

Shown in photograph, FIRST ROW: Leo F. Malloy, Dale A. Perry, Ronald F. Sauer, Howard M. Anderson, Leonard E. Sundahl, Walter E. Marshall, James A. Walla.
 SECOND ROW: Lester L. Smith, Eugene L. Kimball, Harold E. Sanderson, Robert G. Cadwallader, Gordon R. Brittell, Percy A. Emerson, Kenneth E. Wilde, Harold H. Parks, Norbert E. Clark, Harry J. McKnight.
 THIRD ROW: Howard F. Reinhold, Arthur H. Hofferber, Myrle R. Caster, Frank H. Longbine, Simon G. Shellberg, Jr., Vernon G. Hausmann, Leonard R. Janovec, Douglas W. Smith, Jerome R. Zingg, LeRoy Teeter.
 FOURTH ROW: Claude A. Ragland, Burnie Zulkoski, Albert C. Mackey, Waldron K. Rynearson, Anthony Jacobi, Boyce B. Shaffer, Virgil A. Tomlinson, Charles Magsamen, Dallas L. Beckner, Vernon L. Wolfe, Harold D. Van Oyen.

to make the camp a pleasant place in which to live.

Education has had a large part in camp life. The Educational department has a well organized and versatile program and almost every enrollee is voluntarily enrolled in a class. The educational advisor is assisted by several W. P. A. teachers.

Camp and civic activities have always been well supported. Much interest is taken in church affairs, a number of members are officers in the various local church activities.

Sports have consisted of baseball, softball, basketball, horse shoes, tennis, pool and ping pong. Competition has been had with Nebraska camps and neighboring bush leaguers. In softball a league consisting of 5 teams chosen within the camp have played a Round Robin schedule each year; winner of the first and second halves contesting for the championship at the end of the season. The local High School Gymnasium has been the locale for the blighted hopes of visitors on occasions, as we were able to deliver with or without the help of four-leaf-clovers. The camp has held up their reputation in the tournaments that have been staged each year. Baseball has been very popular and promises to really warm up the bags this year, as we have new equipment and some promising talent among the rookies. Tournaments for horse shoes, pool, cribbage are held regularly and prizes awarded in each event.

Chief Wabashaw, a member of the company and a fistic artist, placed this organization in an enviable position among the stars of the manly art of self defense, during the years of 1935, 1936 and 1937.

Co. 4720, SCS-5 is furnishing CCC assistance in 2 Soil Conservation District Areas in addition to the regular camp work area. A Side Camp of 50 enrollees has been maintained for the last year at Albion, Nebraska, 40 miles from the main camp and is furnishing CCC assistance to the Nebraska Plum-Beaver Soil Conservation District. A work detail of 35 enrollees is also located at Newman Grove, Nebraska. A third Soil Conservation District located entirely within the camp work area will be getting assistance from this camp in the near future.

SIDE CAMP:

Shown in photograph, FIRST ROW: Ralph C. Werth, Earl C. Hoffman, Martin A. Reuss, Tedous A. Jarosz, Thomas Limbaugh, Delbert E. Prickett, Raymond A. Taylor, Robert Buol, John Hanna Jr.
 SECOND ROW: Thomas E. Pojar, Kem Boelter, Elmer D. Hull, Virgil E. Walsh, El Roy Ueckert, Irvin B. Saunders, Richard J. Hollingshead, Gerald P. Walsh, Harold F. Shuler, Robert B. Shocker, Patrick J. Murphy.
 THIRD ROW: Elmer E. Anstine, Harold D. Hart, Robert E. Bassett, Tobert Thomas, Harold K. Brittell, Vincent B. Sandman, Stanley A. Rickert, Virgil V. Johnson, James R. Egan, Elias W. Timmerman, Leonard Reidmiller, Charles W. Weller.
 FOURTH ROW: George Johnson, William E. Donnelly, Max A. Evans, Eugene F. Von Bonn, Gerald S. Vrbicky, Earl Stevens, Paul F. Van Ert, Elbert Patras, Henry D. Hollmann Jr., Clarence E. Gugat, Stanley E. Green, Avery E. Gaddie, Glen H. Spencer.

