Dear Mrs Garrity,

Enclosed please find a letter that I am sending to Mr Kennedy.

I thought that upon reading it, you and your husband might see a different side of this busing situation. The white people in Boston are not typified by the egg-throwing, name calling racists that you see on T.V. We feel that all children deserve quality education. We would be delighted with filling empty seats in our local school with black children. What most of us fear is the criminal element in the black area. When my husband leaves for his [REDACTED] school each day, I pray that he will come home unharmmed - and that our car will remain intact.

Have sympathy for those of us who still choose to live and work in the city of Boston.

Sincerely yours
