Montgomery Museum & Lewis Miller Regional Art Center

January

Jan. 1, 1913.

The last night of the year of 1912 and the first morning of the New Year was spent at a party given by Dorothy Moir and Jessie Boulden. Met some real nice boys and girls. We went home after twelve and Robertine and I went to bed and talked a few minutes. The next morning we went down to the station to tell Kathleen good-bye. Saw Sarah Moffett and met several other girls and boys. Churchill Robertson went home with us and on the car I saw a real cute boy who I had met last summer. Came home Wednesday evening and Willis came over after supper and wanted me to go to a dance but I had such a head ache that I couldn't go. Went to bed about 11 o'clock -
