

BEATRICE CREAMERY COMPANY

MAKERS OF

WHOLESALE
BUTTER AND EGGSBEATRICE
CREAM SEPARATORS

LINCOLN, NEBR. April 25th, 1919.

Mr. Harry L. George,
St. Joseph, Mo.,
Dear sir:-

I note by your letter of the 24th received this A.M. that you are returning the quilt and one shield which it was my intention to have go with the lot that I sent you as a collection, in consideration of which I would take the one basket as part payment. Under the circumstances I am returning the basket to you today by express not being able to keep same under the circumstances as explained to you, and for the additional reason that my wife is of the opinion it is too frail to stand the handling that it would receive in the ordinary course of cleaning and that it would not stand up very long, unless protected by a glass covering. Personally I have not particular facination for baskets, unless of the type that would stand the ordinary handling incidental to what it would receive in a home, therefore, would not care to consider any additional baskets, it being my intention to sell the collection for cash.

Thank you for the information given me with reference to the time keeper, the fact of the matter is I was not misinformed in regard to this article, but in reading the discription of it, the party called it a time keeper which might be interpreted as a record of time or periods, while in reality he meant to convey that it

ThereIsNoSubstitute

... bought quite a bit of

I have had the article packed away for several years and did not look up my original data in sending it to you.

Hoping that you will let me have remittance soon on the collection that I have let you keep, although I have made a concession that I did not intend to in allowing you to eliminate two of the articles.

Yours truly,

Wm Thornburgh

Property of St. Joseph Museums