

Refrain

Put on your old gray bon-net with the blue rib - bon on it, While I stand at the door in the way, And through the fields of our way, keep close up to De - ver on our gold - en high - way, "Put on your day."

Copyright, 1911, by the publisher and the author. All rights reserved. No words or music of this song or any portion thereof may be reproduced in any form without the written permission of the publisher under the United States Copyright Law.