

Evanston's
Testimonial to Frances E. Willard.

1839.

September 28.

1889.

Program

MUSIC, - - - Loyal Temperance Legion

PRAYER, - - - Rev. H. A. Delano

SOLO, - - - Miss Katharine Waugh

ADDRESS, - - - H. H. C. Miller
President of the Village

ADDRESS, Rev. Joseph Cummings, D. D.
President Northwestern University

ADDRESS, - Rev. S. F. Jones, D. D.
Pastor First M. E. Church

MUSIC, - Heart Thanks

Program.

ADDRESS, - - - Elizabeth Wheeler Andrew
On behalf of the W. C. T. U.

ADDRESS, - - - Elizabeth Boynton Harbert
On behalf of the Woman's Council

READING, - - - Lida Hood Talbot

CONGRATULATORY LETTERS, - - -
Read by Prof. Robert L. Cumnock

RESOLUTIONS, Presented by Hon. E. S. Taylor

VOCAL DUET, - - - { Bessie Bragdon
Ruth Crandon

RESPONSE, - - - Frances E. Willard

MUSIC, - - - - - America

BENEDICTION, - - - Rev. N. H. Whittlesey

Heart Thanks

FOR MISS WILLARD'S BIRTHDAY.

BY MARY LOWE DICKINSON.

MOST loving Lord and King,
Heart thanks untold we bring
To Thy dear feet;
For one brave soul and grand,
That led by Thy command,
Has proved to all our land
A boon complete.

Laurels for victories won,
Banners for work well done,
We lay them down.
O Christ, the only good,
Denied, misunderstood,
Our crown of womanhood
Brings Thee her crown.

Its fifty jeweled years,
Glistening with woman's tears,
Fragrant with prayer;
Whose succor for distress,
Whose mighty will to bless,
Whose untold tenderness
Is everywhere.

Bear on, oh, countless hands,
To earth's sin-shadowed lands,
Her work so grand.
Strengthened by staff and rod,
Climb in the ways she trod,
Till on the height of God
In peace we stand.