

Second Verse

Rodgers, a phoney, who lived out in Coney,
For baseball and such had no use.
So to his young sweetie, he made this entreaty
"Let's go to a dance" but no use.
Murgatroyd took her handbag as big as a sandbag,
And biffed Rodgers over the head.
And as the snide laggard beneath the blow staggered,
To him these hard woids Murgy said.

Third Chorus

LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, with a loud hooray.
We'll hop a trolley and show 'em by golly that they're O.K.
Sitting around here is very silly,
When we can stand up for Dolph Camilli.
LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, they must win to-day.

Fourth Chorus

LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, leave us join the fun.
Come along chums and we'll cheer for our bums as they score each run.
What dem Giants hand out is pure malarkey.
They'll need a lot more to stop our Arky.
LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, till the game is won.

Fifth Chorus

LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, show the boys we care.
Leave us make merry while Mel Ott and Terry tear out their hair.
Them so-called Giants will look like toy-men,
When they get up against Billy "Hoimen".
LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, show 'em that we're there.

Sixth Chorus

LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, leave us cheer their name.
Ev'ry "Noo Yawker" gets "noivous" when Walker is in the game.
You can have Superman and Dick Tracy,
We'll stick to Wyatt and big Hugh Casey.
LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, we'll be glad we came.

Seventh Chorus

LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, drown the rival din.
Bring out the gang and we'll vocally hang one upon their chin.
Toss up your straw hat or iron "doiby".
This is the day we'll be seein' "Koiby".
LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, root them in to win.

Eighth Chorus

LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, leave us do our stuff.
Leave us take part when the pop bottles start and the guys get rough.
While we are there in the thick of the battle,
Reiser and Reese will make base hits rattle.
LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, show they ain't no bluff.

Ninth Chorus

LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, we will do our share.
Leave us not tarry, we owe it to Larry to be in there.
We'll drive the Cards and the Reds delirious.
Then we'll knock off the old world "serious".
LEAVE US GO ROOT FOR THE DODGERS, RODGERS, bums beyond compare.
