Hi Prof.

Just a few lines to say hello and let you in on a surprise. Today as I was flying to me said, "I know it well I've been there." "What part of the Island?" says I, (tech. I enquired).

"Wagner College" he replied "Yes Prof he is a former Wagner student named Lt. Novak, he is in the same outfit as I and I've known him several months but just found out about his connections today. He is returning to the States shortly.
