Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Please find enclosed some information and AIDS Awareness Red Ribbons. You may find this updated and general information to be interesting for you and/or others around you, so please feel free to pass it along. Also, just wanted to remind you that as your Community AIDS Educator, I am here to provide culturally sensitive information, education and support services for all of us in the African Nova Scotian communities on HIV/AIDS. This often includes talks on sexuality, racism, and other social issues so please feel free to access the services.

The Black Outreach Project brochure is on its way to the printer so I'll be sure to send you some copies when it is finished. Also, as new information is supplied and old information redeveloped, I will continue to send it along. Please do not hesitate to call or write at the above address and/or phone number if you have any further questions.

Remember, AIDS affects us all, and we as the African Nova Scotian community must empower ourselves to deal with it!

Sincerely,

Deena Noseworthy
Community AIDS Educator
