(COPYRIGHT LIST)

In trading with the natives of Alaska, British Columbia and South Sea Islands curios accumulate, not listed, no duplicates. Walls, ceiling and floor covered with relics of primitive people, fast disappearing. Pays to start a collection for your boys and girls. Fix up a den. What's your hobby? Call or write us. My son, Mr. E. V. Standley, and son-in-law, Mr. Paul P. Parker, are experienced, reliable managers in charge, who try to please and make everybody welcome to Ye Olde Curiosity Shop.

Tourists say its "Most unique store in the world."

Built upon piling where an 18-foot Tide swishes and the nose of deep sea steamers often rub our rear window sills. Established for years in the Colman Dock, alongside of the Grand Trunk Pacific Dock, the finest docks on this coast.

My Private Collection, 2253 Specimens of Alaska Curios, displayed at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, 1909, by the United States government, awarded the gold medal, was sold entire to Seattle Museum of Arts and Sciences.

My Home, "Totem Place," West Seattle, is noted for its hugh totem poles, mounds of sea shells, sunken garden, rare shrubbery and Jap tea house of bamboo.

My Best Reference is 40 years before the public, also the Seattle Clearing House.

Our Mail Orders reach all around the globe.

Museums, universities and colleges given discount.

OLD GOLD AND SILVER BOUGHT

THE KELLY PRINTING CO

Theatrical people frequent our place. They love antique jewelry. Some of our leading actresses secured their fine fur garments in Ye Olde Curiosity Shop. Correspondence solicited. We do a big mail order business. Why? Why do so many like to trade with us?

Why do so many people crowd our store every day?

Send 15 cents for photo showing 10 miles of Seattle waterfront and skyscrapers, finest docks on Pacific, a 42-story building in course of erection, most picturesque city in the world—The live wire of the Pacific.
