Mr. Harry L. George,
St. Joseph, Mo.,

Dear sir:-

I have selected one of my choicest pieces which I doubt if you have a duplicate of, which is a medicine bundle consisting of eagles feet and claws, colored blue, with old otter fur streamers or pendants, small medicine bag in the center. This piece was used in the "medicine Lodge of the Winnebago and is exceedingly rare and old and I do not expect to see another one like it. I will offer you this at $10.00 in trade on your Crow spear, and make up the balance with some thing else that you can use in your collection, you to keep the medicine bundle until I can make you satisfactory trade for the balance.

Trusting that this will be satisfactory with you and that you will like the piece I am sending you, I am,

Very truly yours,

Tom Thomburg
