

brass tubes in his throat; He needs a cool and lev - el head, that ar - mies we are told; Where - 'er they led men fol - lowed them, but is - n't hard to hit, So when the fans beat on - ly came for hire, Just think of all that up his frame, They'll have a nice place to sit; The gra - tis come, To fol - low the bold um - pire; He rit.

on - ly job that's worse, is dri - ver on a hearse.
leads them with such vim, be - cause they're chas - ing him.

rit. f

The Umpire.