of Keld, Mr. Wadsworth to invite churches to co-operate towards cost and by providing two representatives each to make arrangements with Mrs. Hatton.

Approval was expressed for an entertainment or effort during November to raise money for party etc.
 Dates:- the head-teachers promised to inform the correspondent of dates for holidays next session as soon as possible for information of Education Office.

A public meeting, called by the managers, was held on Wednesday, 31st May 1972 to consider the Draft plan for Primary Schools, in which the closure of Keld School is proposed.

There was considerable discussion. In view of the continuing fall in numbers of children in Keld it was agreed that, although it was undesirable for the village, the closure of the school and transfer of children to the new school at Gunnerside was inevitable.
 The managers approved arrangements for a school trip being made by the head-teachers.
