Dear Prof.

A few days ago the February issue of the Bulletin caught up with me and with a feeling mixed with pride and surprise I read of your appointment to the Stewardship Secretary of the U.S.C.A. I am proud, not for myself, but for Wagner that you were called and I was surprised for I had learned to think of the names "Staughton" and "Wagner" as synonymous. That you must leave I am sorry.

Accept my congratulations and since I will not be in a position to bid you adieu on July, I must use this means to say to you and Mrs. Staughton, "Good bye and good luck!"

Sincerely,
Irving Green, '37
