

Extra Choruses

BOSTON BRAVES

It's a grand old game,— it's a wonderful game!
Walt Berger, Al Spohrer, are in there gaining fame.
The real fans come from all the towns from Cape Cod up to Maine.
Gee, boys! ain't we got fun with Schulmerich and Worthington.
It's a grand old game,— it's a wonderful game!
Let's all cheer the players out there each day,
Brandt, Maguire and Sherdell are all players you know well.
It's a grand old game.

BOSTON RED SOX

It's a grand old game,— and the Sox have some team
Delighted, excited, so all the home fans seem.
John Collins and his hired men are back with us again.
The fans just stop and stare with Oliver and Webb out there.
It's a grand old game,— it's a wonderful game!
Let's all cheer the players out there each day
Good luck to Mr. Quinn, we all want to see you win.
It's a grand old game.

WASHINGTON SENATORS

It's a grand old game,— Washington is o. k.
Comedy, Vodville, before the game each day:
Walt Johnson and his hired men are back with us again.
The team's in great condition, two great shows for one admission.
It's a grand old game,— it's a wonderful game!
Let's all cheer the players out there each day
They very seldom flop, for they're always near the top.
It's a grand old game.

ST. LOUIS CARDS.

It's a grand old game,— it's a wonderful game!
Chick Hafey, Orsatti, are in the hall of fame.
You'll see the players in there any day it doesn't rain.
Just listen to them shout when Frisch and Adams hit it out.
It's a grand old game,— it's a wonderful game!
Let's all cheer the players out there each day
Watkins, Grimes and Gabby Street are a tough old team to beat.
It's a grand old game.