SOMEWHERE IN GERMANY

Dear Prof,

I had intended writing sooner but with things moving at such a rapid pace hardly found time.

I had good intentions of attending Easter Service in France but found myself fast at work in Germany on that memorable day. We have been very busy this past week but things are shaping up and getting back to normal.

I received a copy of the U. C. Bulletin and read of your call to the Stewardship of U.S.A. - Wagner. I know will miss you but this is wishing you, in sincerity the best in your new post. Hope you had a fine Easter - Regards to all. Harold
