BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE:

The Greater Boston Business Council is a non-profit organization which began in 1990 to foster and promote the gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender (GLBT) business and professional community in the greater Boston area, thereby contributing to the economic welfare of the general commonwealth of which we are a part. They helped to promote a positive image of the diversity of GLBT citizens and to strengthen the LGBTQ Business by providing opportunities and an environment for the personal, professional and social growth by networking GLBT professional organizations, both locally and nationally. The Greater Boston Business Council closed in March 2015.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE:

The collection consists mainly of their newsletters, which changed names several times during their twenty-five-year history. Along with this rich history of Boston's LGBTQ Businesses, the collection has a few programs and flyers for their various events, including their annual Award of Excellence.
