

and Congregation both as to the mode of managing the same. The use of the Chapter
- the appointment of the Minister and so on; - as for instance that the Minister for the time being shall have the sole and enjoyment of house No. 8; as he shall think proper in the same way as a Benefice (Singular) of the Church of England was: That the Congregation shall choose the Minister that the Chapter shall be held by the Quakers for the use of the Congregation herein appointed and so on.

I think then, that by this trust deed you may so define the houses and duties and right of all, that it matters little who are the Quakers, and taking care
