

Lincoln, Nebr., February 9th, 1917.

Mr. Harry L. George,

St. Joseph, Mo.,

Dear sir:-

I run across the data in connection with two of the articles that I sent you recently, and knowing that you liked to have such in connection with your articles, I am quoting it to you just as it was given to me on the tags that accompanied the pieces.

(YellowClay, he took the scalp Sitting Bull War, in the Crow country, YellowClay a Winnebago Indian, living today, 89 years old)

(Snake Cap and cuffs made by Sterling Snake, a Winnebago Indian, used in the Medicine Dance)

I do not believe I sent this to you at the time I did the pieces.

Very truly yours,

Wm. Thompson
