THE FARM

The Cameron School farm consists of one hnudred fifty acres of land; eighty acres of bottom land and seventy acres of upland.

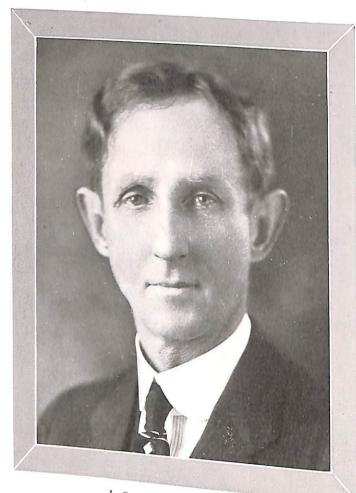

It is improved with a large combined horse and cow barn, a machinery shed, hay shed, fences, and a ten acre orchard.

The purposes of this farm are: To supply a practical experiment laboratory for the agricultural subjects; to supply dairy and farm products for the boarding club, and to supply labor for some of the students in school.

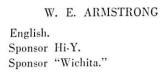

The live stock on the farm, which have not been over productive in the recent past, have very bright prospects for the following year, due to the fact that some of the younger stock will have reached the age of early productive maturity.

Mr. Sawyer, the Farm Manager, under the guidance of Mr. Ves Godley, is to be commended on the excellent condition in which he has kept the farm.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

It seems a long, long time ago that we entered this High School, for the boys wore knee trousers and the girls were in short dresses. It was a bright September morning, when we, with hands and faces lately washed and hair arranged in the latest fashions, came to the door of this great institution of learning. After being scrutinized by diverse teachers and examiners, we were entered as freshmen and started on the road for the Land of Great Wisdom.

We had entered a new world and found our surroundings very interesting. After wandering around from room to room for some days trying to learn what studies we were supposed to pursue, we settled down to business, some well satisfied and others feeling sorry they had ever left the eighth grade and plunged out into the depths of high school life.

The first thing that seemed strange was having a different teacher for each subject and going from room to room for recitations. At first each teacher seemed uglier than each of the others and tried to see how hard they could make life for the unsophisticated freshmen. After a time we learned it was not meanness on their part but what they called discipline. We would have liked it better if they could have cut out that part of the curriculum but we were told it was a necessary requirment in every high school course.

After we got acquainted with the teachers and became accustomed to their peculiar manners, we loved them all and our affection has not examination papers when we thought we should have received ninety-five, we have never wavered in our admiration of them one and all.

Soon a strange malady seemed to seize our members and caused them to act strange and different. After an investigation of all the peculiar symptoms was made by the wise men, they pronounced the complaint in the boys "football" and in the girls "basket ball." We were assured that run its course; and that it was necessary and must be allowed to attacked died of it some were badly wounded.

At the end of our first year the question of going on to graduation came up in the minds of many. Most of us were strong of heart and said "We will earry the banner to the end of the course unless our teachers pluck us by the way. But some said, "I must go out and earn a living, thereby I cannot graduate," and so for various reasons our class was much smaller when the second year of high school began.

As Sophomores we entered with a different air. There came into our midst a great number of Freshmen whose greenness could never be described. We remembered the days of our own green actions and the savage reception given us by the Sophomores, so to ease their troubled spirits we assailed the newcomers even as we had been assailed.

When we were Sophomores we won many triumphs but we were eager to become Seniors and as we bade goodbye to each Senior class we realized we were one step nearer the goal of our ambition. As we entered the Junior class we sang "one day nearer," how the world seemed to expand and our greatness enlarged in our own estimation. We only glanced at the poor greatness enlarged into the building and only nodded to the Sophs. Freshmen as they sneaked into the building and only nodded to the Sophs. It would take a volume to write the history of the Junior year. We entered every field of intellectual endeavor and won honors beyond all calculation.

Never did the king on coronation day swell with such joy and pride as did we as we entered High School as Seniors We looked neither to the right nor to the left as we walked with dignified steps and took our places for the last lap of the journey that would place us, "out of school life and into lifes school." We now had a feeling of personal responsibility and a desire to make the most of every moment. Our boys took part in football while others entered basketball, and the other various organizations of the school.

As the years went by our members kept decreasing until the final list of those who are to receive the honors of graduation is only twenty-seven. If you will allow me to slightly change the wording of the Good Book, I will say: Verily I say unto you, that broad is the gate and wide is the way that leadth to the High School, and many there are who go in thereat; but straight is the way and narrow is the gate that leadth to graduation, and few there are that passeth.

For four years we have eaten of fruit of the tree of Knowledge and are about to go out into the world and take our places in the ranks of those who are doing the useful things in the world. Let us not be discouraged for in due reason we will reap our reward.—E. I. C.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the afternoon of an autumn day in the year of nineteen hundred and forty, I was walking down the principal street of a prosperous city of northern Oklahoma when I happened to glance up and see a sign, which read:

LEWIS J. FAULKNER, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Lewis had been one of the boys who had graduated from Cameron in the Class of '26. I was delighted to learn that he was one of the promising lawyers of Oklahoma.

I went up to his office and found him busy, yet not too busy to give me a cordial greeting.

After our greeting we sat down facing each other and I had a chance to closely observe Lewis. He still retained many of his youthful characteristics, yet I could see that deep thought and hard mental training had thoroughly matured him and made him appear elderly in some actions.

To open our conversation I asked him this simple question:

"Lewis, how are you getting along now?"

"William" he replied thoughtfully, "If my neighbors had asked me that question I should have told something concerning my family, or to a doctor something of my health, but your question is altogether different. I understand that by your question you wish to know my condition as compared with those classmates with whom we graduated fourteen years ago. The best answer I could give you would be to compare them with each other and see what each is doing.

Clarence Humphrey now owns one of the largest livestock farms in Oklahoma, located near Tatum. His prize winning Shorthorns are known throughout the country.

Evelyn Caldwell is one of the foremost of American writers. Her latest work is "The Art of Pretending to be in Love."

Cliff Merck is the foreman of Clarence Humphrey's farm. His ability to play a banjo and tell barnyard stories have proved invaluable to him in his occupation.

Joe Langston is our State Game Warden. He can hunt without a license now.

Norman Miller is now a poultry man of marked success. He always had a liking for chickens.

Evelyn Hankins has entered politics. She takes the radical side of all questions.

Leonard Corwin, our candy merchant, has moved his business to Oklahoma City where he can make more money at it and can live at peace.

Evelyn Gattis is an actress. She no longer wastes her talent on such people as us.

Jack Weldon has made a Justice of Peace. He is the Justice of Peace of Geronimo, Oklahoma.

The Galen of our class is Mary White. She is one of the most prominent doctors in Duncan.

Orval Miller is inventor of a rubber handle for pipe wrenches, which makes them easier to handle. Practical experience gave him the brilliant idea.

Joe Fullerton has become a detective. You remember he did quite a bit of tom-catin' around while he was still at Cameron.

Billie Richards is now a trained nurse and is said to be very successful. She makes a specialty of earing for young men who have sweetheart troubles.

thirty-five

thirty-four

Frank Melka is the athletic coach at Cameron. His football boys are expected to be the champions of their conference this year.

H. D. Stephens is running a combined dairy and hay farm. He says milk and hay are mighty and very handy in feeding hogs.

Viola Livingston has become a noted artist. You'll remember that she did quite a bit of painting while at Cameron.

Roy Brooks has become famous as a school man and a reformer. He is now the principal of Chattanooga High School.

Nora Murphy is coaching the girls football team back in her home town. As usual, she seems perfectly satisfied with her occupation.

Early Neal is a lieutenant in the United States Air Service.

Albert Topetchy has become an oil contractor. He says it sure is a slick business.

Beulah Shanks is a noted scientist. She received her inspiration by quietly lisening to Mr. McCullough's lectures.

Josephine Watson is now a stenographer for the Jewel Music Company. She used to write to Dick, now she writes for him.

Ray Wilkerson is now a blacksmith and philosopher. His favorite pastime is telling the boys of the neighborhood about the wonderful times

Ethel Gelvin now owns an Overland transportation company which operates in and around Lawton.

And they tell me that you are still just a farmer, William.

"Yes" I admitted gravely.

"Well, as for myself I'll have to admit that I'm not the governor nor a senator, but I have my future before me and I hope to make it pay, Lewis."

—Wm. C. N. '26.

THE CLASS WILL

As graduation was drawing nigh the Class of '26 began to realize that they must soon depart. We realized that there were some valuable possessions in the class that were necessary for the existence of Cameron. A council was called by the president of the class and, after many suggestions and decisions, it was finally decided that for the betterment of Cameron these earthly treasures would be left to the under classmen and teachers that have guided us aright.

To you, dear Juniors we leave the title, Seniors. We bestow upon you our place as leaders, and the honor of occupying the Seniors seats on the north side of the auditorium. We hope that you will uphold and use these to the best of your ability.

Sophomores, as we gaze upon you, we find you wanting for high grades, so to you we bequeath the art of getting by. We leave this to you as a sister class. Now please do not slight it, but use it to a good advantage.

To the class that is always ignored and laughed at, and in remembrance of our first year in high school, we present to the freshmen our dignity.

Preps, we sympathize with you and to you we will several valuable requirments of a successful student. They are: Never study unless you have to; always make as much noise in the dormitories as you can.

To the many teachers who have guided us aright, we will our appreciation, and hope and trust that life will be easier for you after we are gone.

Basil Wilkerson, to you Clarence Humphrey wills his presidency of the Senior Class, Captain of the football team, and the title "Onyx."

Josephine Watson wills her place on all committees, her place as secretary and her speech making talent to anyone that happens to be so unfortunate to get them.

Alma Sutton presents her quiet, demure, and modest ways to Frances Watson.

thirty-seven

thirty-six

Billie Richards leaves all her old love letters, old powder boxes, paint, lipstick, and half a jar of brilliantine to Theresa Siebold.

Joe Fullerton wills his musical and athletic abilities to Herman Higgerson.

Albert Topetchy willingly wills his athletic ability and his quiet ways to Charlie Rowell.

Ethel Gelvin wills her quiet ways, and her Overland Roadster that has hauled many a person to Lawton, to Frances Carpenter.

To Lawrence Fansler, Norman Miller wills his popularity among the

- I, Orval Miller, commonly known as "Blackie," will my position as a Jack of all Trades and being a real worker when it comes to doing the
- I, Evelyn Caldwell reluctantly leave my highly worshipped seat in Chemistry, and my position as writing the class will, to Lois Spencer.

I bequeath my miniature size, my athletic ability, and my name, Pee Wee, to Dorothy Abel. I hope that when you leave Cameron you will leave Jack Weldon wills his quiet disposition, his rosy cheeks, and Saxophone to Clarence Hambay.

To you Irene Powers, I am about to give my ability as a classical dancer, and all my love affairs, Evelyn Gattis.

Leonard Corwin wills to Roy Havens his interest in the Junior Class, and all the pleasure he has had during social hour at C. Y. P. U.

To Millard Hankins, Joe Langston wills all the high grades he made while at Cameron, and his arguing in History Class.

Cliff Merck wills his old football suit, his musical making banjo, and his honor of never leaving the domitory without permission, to Wilmer Boody.

I bequeath to Frank Ward all my stacomb, and wild times I have had while at Cameron, Ray Wilkerson.

I, Beulah Shanks, will my beautiful long black hair, and sweet and winning ways to Lela Herndon.

I will to Clifton Brawley my ability for plucking stores and flirting with the girls, William Nichols.

Lewis Faulkner wills his job as dishwasher, and ability to get along with Mrs. Mayes in the kitchen to Dennis Lynch.

Roy Brooks wills his position as leader and his tendency to take the the negative side of things to Herbert Mansker.

To Floyd Campbell, Frank Melka leaves his athletic accomplishments, and his jelly-bean clothes, and his cute little grin.

I bequeath to you, Ruth Richardson my eyebrow pencils, lipstick, rouge and my honor of making high grades, Viola Livingston.

Nora Murphy wills her sweet disposition, her ability to be modest and retiring at all times to anyone that is badly in need of them.

I, Evelyn Hankins, will my good looks and intelligence to Alice Fullerton. May you receive them with an open heart, and use them to as good advantage as I have throughout my school days.

Early Neal leaves to Elbridge Tucker his position as Editor-in-chief of the Wichita, and all of his letters he received from Texas.

H. D. Stephens wills his curls and Hay to Clay Johnson, along with the motto: "Make Hay while the sun shines."

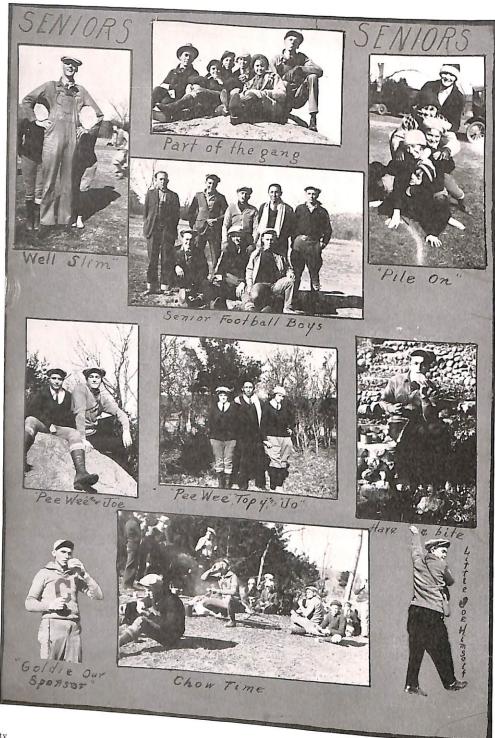

We, the Seniors of nineteen hundred and twenty-six do hereby proclaim this our last will and testament. We hope that it will be carried out to the minutest detail, and we do here appoint our president, Mr. March as sole executor of this last will and testament.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

On September 8, 1924, we, the Class of '28, first enrolled at the Cameron State School of Agriculture, as freshmen.

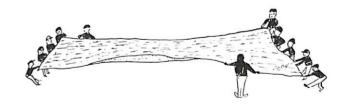

Just as the classes that have gone before us withstood the jeers and tricks, we also bore up bravely under their attack.

At the beginning of the next fall term we again returned to Cameron but this time as Sophomores. Some of our number had fallen by the wayside and some new ones added making our number enrolled thirty-six. Our Class was well represented in all phases of school activities.

During these years each member of the Class has strived to uphold the Class Motto, "Be Square" and thus far they have all succeeded.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

We, the Class of '29 assembled in the adultorium on September the eighth, one of the largest classes that had ever enrolled at Cameron.

Our Class was soon organized and Mr. March was elected as our Sponsor. Naturally we were the source of all jokes, but these we took good naturedly and had soon proved our worth by entering all school activities.

We hope to work and be one of the best and largest Senior Classes when we graduate in 1929.

PREP HISTORY

The preparatory department of Cameron is composed of students in the seventh and eighth grades. We have an enrollment of forty-six this year.

Even if we are not in High School, our class is as well organized as any of the classes here. Our first class meeting was held in September, when we elected our officers.

In the Queen contest we showed our spirit by putting up a brave fight, but were forced out at the preliminaries. We also take part in all other school activities.

We feel that we are capable of undertaking most any task that we may meet through life. When we are seniors we hope to be one of the best senior classes that Cameron has ever had.

DOMESTIC ART

Cameron gives a thorough course in Domestic Art, which is needed very much by the girls of this age. This course has become so necessary that all high schools have provided some way of teaching the girls clothing construction.

A young woman's desire is to dress in well fitting, becoming garments, and yet the truth is that the cost of designing, cutting, fitting, and making a dress is often greater than the cost of the material. Thus in teaching the girls to make and design their own dresses, you are teaching them how to be economical.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE

"Good things to eat? Well I should say." The best food's cooked the best way.

This depratment is under the supervision of Miss Thelma Crain, a graduate of A. and M. College. Luncheons, dinners and breakfasts are prepared and served by various students. These students have served the members of the faculty at several luncheons.

Since this is an agricultural school, the girls usually choose to major in this subject. Therefore, three years of Home Economics is offered for them.

THE POULTRY SHOW

On December 4, 1926, the Cameron Poultry Judging team represented Comanche County at the annual State Poultry Judging Contest, which was held at McAlester, Oklahoma.

The team succeeded in winning some of the prizes, as the team placed tenth in the contest of 40 teams. William Moon placed ninth in the contest over 200 individuals.

The boys and their coach, Mr. Ves Godley, all reported an enjoyable time, as well as deriving a great deal of educational benefit.

CAMERON BAND

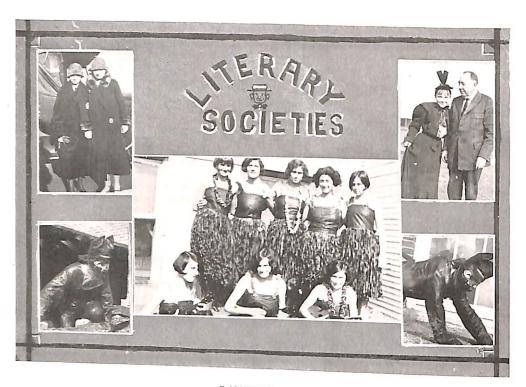

The Cameron band has proved itself to be one of the best organizations on the campus. Every one will agree that it boosts the school more than any other organization.

The band has been continually growing since it's beginning in 1922, when it had only twenty-two members. The present number enrolled is seventy-four. This has been possible only through the untiring efforts of Hugh D. Corwin.

For three years, the band has played for the Comanche County Fair, besides giving concerts throughout the county and state.

Among the many concert trips this year, was the one to Burk Burnett, Texas. This was a very nice trip and was enjoyed by the boys.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

The literary societies, under the able sponsorship of Miss Rose Sockler and Miss Arda Frans have rendered many delightful programs and have really brought to light individual talents which otherwise might have remained dormant.

The aim and purpose of these literary societies is to unfold and strengthen various talents of young boys and girls. In order to do this, programs of various educational and entertaining natures are arranged by the program committees, composed of members of the student body and executed by the society sponsors, who use each member of the society at least once during the year. These programs are presented at specified times.

"Rejoice, O young men, in the days of thy youth; and walk in the ways of thine heart and in the sight of thine eyes; but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment." Eccl. 11:9.

Not only is it the Christian Organization of the entire student body, but many visitors from neighboring vicinities attend these meetings. This Union means a lot to the students, because in this everything is like one big family and not divided according to their Denominations, yet each one may have absolute freedom to his or her belief.

The C. Y. P. U. programs consist of scripture reading, prayer by the leader or the faculty in charge, songs, a wide description of the text according to individual interpretation, and special numbers such as choir selections under the leadership of Miss Rose Sockler.

For the necessity of adjournment, we breathe this Benediction: "May the Lord watch between me and thee while we are absent one from another."

ATHLETICS

The feotball season of 1925 was one of the most promising of several years.

Mr. Goldie Dennis, our Coach, is a man that is a friend to all the students and loved by those who take part in athletics. coaches for endurance and development, but mostly, to learn the art of winning and losing.

The material looked very promising this year. The coach had to fill the places of several veterans of the previous year, and it was hard to get the rust off of the team by the time of the Lawton Game. As it was the first game of the season and so many were inexperienced, it left most of the playing to Basil, Clarence, Ercil, and Topetchy, who played an exceptionally good game. The next game was with Cordell. This was a hard fought battle and as they have two years of college, we were unable to bring home the bacon, but the Pep'ets rounded up the The Junior College Game at day with a very enjoyable evening. Wichita Falls was one in which both teams showed all they had. The outstanding players were: Merck, Melka, Lynch, Topy, and Ward. Next came the Snyder game. This game was won before it was hardly started The result was an easy victory. Following this was the Waurika game. The players were real sports and played a very clean game. The Pep Pirates showed both teams an enjoyable evening. The Armistic Game with Temple looked rather bad for us when they came on the field, but we got their number and sent them home defeated. We couldn't say much for the Comanche game, but the Pep Pirates accompanied us and gave a real display of pep. Next came the Marlow game, which we more desired to win than any other game, but we were defeated. The Thanksgiving game followed. We were defeated but had a fine trip otherwise.

To the Pep Pirates: "We the team of 1925 want to thank you for the loyalty and support shown."

G. V. DENNIS, Coach

Goldie is a man for clean athletics. He always works hard toward making a victorious team. He is liked by all the students yet he is always one of the boys and we all hope to see him back at old C. S. S. A. next year.

CLARENCE HUMPHREY, Tackle.

Captain
Onyx was a little slow but dependable when an opening was needed. He is a good tackle. He is a senior and will be a credit to any college team.

ALBERT TOPETCHY, Fullback.

Topy, the man with the educated toe. He was great in backing up the line and was a bard hitter. Topy played a great game at Wichita Falls. He is a senior.

FRANK MELKA, Quarterback.

Frank filled his position well. He was always calm in an emergency and never got excited. He will graduate this year and his place will be hard to fill.

ninety

DENNIS LYNCH, Halfback.

"Dick" is a dependable man in a football suit. If you want a few yards, just call on him. This is his second year. He will be back with the Orange and Black next year.

FRANK WARD, Halfback.

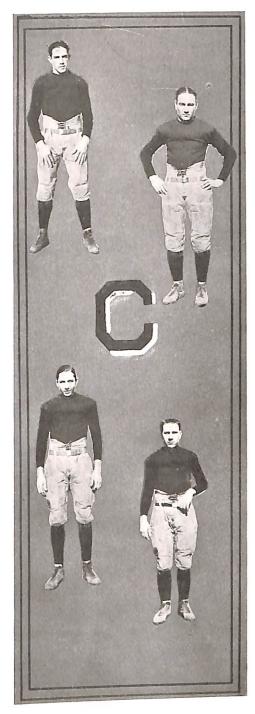

This is Frank's first year in football and he hails from Chattanooga. He is a hard fighter and is in all the plays. He will be back next year.

BASIL WILKERSON, Center. Captain Elect.

This is Basil's first year as a letter man. He fights all the time for all he is worth. He is a junior and will lead his team to victory next year.

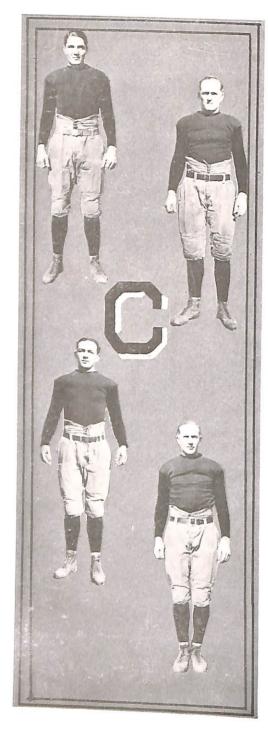

WILLIAM BUCKWALL, Guard.

The fact that this is Buck's first year in football was never noticed. He filled his position well and made a good showing. He has one more year.

ninety-one

RAY WILKERSON, End.

In spite of the fact that this was Ray's first year, he was an end any high school would be proud of. He is a senior.

HAROLD WOLF, Guard.

"Punnie" was inexperienced when the season started, but he was heavy and filled his position well. He has two more years at Cameron.

ORVAL MILLER, Halfback.

Blackie was a hard earnest worker for the Orange and Black. He took many a hard knock for his school. He will be missed next year.

ELBERT WOLF, End.

"Bert" was a tenderfoot but proved his ability. He was good anywhere he was needed. He is a sophomore.

ROY HAVENS, Tackle.

"Hippo" is large and fast and always delivers the goods, whereever he might be placed. He always has his opponents guessing.

LEWIS FAULKNER, Quarter.

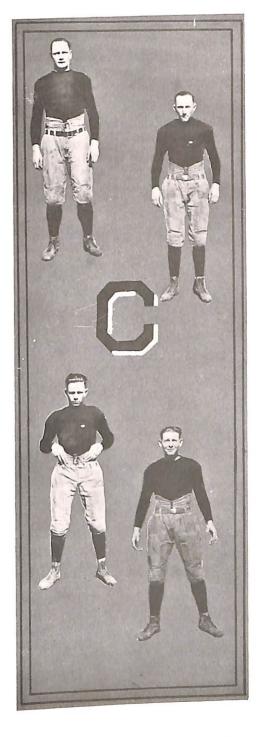

"Faulk" is a little small but played a great game for the Orange and Black against Lawton. He is a senior.

CLIFF MERCK, End.

"Darby" was one of the grittiest men on the gridiron. He never complained. He is a senior and leaves a place which will be hard to fill.

ELBRIDGE TUCKER, Center.

"Irishman" is a dependable man and a hard tackler. He has one more year with the Orange and Black.

ninety-three

BASKETBALL

The Basket Ball Season of '26 has been successful for both teams.

Under the competent coaching of Mr. G. V. Dennis, both teams made a record that all Cameron is proud to own.

Although all our games were not played at home, neighboring teams found themselves welcome and well supported by the student body when playing on our court. The county Basket Ball Tournament was also held at Cameron.

As this season draws to a close the teams relentingly lay away their Black and Orange with the determination to draw it next fall with the same pep and enthusiasm that they kept through the season of '26.

WILLIAM BUCHWALD, Guard.

"Buck" is a man that is hard to get around.

FRANK WARD, Forward.

"Freshman" was good at shooting goals.

BASIL WILKERSON, Center.

"Shakie" is dependable and one of Cameron's best players.

CHARLEY ROWELL, Forward. "Chuck," the boy that never misses.

FRANK MELKA, Guard.

Melka was a good defense man, and a good floor worker.

CLIFF MERCK, Forward.

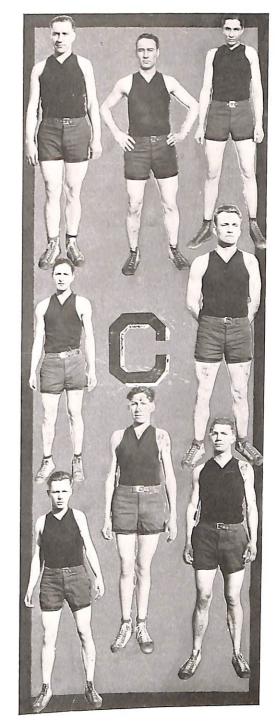

"Darby" is small but is a big point maker.

WILLIAM COX, Forward.

"Bill:" First experience, but was right there with the goods.

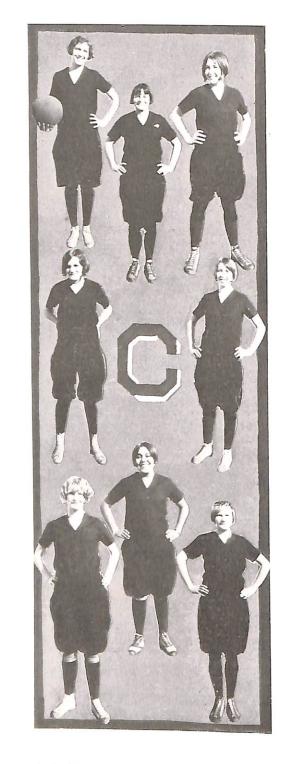

ORVAL MILLER, Guard.

"Blackie" was a good shooter and a hard fighter.

ninety-five

ninety-four

JOSEPHINE WATSON, Guard.

"Jo," the best guard that ever struck

MARY WHITE, Center.

"Peewee," willing to sacrifice personal glory for the good of the team.

WILLIE MAE RICHARDS, Guard. Billy was a steady and dependable guard.

OMA CARTER, Center.

"Red," another fast player and a good

GENEVA TAYLOR, Forward. Taylor a fast player with pep and fight.

MARGUERITE RHODES, Center.

"Margie," another year will prove her

LILLIE QUETONE, Forward. She never missed a free throw.

JOKES

A GOOD SCHOOLMASTER

An indignant mother wrote thus to the principal of an academy:

"Dear Sir: My son writes me that he has to study too hard. He says he has to translate fifty hexameters of Latin a day. I looked up 'hexameter' in the dictionary and find it is a poetic verse of six feet. Now that makes 300 feet or 100 yards of poetry for poor son to translate each day. I think half a hexameter, of this Latin is enough for a boy of his age."

Daughter: "He says he thinks I'm the nicest girl in town. Shall I ask him to call."

Mother: "No, dear; let him keep on thinking so."

Caller: "Good morning. I called to see if the doctor couldn't give me something for my tonsils."

New Nurse: "I'm sorry, but the doctor never buys tonsils—He removes Mistress: "I am a woman of few words. If I beckon with my hand that means 'come.' ,,

New Maid: "I am also a woman of few words, so that suits me fine. If I shake my head it means 'I'm not coming'."

Customer: "I want a couple of pillowcases."

Clerk: "What size?"

one hundred

Customer: "I don't know, but I wear a number 7 hat."

JOKES

A SHORT STORY IN VERSE

A pretty girl lost her glove. The finder was an old bachelor named Page, and he returned it to her with this note:

"If from your glove you take the letter 'g', That glove is love and that I have for thee.'

To this the girl replied:

"If from your name you take the letter 'P', Then Page is age, and that won't do for me."

Young man: "So Miss Ethel is your oldest sister? Who comes after her?"

Small boy: "Nobody hasn't yet, but Pa says the first fellow that comes can have her."

Bennie: "Mr. Moss, why don't you grow hair on your head?"

Mr. Moss: "Well, why doesn't grass grow on a busy street?"

Bennie: "Oh, I see it can't get up for the concrete."

Mr. March: "I don't look like myself in this new hat."

Mrs. March: "No, my dear; I think you made a very wise selection."

Geneva Taylor: "I wonder why a girl can't catch a ball like a man?" Roy Havens: "Oh, a man is so much bigger and easier to catch."

RULES OF ETIQUETTE

AT CAMERON

As you approach the table, make a running jump for your chair, endeavoring to be the first one seated. Everybody will probably remark about your wonderful agility. A modest blush will be your answer.

The meal is about to begin. Hitch right up to the table, placing your arms in an advantageous position on either side of your plate. Keep your weather eye on your competitors, forgetting everything but the work that is before you. Don't let any one get the lead on you.

While everybody else is waiting for everybody else, start something.

If your soup is so hot that it burns you, gargle it in the back of your throat for a little while. This is much better than trying to hide it in your napkin like some people try to do.

When starting in with a large plate full of good things, discard your fork temporarily; you can hold a good deal more stuff on the knife anyway and it requires much more dexterity to manipulate it. Use the fork to clean up with.

At any time when you happen to be drinking water, remember it is considered quite a feat to make a gargling sound like a soda fountain. This is of admiring attention.

If you bite your tongue, don't hasten to utter a bunch of bluish idioms. It isn't nice. Just let your tongue hang out of the corner of your mouth until it has ceased being angry with you for having bitten it. In this delicate way you can apprise the people of your misfortune.

If by chance you spill your coffee in your neighbor's lap, instantly assure him that you really didn't care for the coffee anyway. Tell him not to mind it at all.

THE CAMERON CARNIVAL

On Thursday evening, December 4, 1926, the annual carnival was held.

The evening was rainy and the crowd was limited, but those who attended contributed freely. We all had a fine time with lots of fun.

Among the attractions were: The Snake Charmer, Negro Minstrel, Gypsy Fortune Telling, Doll Throwing Athletic Show, Bearded Lady, Fat Woman, Siamese Twins and the Tall Woman. There was also a hamburger stand, and pie and coffee could be had.

During the carnival a jazz band composed of disguised band members played for the attractions afforded.

The proceeds went to pay the annual dues of the two literary societies.
