

Dear Sir -

Since I have just finished reading the published ruling on school integration which you handed down, I would like to extend my congratulations for its excellence. The spirit which it reflects does great honor to you and to our judicial system. We can breathe a fervent prayer to God that your landmark decision will now overcome the vagaries of the politically motivated legislature. You've done a tremendous work!

Sincerely,

envelope return address:

sent to Judge Garrity in Worcester