

Chronology from Ski-Zette Files

High Lights of Camp Hale, From the Birth to the Death of Ski-Zette

1942

- | | |
|---|--|
| 18 Dec.—Camp Hale's Ski-Zette born | KOA |
| 21 Dec.—Service Club No. 1 opens | 25 Aug.—Recreation Hall opens |
| 25 Dec.—Ski-Zette named by Cpl. Ralph Pugh, of Hq. Det. DEML; Christmas Dance at Service Club | 10 Sept.—Eagle Bank opens Pando office |
| | 16 Oct.—10th Division activation ceremony; Harvest Carnival |
| | 20 Oct.—Joe Louis and company entertain; Pando Civilian Mess opens |

1943

- | | |
|--|---|
| 8 Jan.—Hale's skiers win victory over civilians at Winter Park, Colo.; Theater No. 1 opens | 26 Nov.—Civilian Commissary opens |
| 15 Jan.—Camp Hale heard on "Army Hour" | 29 Oct.—Free camp bus service inaugurated |
| 25 Jan.—Field House opens; Theater No. 3 opens | |
| 28 Jan.—Theater No. 2 opens | |
| 1 Mar.—Leadville off-limits restriction lifted | |
| 9 Mar.—Mountain Training Center Band arrives | |
| 25 Mar.—Hollywood Star Pat Morrison visits Hale | |
| 7 Apr.—87th Inf. gets Regimental Insignia; Station Complement NCO Club opens | |

1944

22 Apr.—Ski-Zette blossoms in four-page newspaper; Charlie Peterson, billiard expert, visits Hale

25 Apr.—Lt. Col. C. C. Griffin, Five

29 May—Post Headquarters moves to Pando

14 June—Vox Pop entertains camp

16 June—Legal Assistance office opens

23 June—WAAC motor corps arrives

27 June—Two railroad cars loaded with munitions explode at Grand Junction

15 July—Tenth Light Infantry Division is activated; Lt. Col. J. A. Chase assumes command of camp

22 July—Jane Wyman "makes" Camp Hale

4 Aug.—Gen. Lloyd Jones receives DSM

3 Aug.—Richard Humber plays at Field House

11 Aug.—Hale's WAAC take oath of WAC

15 Aug.—WAC broadcasts over

10 Jan.—Lowell Thomas broadcast
25 Aug.—All-Star Softball team chosen; MPs win league title

16 Sept.—Camel Caravan came to Camp Hale

30 Sept.—Camp Hale Ski-Zette dies

Steamboat Springs meet
CAPTURED NAZI OFFERS
TO JOIN U. S. ARMY

France (CNS)—A 50-year-old German private surrendered to a group of GIs here and then offered to enlist in the American Army.

"I told these bums that when America came into the war they'd get hell kicked out of them," he shouted, waving a mean finger at his fellow prisoners.

His offer of enlistment was declined.

Reno (CNS)—Gypsy Rose Lee, author and strip tease artiste, has arrived in Reno with three projects in mind. They are (1) to have a baby, (2) to get a divorce, (3) to write a novel.