

4

F Fdim C7 F

ret-ing, we had a good time, goes with-out say-ing. He came to my house health-y, In love with a he, hand-some and wealth-y. I tried to get him-wo-men, I'd mar-ry that man if it was hu-man. The wed-ding bells rang-

D7 Gm Gm7 C7 Gm7 C7

- all the lights were low. And then he held me close, set my heart a -
 - in my sweet em - brace. All he had on his mind was the pen - nant
 - we were one in June. Tri - umphant-ly we went on our hon - ey - glow. He told me that my lips were as sweet as race. And though I saw him prac - ti - c'ly ev - 'ry moon. He held me ver - y tight un - der stars so

F Cm6 D7

Gm Gm7 G7 C9 F

wine, With that he put his two lips so close to mine and talked of night, We nev - er went to mov - ies or saw a fight. We just saw bright, And whis-pered, "Dar-ling, who do you love to - night?" I told him