The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand starts with a series of chords and eighth notes, while the left hand plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The music is in a 2/4 time signature and a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The first measure is marked with a forte 'f' dynamic.

The first system of the song features a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line begins with a double bar line and a repeat sign. The lyrics are: "You may talk a - bout the weath - er if it's going to rain or You may talk a - bout old hock - ey in the good old win - ter". The piano accompaniment continues with chords and eighth notes, marked with a piano 'p' dynamic.

The second system of the song continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "shine. time. Fig - ure on the mar - ket and you're apt to get in Fig - ure on a big fight and may - be you win some -". The piano accompaniment remains consistent with the previous system.

The third system of the song concludes the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "line. You may fig - ure on the hors - es and per - haps you'll dope them time. You may place a bet on foot - ball and per - haps your side wins". The piano accompaniment continues with chords and eighth notes.
