

BRONX TOWN BILL IS A DYIN'
('CAUSE THE DODGERS LOST IN THEIR LAST HOME GAME)

BY: LEW MEL-JIM BOYD & ELMER WICKHAM

Verse

The musical score is handwritten on five-line staves. The key signature is F major (one sharp). The time signature is common time (indicated by 'C'). The first staff is labeled 'Verse'. The lyrics describe Bronx Town Bill's tragic end after the Dodgers lost their last home game. The second staff begins with a 'CHORUS' section. The third staff continues the chorus. The fourth staff starts with 'DY-IN' repeated three times. The fifth staff concludes with 'DY-IN' followed by the final line of the chorus.

1. Now Bronx Town Bill is a Brook-lyn Dude, Who came out West in a hap- py mood; But shot him-self on the day he came, 'Cause the Dod- gers lost in their last home game.
CHORUS

BRONX TOWN BILL IS A DY- IN' BRONX TOWN BILL IS A DY- IN' BRONX TOWN BILL IS A DY- IN' 'CAUSE THE DOD- GERS LOST IN THEIR LAST HOME GAME...

Additional Verses:

2. They have him tucked in a bunk house bed
with that box score he has sadly read;
For poor ol' Bill, 'twas a cryin' shame;
That the Dodgers Lost in Their Last Home Game.

3. He got so mad when he saw that score
He shot himself with a forty four;
They'd been ahead, till the closing frame
Then the Dodgers lost in their last home game.

4. He never dreamed they could ever lose
But there it was in the sporting news,
he pulled his gun when the sad news came,
Then he shot himself 'cause they lost the game.

5. Now when he's gone and they play next year
The fans will give with the ol' Bronx cheer
And they will shout and his name, acclaim
As a true blue fan of a Dodger game;
