

SAFE AT HOME

(A tribute to our beloved BABE RUTH)

Words and Music by JACK ROLLINS &
PERRY ALEXANDER

Moderately with fervor

Piano introduction for the song, consisting of two staves of music in 4/4 time. The melody is in the right hand, and the accompaniment is in the left hand. The key signature has one flat (B-flat major or D minor).

VERSE

There's a sight to-night in Hea-ven nev-er e-qualled an-y-where, As the Hearts are light to-night in Hea-ven, souls are cheer-ing ev-ry-where, And the

Chords: E, Emaj7, G7, C, Am

an-gels cal-ly round the gold-en throne. From the top of Cal-vry's moun-tain, joy and bright-est stars are shin-ing in the blue. As a host of great im-mor-tals lend their

Chords: D7, G, G, Gmaj7, G7

laugh-ter fills the air to pro-claim the might-y Babe is safe at home, wil-les to de-clare that the might-y Babe is safe and smil-ing through.

Chords: C, Am, D7, G, C, Cm, G