her kind mistress, Lucy was given every possible care by the members of the family which she held as hers, until she followed those whose loss she had mourned. It is like the conscientious and public spirited head of the household, James B. Edgerly, to have planned parish, in the name of the loyal friend loyal soul whose devotion is thus commemorated, but this 'should be known regard for both past and present, and as of the civil war Mrs. Martha E. Edgerly

Preferably possum should be cooked oven is lifted now and again to give those who wait with whetted appetite improperly applied to anything so rare from the parent stem and reposes in Correct Interpretation Essential. laid upon all who loved her, and warm Many of the most beautiful pieces of poetry in literature would seem un interesting and flat if read by n bad reciter. In the same way a good re, citer will make attractive a poem whose beauties are not so apparent A fine painter will light up each little beauty in his pictures until the smallest detail is attractive and strikes the eye. It is only the mediocrity whose work is characterized by sameness and lack of interest.-Strand Magazine.

A Real Wonderland.

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and for many years a respected citizen of strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs E D Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her spells occurred every five minutes."
writes Mrs Clapp, "when I began giving Dr King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for > Every Saturday afternoon, until further no-

N. L. Parker was in Boston Wednes-

John F. Cloutman is slowly gaining from his very serious illness. Miss Iva Whitehouse was a visitor in town Tuesday, from Rochester. Edward F. Card has had a sharp attack of grip in the present week. Frank J. Smith attended the State grange meeting at Manchester this Mrs.-C. A. Jones returned to Old Orchard Friday, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. George W. Tanner.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving S. Grace have come home from the farm for the season. (her first marriage having been to Cap- but the latter is visiting in Middleton

> Do You Eat Pie? If not, you are missing half the

A Crisis and a Craze. modern England to move—a crisis and something that is great now in this will attract the attention of a great many. The circumstances might have isting until now. For instance, Shakespeare today would probably have had tain the attention of playgoers, Cromwell might have found it advisable to keep himself before the general public, Garrick might have elected to descend from the skies in a parachute to adverhave been necessary for the beautiful accidents, thefts of jewelry and of other property, fires and civil and crimtant elements in the building up and maintaining of a "reputation" among us now than is mere excellence.-Lon-

Explosion by Music. of nitrogen. When it is dry the slightwith great violence. There appears to be a certain rate of vibration which periments to determine the cause of strings of a bass viol. It is known that the strings of such an instrument played upon. In this case, after the explosive had become thoroughly dry upon the strings, another bass viol was brought near and the strings sounded. At a certain note the iodide of nitrogen on the prepared instrument exploded. It was found that the explobration of sixty a second was com municated to the prepared strings. Vibration of the G string caused an explosion, while that of the E string had no effect.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Rheumatism Cannot Be Cured Unless Uric-O ls Used.

Sudden Deaths, Heart Failure and Paralysis are caused By Poisonous Uric and Rheumatic Acid's

The Rheumatic person is skeptical regarding the claims of almost any remedy advertised to cure Rheumatism and one can scarcely blame him for being so. All the plasters and liniments combined never actually cured a case of Rheumatism. They may relieve it one quarter but it is sure to break out somewhere else. The only true way to cure Rheumatism is to drive it from the system. son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. Exhausting coughing entirely free from the trouble. This is where the value of Uric-O as a permanent cure for Rheumatism comes n. It seeks out the Rheumatic poison in the blood, muscles and kidneys, renders it inert and harmless and drives in out of the system. That is why Uric-O is such an admirable and effective cure wonderful cure for Rheumatism is, that Rheumatism and Rheumatism only. It tice, C. D. Colman, the is composed of perfect antidotes for the Real Estate man, Can That is the secret of its wonderful sucbe found at Room 5, cess. Rheumatism simply cannot exist in a person's system if Uric-O is used. Odd Fellows Block, In a person's system it Uric-O is used.

Uric-O is sold by druggists at 75c and $1.00 the bottle, but if you still feel skeptical about its efficacy you can test the buying and selling skeptical about its efficacy you can test it free of charge by cutting out this adof Real Estate and insurance.

C. D. COLMAN

It tree of charge by cutting out this advertisement and sending same, together with your name and address, also the name of your druggist, to the Smith Drug Company, 218 Smith Bldg, Syracuse, NY, and they will send you a sample bottle free. To persons who sample bottle free. To persons who write and say they have never used Jric-O, and want to test it thoroughly, and will agree to take it systematically according to directions, they frequently give a regular 75c bottle free. Uric-O is sold and personally recommended in Farmington by W W Roberts

Headquarters Christmas Slippers

We have just received a new line of Slippers in all sizes and prices for Men, Women and Children, any of which would make an acceptable Christmas present.

You can always find us ready to show you a complete line in all kinds of

FOOTWEAR

Everything up to Date. Give us a call.

N. Hussey

Claus' Headquarters Xmas Suggestions

ACH CHRISTMAS it is always a perplexing question as to just what to purchase for a suitable gift. The tendency of late years is to select articles that have the advantage of being sensible, practical and useful, which proves our love, affection or friendship much more forcibly and serviceably than the fancy unpractical articles which formerly were used so

We submit a list of articles that we trust may assist you in selecting your Christmas presents, and remember that the enormous stock which we carry presents an opportunity for selection which few stores, if any, in New Hampshire can equal.

Clothing Dept.

Fur Coats Overcoats. Fur Lined Coats Raincoats Suits

Reefers Fancy Vests Bath Robes

House Coats Russian Vests Beach Jackets Beach Vests

Shoe Dept.

Fancy Slippers in large variety Patent Colt Shoes, also shoes of all prevailing style leather

Overshoes Rubbers Gaiters. Leggins Babies' Shoes Children's Shoes Dress Shoes

Dress Suit Cases Leather Travelling Bags Trunks 🛴

Fancy Felt Slippers, great variety

Felt Shoes and Slippers

Furnishing Goods Dept.

Cardigan Jackets Sweater Cardigans

Detachable Fur Collars Fur Caps Warm Winter Caps Toques

Tams Union Suits Underwear Fancy Bosom Shirts White Bosom Shirts

Night Shirts Heavy Wool Shirts Silk Handkerchiefs Linen and Lawn Handkerchiefs in handsome special boxes

Suspenders in handsome spc'l box's Umbrellas in individual boxes Neckwear - Hosiery Fur Gloves Fur Lined Cloves

Dress Cloves Working Cloves Knit Gloves Mittens of all descriptions Sleeve Elastics Garters Wristers

Ear Protectors Cuffs & Collars Cuff Buttons Collar Buttons Stick Pins, Etc.

Among the articles enumerated in this list, we trust that you will find many that will interest you, and we hope to have the pleasure of a visit from you when making your Christmas purchases. We extend to you a cordial invitation to make our store, your headquarters during your holiday shopping, and to leave all your parcels, extra wraps, etc., with us as it will be a pleasure to us to extend to you every possible courtesy and attention.

Feineman Bros.

New Hampshire's Largest Clothing and Shoe. House, and only wholesale Clothing Manufacturers.

Custom Tailors.

Rochester, N. H.

J.F.Safford&Son

ROCHESTER,

QUALITY and PRICES

RIGHT in HOLIDAY JEWELRY

We have a Great Variety of Beautiful and Useful Gifts for Christmas

> PLEASED TO HOLD GOODS FOR CHRISTMAS DELIVERY

WATCHES DIAMONDS BROOCHES SCARF PINS BRACELETS SIGNET RINGS CUFF BUTTONS WATCH CHAINS STONE RINGS GOLD BEADS

FESTOON! NECKLACES

CHARMS

EMBLEM

LOCKETS & CHAINS

JEWEL CASES

Hand Painted China, Opera Glasses, Clocks, Silver Toilet Ware, Ebony Goods, Sterling Silver, Shaving Mugs, Fountain Pens, Cut Glass, Chafing Dishes, Smoking Sets, Sterling Match Safes