

[REDACTED]
Dorchester Mass, 02125.
July 28, 1974.

Dear Judge Garrity,

I was born in the North End of Boston, many years ago;
and I have lived to know that my Boston and my country are no longer a Democracy,

when parents are not allowed to send their children to schools near home, or schools of their choice; it is time to leave Boston as many are doing.

When jobs are given for color, and not ability, as you propose, we are in a sad way.

When not do the right thing by your favored people?

Have homes built in Wellesley and other suburbs, and then all can feel equal?

If you could live in Roxbury or parts of Dorchester, and meet children who are afraid to go outdoors to play, for fear of being beaten; then you might feel different.

If you pass your laws, we will before long have a black Boston, not an ~~white~~ integrated one.

I believe in justice for all; but equal opportunities, according to ones abilities.

Trusting you will see that your rules are not what I feel are just, I am

Sincerely,

(Mrs.)

