CAMERON STATE SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE

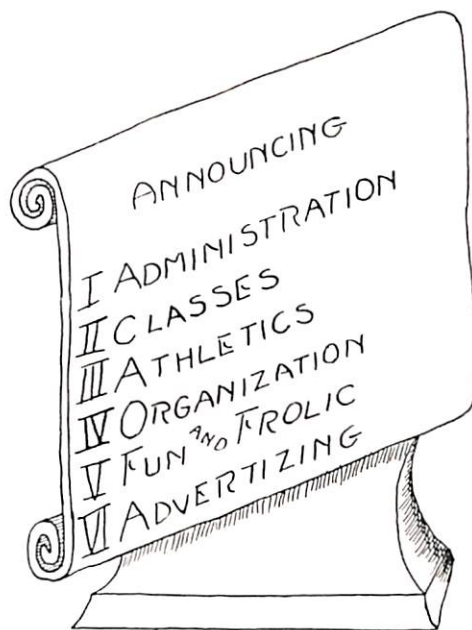

Junior College

LAWTON, OKLAHOMA

Foreword

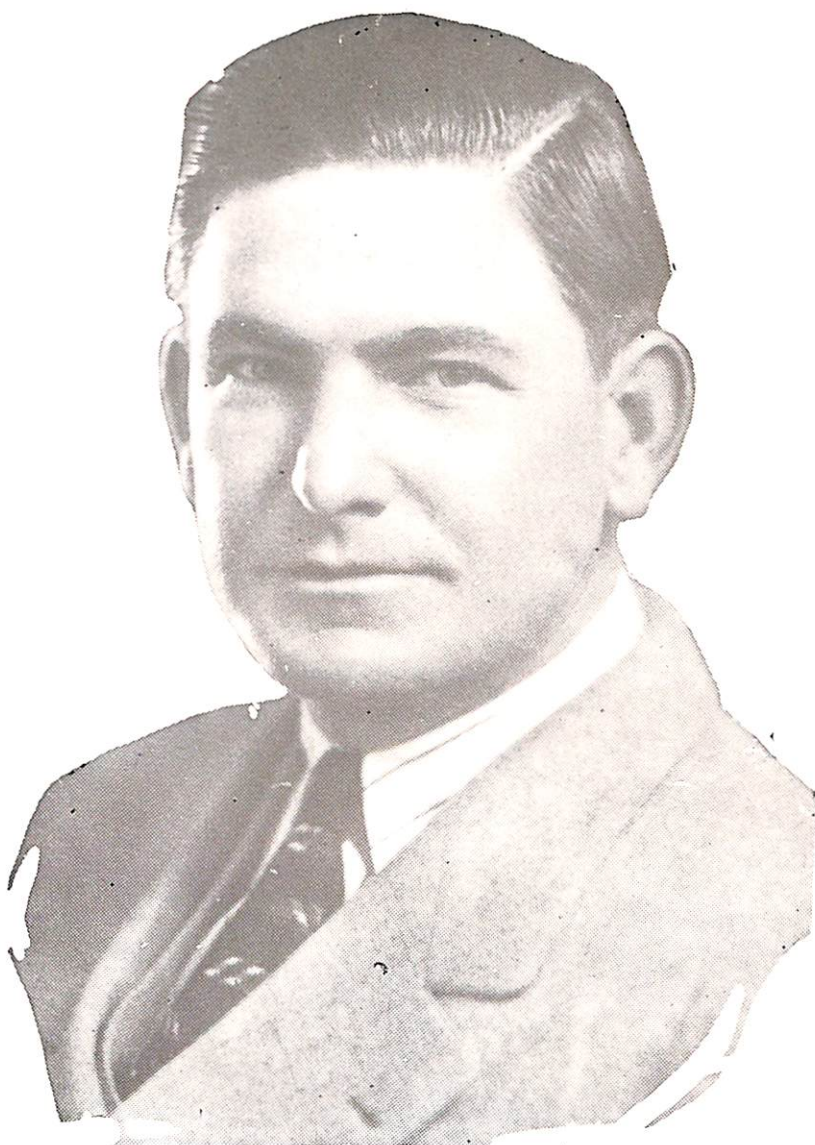

It has been the aim of the Staff to record in pictures the student life of the College with its attendant joys and sorrows.

Incidents, long forgotten, are more vividly recalled by picture than by pen.

Dedication

In appreciation of their untiring efforts in helping to make Cameron a bigger and better college we dedicate this annual to the State Representatives of Southwestern Oklahoma—Honorable Dave Boyer of Walters; Lieutenant-Governor C. E. Storms of Waurika; Honorable S. G. Thomas of Cordell; Honorable Jim Nance of Walters, Speaker of the House of Representatives; Honorable Owen Black of Lawton; and Honorable Ed Hines of Sentinel.

The High School

Cameron State School of Agriculture has always drawn a great number of high school boys and girls from the surrounding country. Impressed by the unusual advantages offered to rural boys and girls, the patrons of the school have always been its staunchest supporters. The high school department during the whole of the year boasted an enrollment of over two hundred and forty-five students, many of whose pictures are not to be found in the Annual.

The names of the greater number of those who were enrolled but for some reason did not get their pictures in the yearbook are recorded below:

LEE, BILL, BENNY, LOUIE, HOSS

The Cameron Aggies started the season with a two weeks' session of summer training in the Wichita Mountains during late August. At the opening of the official season the boys were all in good shape and fell into the early work with a hearty cooperation that was pleasing to Coach Bill Huff.

The first game, a non-conference one, was with the Southwestern Bulldogs at Weatherford. The Aggies held the Bulldogs to a 9-0 score, showing little difference between the Junior College and the Senior College teams.

The strong Oklahoma City University eleven were the next opponents for the fighting Aggies. The score up to the fourth quarter was 12-6 in favor of the Goldbugs, the Aggies scoring on a long pass to Ward who ran about twenty yards for the counter. In this stage of the game the Aggies' first string men were nearly all taken out on account of injuries. Due to the limited supply of men, the remainder of the game was all in favor of the Goldbugs. Hi Wolf, gigantic right guard, Toby Waggoner, tackle, Vern Page, midget All-State center, and Frank Ward, the galloping ghost, showed in this game the stuff that, later in the conference games, made them feared by all Aggie opponents.

The first Conference game was with the Oklahoma Military Academy Cadets of Claremore, who were champions in 1928. The game was played on the home gridiron and was viewed by the largest crowd of the year, being the occasion of the Annual College homecoming. The Aggies steamrolled their traditional foes to the score of 18-0.

Randolph College Lobos of Cisco, Texas were next on the Aggie schedule. The extreme heat of the southern climate proved to be a great handicap, and the Texans won, 26-13.

At Goodwell, Cameron faced the Panhandle Aggies, another four-year college. The Cameron Aggies were the first to score on a long pass to Sargent, elusive right half-back who twisted and wiggled over the line. The goal was kicked and Cameron led, 7-0. The Panhandle Aggies came back strong in the last period of the game and made a touchdown but failed to kick goal. As a last resort Panhandle Aggies tried a place kick from the 25-yard line, which was good. The score was 9-7 in favor of the Panhandlers.

DOC, SONNY, BOOTS, TOBY, JERRY.

Perhaps the next game was the real game of the year played at Tonkawa with the strong University Preparatory School on October 26. The Preps were the first to score, and their point after touchdown was good. The Aggies then worked the ball down the field in successive first downs for a touchdown. The point was missed and the game ended with no more scoring. Cameron had lost her first conference game, 7-6. More yardage and first downs were made by Cameron, but the breaks were all in favor of the Preps.

The next game was played at home with the Mustangs of Cordell Christian College. The Aggies had little difficulty in winning by a score of 21-13. This game was featured by the accurate and snappy passing of Benny Ballard who made All-State end in '28.

The Aggies played their next conference game at Wilburton with the Mountaineers of Eastern Junior College. The Mountaineers picked up a 20-6 victory by stopping the faster Aggies who were slowed down by the mud.

HI, SULLY, PIP, POP, FRANK.

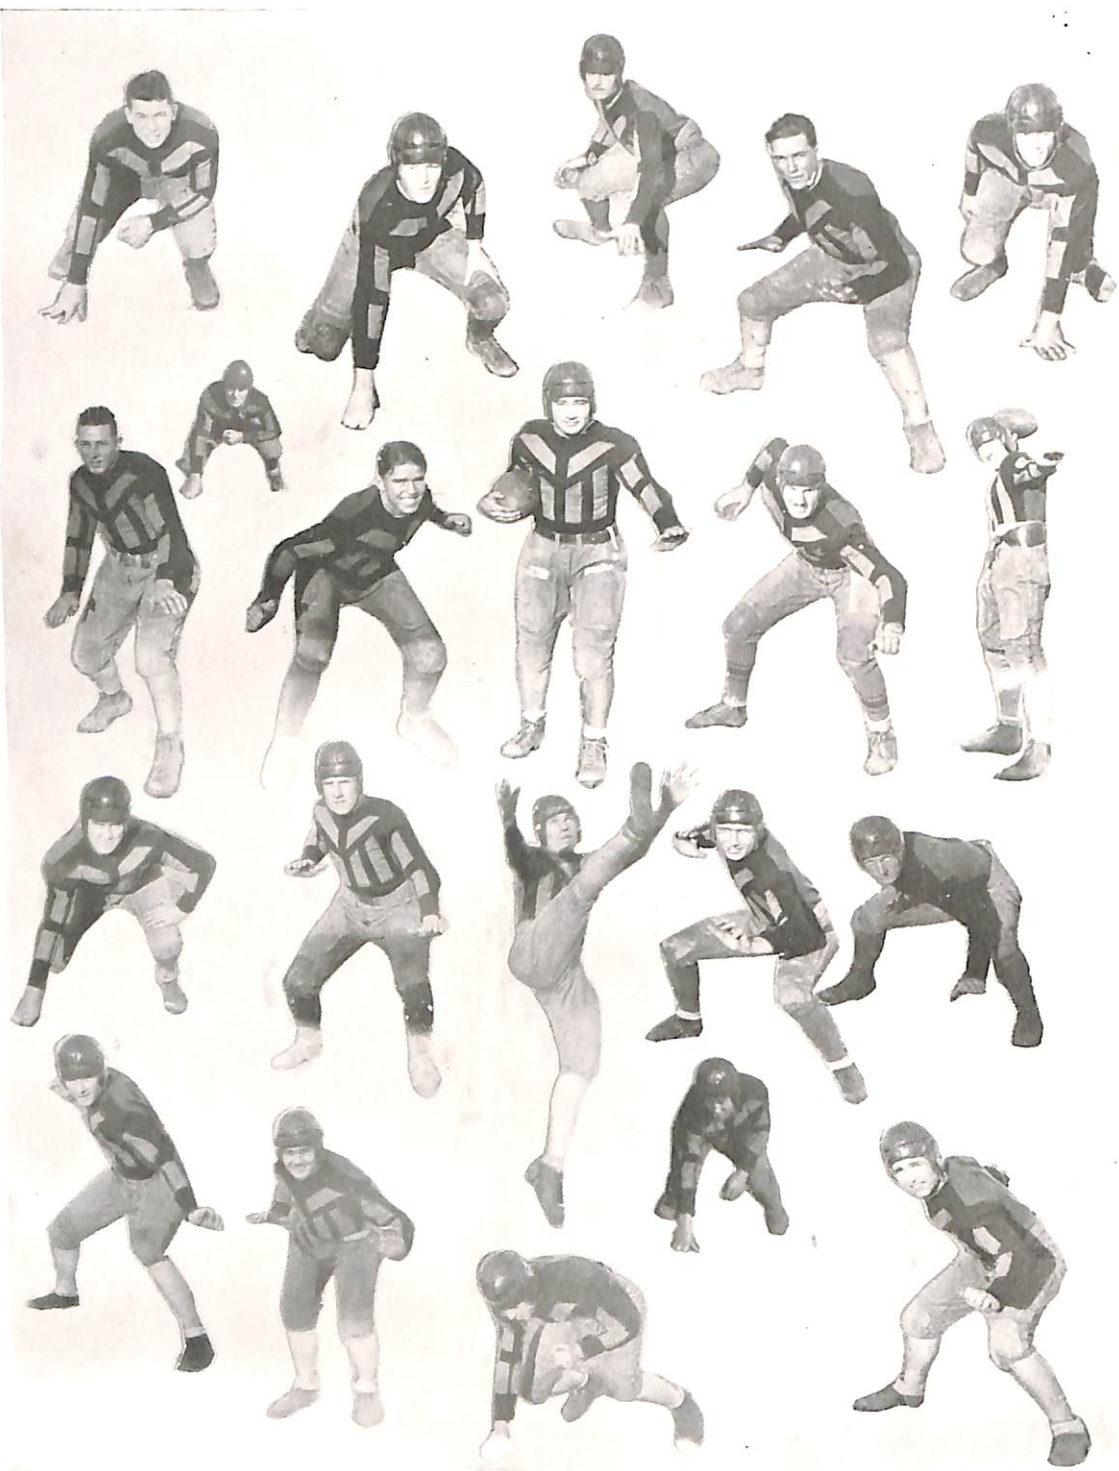

The next conference game was with the Murray Aggies, the real dark horses of the conference. This game was full of thrills and real football. The Cameron Aggies were 6 points behind when only one minute remained of the game. Hoss Julian, small but mighty quarterback tossed a pass to Ward who galloped over the goal and then kicked the placement, nosing out the Murray boys by the close score of 19-18. In this game Ward also ran about 95 yards for a touchdown on the kick-off on a criss-cross play cleverly handled by Ballard, who received the ball and slipped it back to Ward. Nearly every Cameron player got a man and Ward outran and dodged his remaining opponents by a very clever exhibition of broken field running.

The Chilocco Indians of Chilocco, a powerful team, late in starting, turned back the invading Aggies by a score of 26-6 in a hard fought game upon a fast field.

In the Conference standing the Cameron Aggies stood 500 percent by winning three games and losing the same number. Cameron player, who made the all-state team, was Vern Page, first team center.

Basketball Squad

Cameron's Six Foot basketball team had a successful season with 16 victories and 3 defeats, totaling 988 points against their opponents' 240.

Coach Reynolds' men stood highest in the Oklahoma Junior College Conference, with three victories and one defeat at the tournament at Tonkawa, with the nearest competitors holding two victories and one defeat.

Back Row—Rathjens, guard; Mutziger, forward; Conaway, guard; Hertzler, center; Parrack, Captain, forward; Reynolds, coach.

Girls' Basketball Squad

The Cameron girls' basketball team of 1929, coached by Mr. W. K. Huff, played only a few conference games, due to a scarcity of opponents. Twelve girls lettered on the team, and nearly all the players will be back next year. There was plenty of pep and enthusiasm displayed by the girls all during the season, and this alone should carry over to make a winning team next year with a complete schedule of Junior College Conference games.

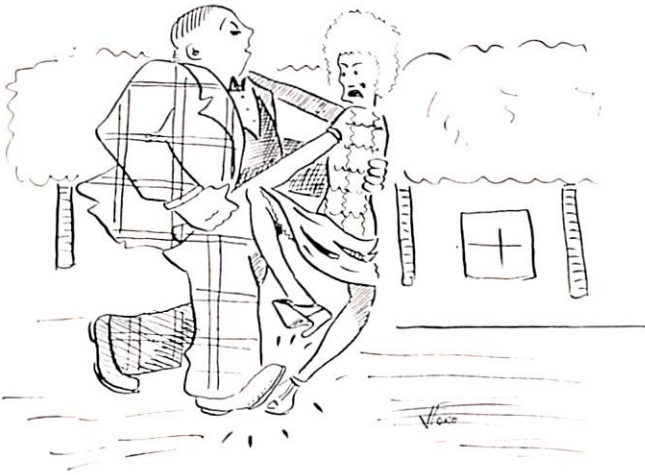

Back Row—Wm. Huff, coach; Camilla Watson, guard; Juanita Clark, forward; Juna Hess, forward; Oakle Best, forward; Elsie Bay, guard.

Center—Zula Lomax, forward; Mamie Buchanan, guard.

Not in picture—Irene Dempster, forward, center.

Other Sports

Baseball Prospects

The Cameron baseball team matched games with the Ft. Sill army teams, Panhandle Agriculture College, and Southwestern Bulldogs, as well as a few good independent teams.

The nine met with initial success under the direction of Coach Bill Clyburn.

Third Row—Bell, Poteet, Hanson, Ball, Melka, Blair and George Coffey, mascot.

On the Mark

Cameron will be well represented upon the track at the annual state Junior Collegiate Track meet by these dash and distance men.

Ballard, first man on the left, and an all-round athlete, is from Helena, Oklahoma, his specialty being the high and low hurdles. Pearson, diminutive sprinter with a good high record, claims Ft. Gibson for his home. Conaway of Cooper, is a hurdler, and placed last year in the Junior Collegiate meet.

Bill Maddox, a high school junior of Fort Gibson, shows excellent speed as a middle distance man.

Williams of Walters makes good time on the half-mile, and so far is the only man interested in the relay.

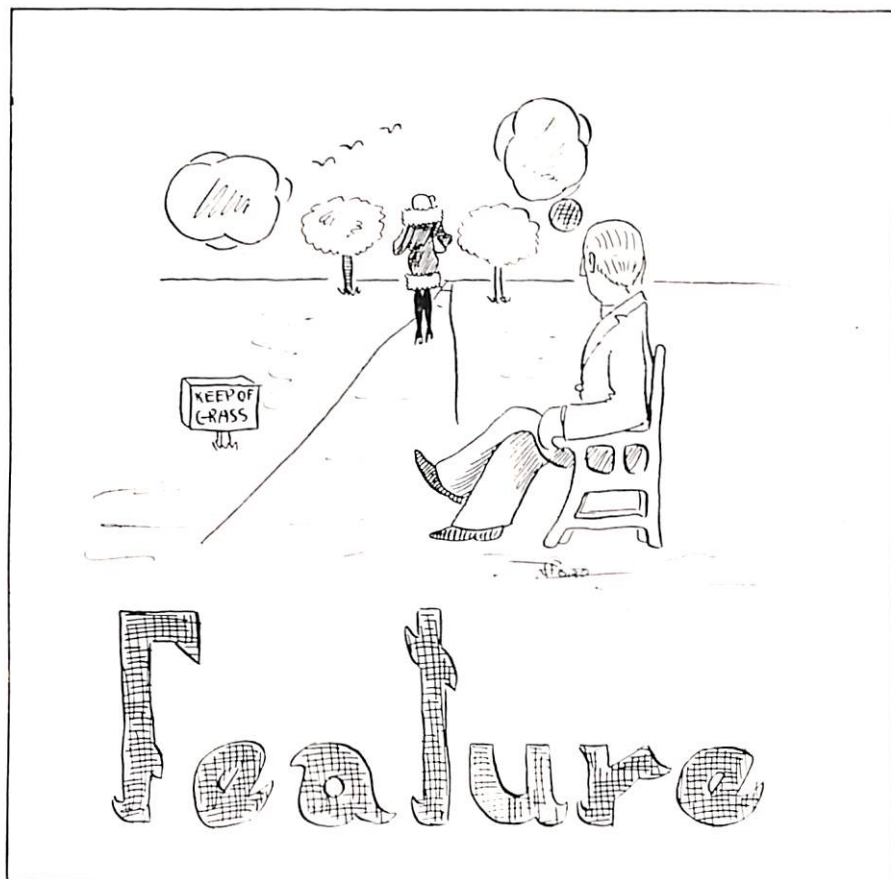

Banks, young heavyweight from Cache, is running the mile.

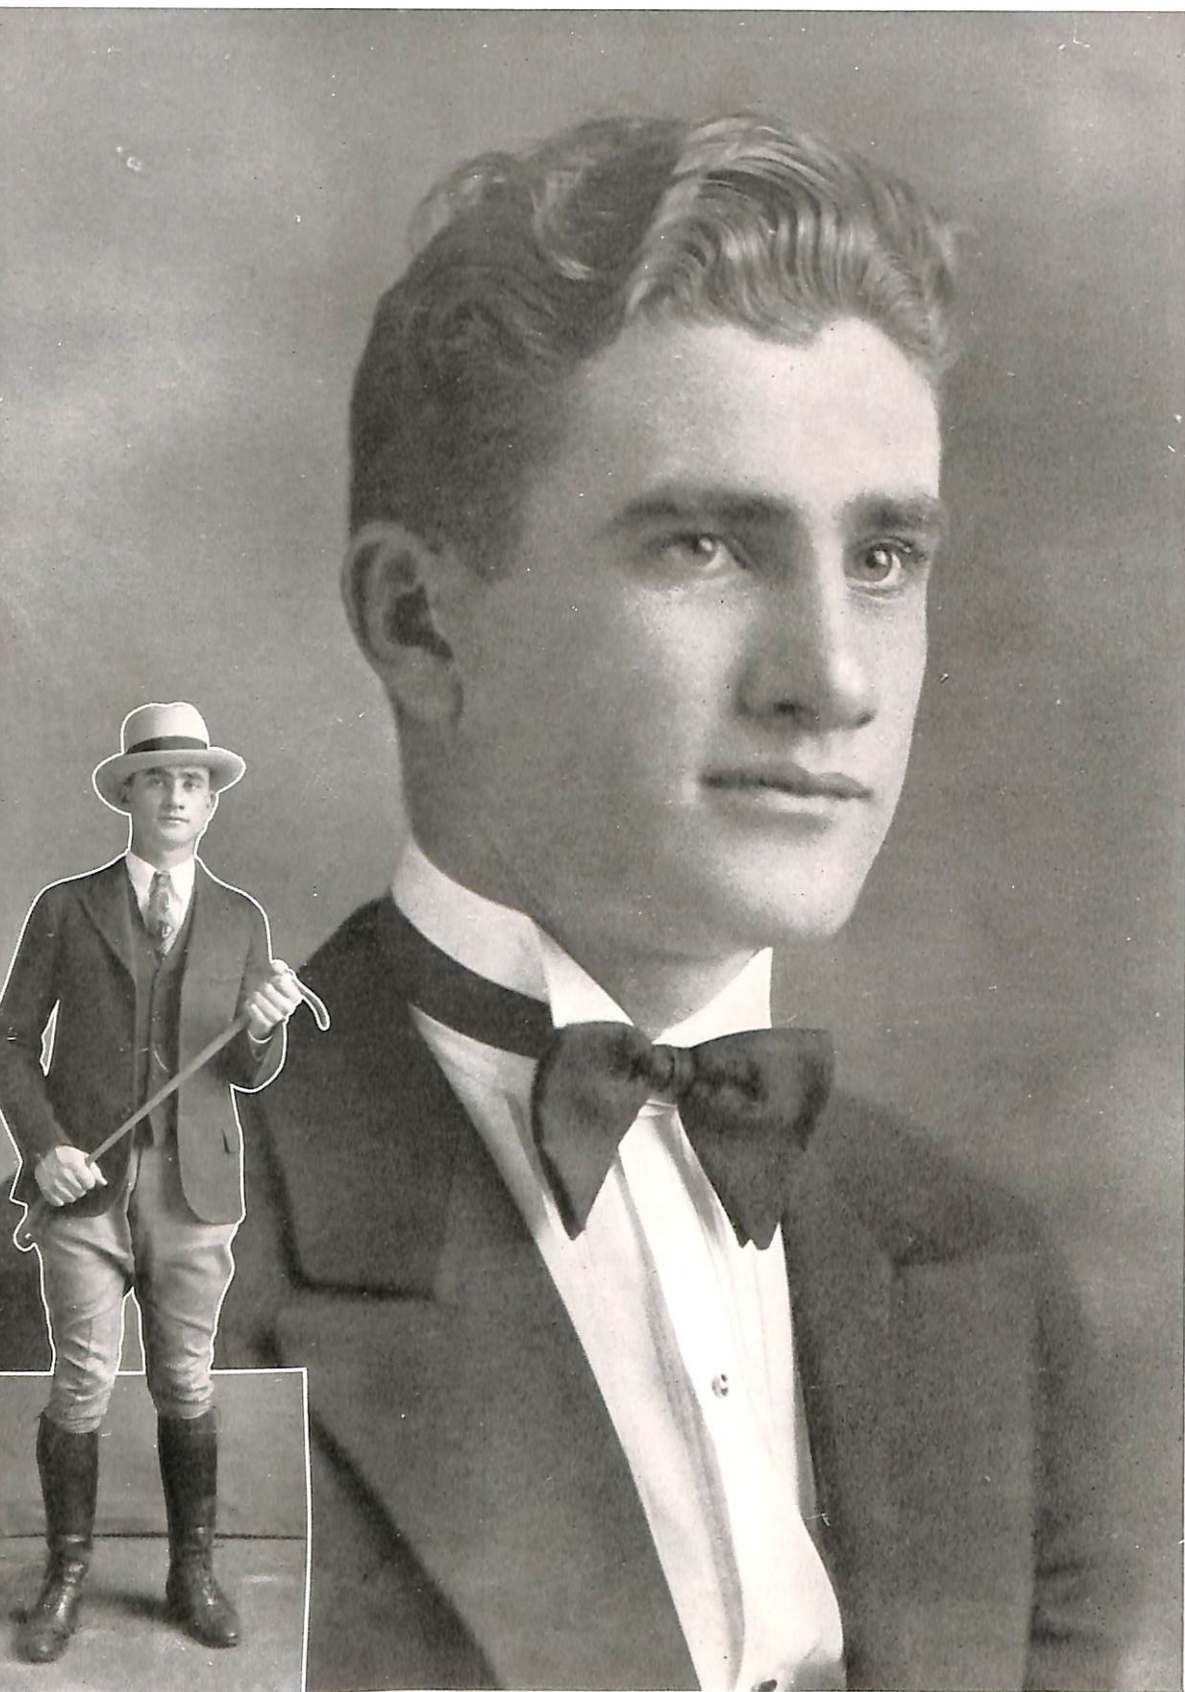

Track Prospects

Track prospects are bright for Cameron on the track and field for the Oklahoma Junior Collegiate Track meet at Stillwater late in the spring. The Cameron boys hope to make "bad medicine" for the strong Bacone and Chilocco Indians, the champions of last year's meet. This is the first year the school will be fully represented at the track and field meet.

Organizations

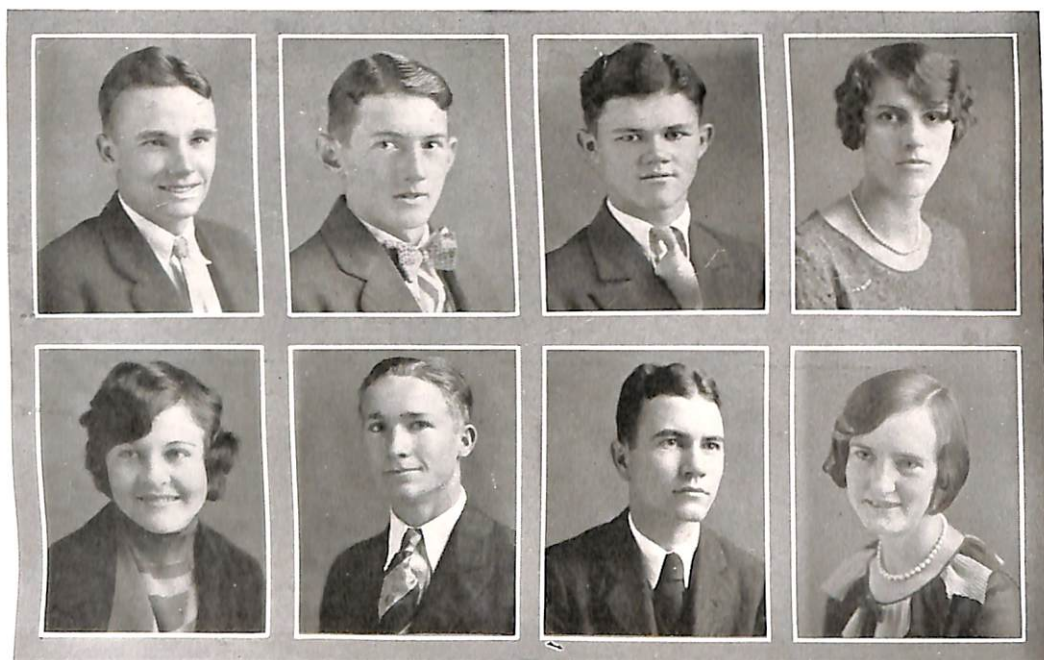

Collegian Staff

The Cameron Collegian is a bi-monthly newspaper published by the students of Cameron College. The Staff at the first of the year was made up chiefly of Journalism students, but during the second semester only those who showed themselves to be enterprising remained. The Cameron Collegian has always been a lively, progressive newspaper.

Wichita Staff

The Wichita of nineteen hundred twenty-nine records the fifteenth year of Cameron's activities.

The spirit of progress has emanated from every Wichita published as well as from the college in which it found its birth, so that each volume is an improvement over the last.

The Staff of nineteen twenty-nine consists of upper classmen, both elective and appointive.

GAROLD CONAWAY, Editor

Wright Hankins, Assistant Editor; Clarence Hodgson, Business Manager; Murray Gilbert, Sport Editor; Bob Beal, Assistant Business Manager; John Ford and Leonard Otipoby, Art Editors; Professor Andrew Jackson, Advisor; Helen Conaway, Organizations.

Student Senate

BENNY BALLARD, President.

The Student Senate, student governing body, was organized in nineteen hundred twenty-seven for the purpose of furthering student responsibility in the college.

A Senator is elected from each class at the spring elections, with two additional representatives selected at large.

The organization in its first year of growth impressed the fly-by-night organizations by demanding charters from all campus organizations.

The Senators have established the precedent of presenting an annual play. The standard Senate pin is an open book with a quill guard.

Forensic Club

The Forensic Society, under the leadership of Dean King, a Phi Kappa Delta debater and orator, holds an active place in the spring activities at Cameron.

The local society is affiliated with the Oklahoma Junior College Forensic Association and also the National Association. At the state contest Howard Ritchie won first place in extempore speaking; Evelyn Dawson took first honors in humorous reading, while Wright Hankins scored a triumph with his original oration.

The debate teams, matching encounters with most of the Oklahoma Junior Colleges, were popularly acclaimed the strongest in the state.

WRIGHT HANKINS, President

The "O" Club

The Varsity lettermen club was changed this year to an "O", with the second team boys wearing the "C".

Any man lettering in football, basketball, track, baseball or tennis is eligible for membership.

Among other reforms, the "O" Club successfully instituted the "No High School Letter" ruling on the campus.

Second Row—Metz, Barrett, Mayes, Huff, Rhoades, Ward, Melka.

Hell Hounds

Yell Leaders—Bob Beal and Alvin Middleton.

Second Row—Ellis, Maddox, Lowe, Smart, McAlister, Hodgson, Bell, Pruitt, Martin.

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club has long been an active organization at Cameron College. Young women of ability receive excellent training in Miss Robertson's classes and demonstrate that ability in chapel programs, Parent-Teachers' meeting and at business luncheons in Lawton.

The Glee Club was largely responsible for the production of the college operetta.

Robertson, director; Loveall, accompanist.

Orchestra

The College Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Nelson, was organized during the second semester. The orchestra consisted of sixteen members, selected from the advanced music classes.

The orchestra entertained at several chapel programs during the year as well as for civic programs in Lawton.

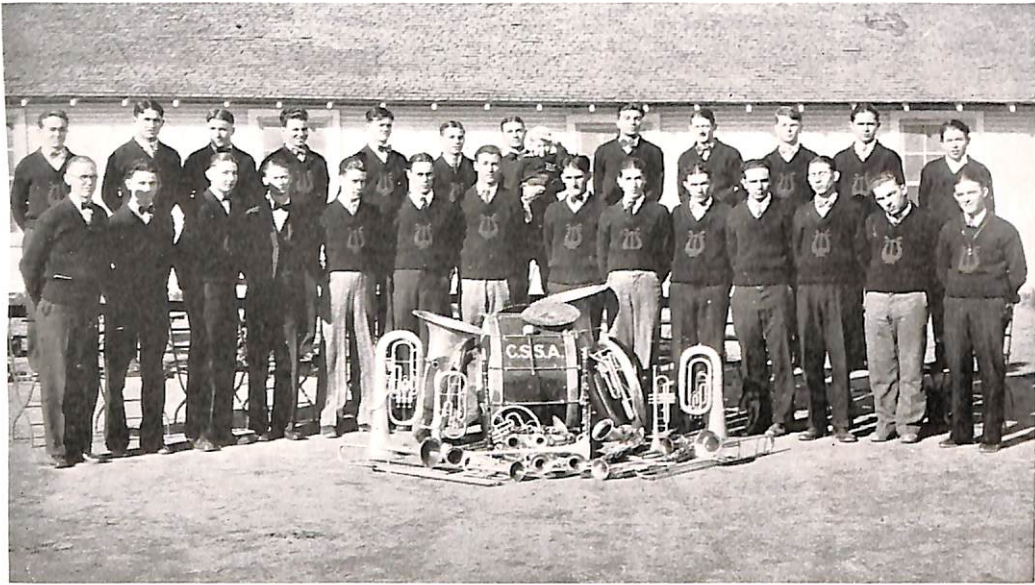

Harrison, trombone; Way, alto; Wilson, Herr, saxophone; Watkins, O. Zorger, Hazlett, violin; Fullingim, piano; Nelson, director; T. Hays, flute; Lewis, clarinet; Banks, clarinet; M. Metz, cornet; R. Metz, bass; McAlister, drums; Preston, alto.

Band

The Cameron band has almost become an institution. The college has long been popular in Southwestern Oklahoma because of its band.

Back in the old days the band boys received invitations that were the envy of the athletic teams, nor has time lessened their popularity.

The boys elicit as much enthusiasm for community programs and dedications as they do for the Varsity football games.

"C" Club

The letter "C" is awarded to all men who earn a letter on any second team of the school.

These boys had a full season's schedule with the Ft. Sill army teams and high schools, in addition to backing up the first team in many of their games.

The boys had a successful season and established the first active second team the school has ever had.

Top Row—Pearson, Brewer, Mansker, Van Lew, Williams, Grey, Dolan, Rhoades.
Second Row—Hill, Buckwald, Goodin (Coach), Ward, Ford, Fullerton.

1929 Football Lettermen

These are the men who fought, pulled and pushed their way to victory or defeat like the true blue fellows they are. The Cameron Aggies of 1929 met some of the strongest grid machines in the states of Oklahoma and Texas, and more than held their own.

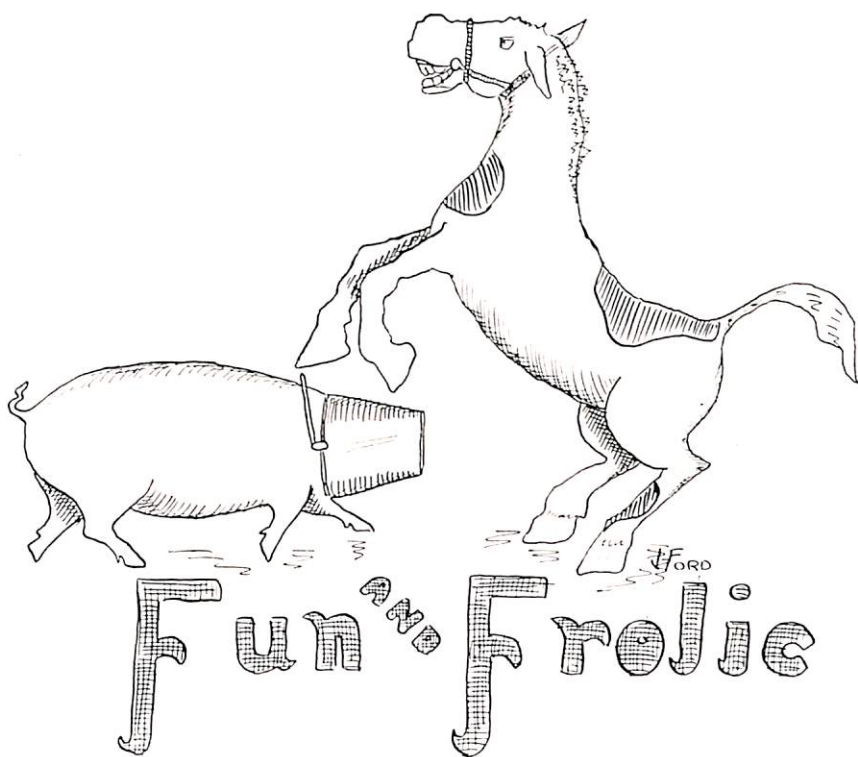

The team averaged about one hundred and seventy-five pounds, and several backfield men were in the ten-second class as speed merchants.

To Our Customers:

The Economy Company was created for the purpose of producing better school annuals at less cost to the schools. It put the ideal of mutual cooperation into business, and increasing success during the past year has proved the soundness of the ideal as a practical business proposition. The Company is great in size and yearly it will grow larger, but it realizes that service to its customers is the measure of its success and the reason for its existence and growth. As it grows, it holds firmly to the high principles of pure mutuality and equity upon which its success has been built, and faces the future with a determination to broaden its service to individual customers and through them to their communities and to the Nation.
