

base ball grounds and all dressed up in tights, And when we came out "Neversweats" be - gan to scowl and frown, Be - fore the man had start - ed home as drunk as I could be, I kicked the door and on the field, we looked such ho - ly sights, Mc Clos - ky, he went time to think Mc Closky had him down, Oh! I my - self was rang the bell like an In - dian on a spree My wife raised up the first to bat, and knocked a lit - tle fly, But the bum short stop, he scared to death, And from the field I fled, And when the fight, was win - dow sash And then put out her head, She gave a roar who's let it drop, And the mob be - gan to cry! at its height, The um - pire to us said! at the door? And this is all I said!