Dedication

During our years at F.H.S., we have been fortunate enough to have among us two great people who have helped us on our way.

For all his patience, understanding, help, and dependable leadership, through the four long years we battled with him and shared happy times with him, we wish to show our great appreciation by dedicating this yearbook to Mr. R. Marston Erwin.

For all her long nights after school trying to meet deadlines to create a great yearbook, keep the Senior class in line, and always keeping her spirits up when things were down, we wish to show our appreciation by also dedicating this yearbook to Mrs. Barbara Robidoux.

WE THE CLASS OF 1973 WANT TO THANK

Howard

I have died in Vietnam
But I have walked the face of the moon
I have befouled the waters and tainted the air of a magnificent land. But I have made it safe from disease.
I have flown through the sky faster than the sun. But I have idled in streets made ugly with traffic.
I have littered the land with garbage. But I have built upon it a hundred million homes.
I have divided schools with my prejudice. But I have sent armies to unite them.
I have beat down my enemies with clubs. But I have built court rooms to keep them free.
I have built a bomb to destroy the world. But I have used it to light a light.
I have outraged my brothers in the alleys of the ghettos. But I have transplanted a human heart.
I have scribbled out filth and pornography.
But I have elevated the philosophy of man.
I have watched children starve from my golden towers. But I have fed half of the earth.
I was raised in a grotesque slum. But I am surfeited by the silver spoon of opulence.
I live in the greatest country in the world in the greatest time in history. But I scorn
the ground I stand upon.
I am ashamed.
But I am proud.
I am an American.

Remember When

Billy tried to mow the grass in his swimming pool.

We went to Concord and Strawberry Banke.

ZiZi was Little Israel and Buddha was Spanky.

Shirley and Pam used to play horses.

Fern bit Mr. Parissi.

We marched as Juniors.

We had Freshmen science classes.

Lee burped smoke in English.

Laura had short curly hair.

Vicki got caught loading her camera.

Some of us went to New York.

Dale got crew cuts periodically.

Camelot visited our gym.

We had Mr. Berry for math class.

Kathy Brazis made quick trips to the bathroom and sometimes made it.

We got our rings.

Sheree walked in on Mr. Parissi.

Robin started the alarm at Concord.

Jasper did his thing in History 11-B.

We had our first Junior class meeting.

Mr. Colburn came to Billy's party.

We had Junior and Senior plays.

We were all sweet and innocent.

CLASS PROPHECY

Hi!

"It's me, the Blip, returned to Farmington High School for the Class of '73's reunion after 25 years. It's great to see all my classmates again! I've seen a few since graduation. Let me fill you in on what some are doing now."

"Kathy Comeau now manages the new race track in town. Those old Pintos really roar down that track! Jim and Joe DePrizio have gone into the car business. They buy and sell cars faster than the human eye can see. Why I visited them last week and when I left I had bought a car, not realizing they had sold it to me. Oh yes! Wendall Brown is a well known Ace Mechanic in Middleton.

Here comes Marie Gagnon with her new husband. Marie found him at the hospital while she was working as a R.N. Marie is now talking to Robin Lepene, another nurse, about the working conditions. Shirley Greeley just interrupted them to show them her Masters Degree from her sixth college.

Jamie Meyer, Kathy Brazis and Sheila Greeley, all of whom are happily married, are practicing old cheers to bring back old memories. Sitting at a table nearby, Gail Goslin and Gail Kidder are discussing something intently. Both are happy moms! I think they are talking about Sharon Nelson, for she was not able to attend the reunion. She is recuperating after her 100th accident in 25 years. Two other people were unable to attend: Nancy Sprague and Karen Hill. Nancy had to stay home and take care of her sick daughter. It seems Karen has her big art show in New York City today. She's earning lots of money from her paintings.

There is a minor disturbance in the corner. Fern Tarmey and Beverly Lord are meeting again for the first time in years. I think that's General Wilfred Schulte walking near to see what all the noise is about. General . . . or does he work for General Electric? Nearby, Bob Colpitt and Jeanette Garland are remembering their school days. Bob is a very successful cabinet-maker and Jeanette owns a Bakery.

I was just told that Bill Vickers invented an immersible lawn mower. Sheree Baldwin has also invented something, a fool-proof lock for gym doors. Oh, I see Roy Estabrook and Mike Battersby, who now jointly own the Times, are talking to Steven Greeley about his recent scientific developments. I suppose next they'll be interviewing Vicki Parshley and June MacFarland about their literary works. Vicki, an adamant Women's Lib Leader, has published a book on Women's Lib. June has published two books of poetry.

Look at all the people who have found success! Ralph Russell and Ken Woods both own garages now. Roland Glidden owns a milking Corporation which sells milk from coast to coast. Tom Fitch owns a fleet of ships for carrying imports and exports all over the world. Lee Bickerstaffe is now a famous Florida Lawyer. Right now she is talking to her associate, Scott Pittman, another famous lawyer. WOW! Debbie Reed just became the first police woman on the Farmington Police Force! Well, well, Wanda Hobbs now owns the Honda factory in Farmington. Mike Quimby wants to sell bikes for her, but he thinks they should be Kawasaki's. Will wonders never cease? Dale Pratt has finally accomplished something! He owns a fast growing business that sells a popular drink: Prune Juice and Coke Fizzies.

Gregg Chase, a great Sportscaster for NBC is talking to Denny Scruton. Denny is a professional ball player and has formed his own team, called the Fireballs. Debbie Land is the Captain of the team's Cheerleaders. Ned White, the well-known conservationist is listening in on Greg and Denny's conversation.

Cathy Perreault and Cleoria Robinson are here from their Commune in Maine. They are telling some interesting experiences to Laura Howard and Judy Sullivan. Laura is now a secretary in an air-conditioning Corporation and Judy is the President's personal secretary.

In town, Mike Woodward owns the A & P. Right next door is Wesley Rousseau, the manager of the State Liquor Store. Mike and Wesley are discussing business with Paul George, who owns the Drug Store. Dave Phillips has climbed to head lawnmower for the town. Some have moved out of town to find their fortune. Zizi Guay has worked her way from a clerk at CVS to owner of the Rochester Mall and the richest woman in Rochester. Peggy Colbath is doing well as the owner of the Libby Factory in New York City. Bruce Donnell is the part owner of a shoe factory. He often visits Dennis LePanne, who now owns a factory which produces "Poo-Bears." Debbie Knox and Patty Smith are doing well with their arts and crafts shop in Alton. Still rapidly making dresses, Pat Wentworth now owns her own dress shop, which her sister Barbara Wentworth tends. Doug Allten has really done well. He is a delegate to the U.N. for the U.S.

Some of the girls are doing well. Pam Brown is now the first woman trainer for a Football team. Debbie Thayer now owns her own string of race horses, which do well at the track. Kathy Parker has opened a Chinese restaurant. She makes fantastic cookies.

George Boyle has perfected a new idea, it's Silence. He's making millions. Well, there's Nancy Nutter, she still only three feet tall and we almost missed her again. Here's Jackie Glidden, late as usual. Here they come now, Jake (driver) and Kathy (navigator), they've just won the largest cross country race and Jake didn't even use his 4 wheel drive.

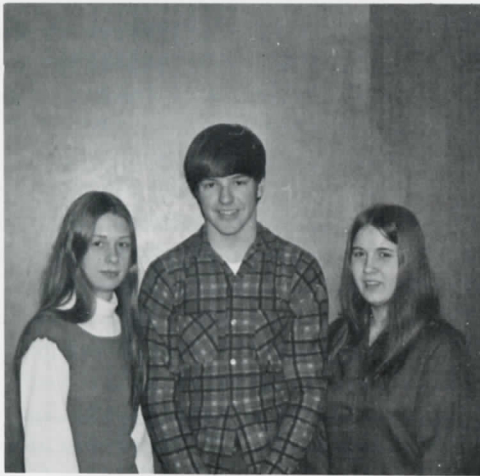

BLIP, it's time to depart, our next encounter will be in the year "3000 A.D. on Jupiter."

CLASS HISTORY

As narrator of your Class History, I would like to introduce myself: I am the BLIP. To make a long story short, I am one of your classmates. I entered high school with you, but because of my size and peculiar looks, no one ever paid any attention to me. As to why I am writing this, well, one day at a yearbook meeting the editors were talking about how difficult it was rummaging up past history. I then decided it was time to introduce myself and let them use the diary I have been keeping of OUR YEARS. So I jumped on the end of Miss H's pencil and at the top of my voice proceeded to tell everyone of my experiences. At that moment I was the happiest BLIP in the world 'cause I felt I was needed. They asked me to write the class history and they liked me so much they made me the yearbook mascot. FRESHMAN--In your Freshman year in high school you were swamped by a host of new subjects. I was so undecided which course to take so I took them all. I jumped every time Mr. Lachance boomed out "Shut-Up!" I really got banged up trying to play soccer and field hockey, but I loved the freshman cheer- leaders. Our first project was selling candy. This project was filling as well as work. I'll never forget Mrs. Emerson's talks on the evils of not studying properly . . . the time I got stuck between the typewriter in Algebra II . . . the time I BLIP in the shop . . .the time I fol- lowed you to the library to do a History report and got shut in the card catalogue . . . my disappointment in not even getting nominated for a class office. But the first year of high school was a busy one and when June came I was glad it was over and hopeful you would all slow down a little in the Sophomore year so I could keep up. SOPHOMORE-- Upon entering the Sophomore year I couldn't find you until I located Room 11 and there you were busy dissecting the frog. I'll never forget the day that girl convinced herself hers was alive. Of course, I helped a little by making his legs wiggle. I didn't like biology, but I did get a chuckle out of Miss Banquer's eyes and the effect they had on certain people. Our first project of the year, and our biggest, was a Spaghetti Supper and Penny Sale, to which everyone contributed, and we really did a fine job and made a success of it.

Our next project was a Car Wash. We all worked hard but do not know who got wetter: the cars or ourselves! One day I looked up from my studies and there you were all marching toward the front door so I jumped down and ran after you. I thought we got dismissed early---nope!---class ring measurements. What a disappointment for me. The man was all apologies, but they just did not have one my size. The class rings finally came and so did the bills---but none for me. But now you were all ready for your big Junior year. JUNIOR--It seems the Junior year hit most of you like an annual fall hurricane and swept you below "B" level. It was all I could do to keep my nose above water. Class meetings began early in the year and preparation for the Junior Prom was well on its way. Our first project was the selling of raffle tickets which ended up to be a huge success for the prom. Our next project of the year was in April, the Juniors presented the play,
