Dear Mr. George,

I arrived here this morning, and I am writing you this note to inform you of the change of address of my nephew's business address. You will find it marked on the ~~above~~ address envelope and the heading of this sheet. If you happen to come when I am not down here, you can have the clerk call up the home number.

I hope this will catch you before you start so that you may not be confused by the change.

Shall be glad to see you when you come -

Very truly yours -

Francis LaFlerche,
